BORAH ON WAR TRAIL.

Campaign Expenditures Denounced.

Claims "War Profiteers" are Buying up Presidential Candidates.

Senator Moses, Manager for Gen. Wood, Meets Attack with Hot Denials.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A direct charge that big financial interests and war profiteers were trying to buy the national conventions of both the Republican and Democratic parties was made in the Senate today by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho.

Concentrating his attack on the backers of Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood and Gov. F. O. Lowden of Illinois for the Republican nomination, Borah declared the Wood managers were attempting "to control the Republican convention by the use of money," while the Lowden organization apparently was spending even greater sums to gain support for their candidate.

Within ten days, he predicted, two Democratic aspirants, whom he did not name, would be found spending quite as much as any Republican in the field.

The speech brought on a heated debate during which Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, manager of Gen. Wood's Washington headquarters, made a denial that excessive funds had been used in the Wood candidacy, or that any money had been spent except "legitimately."

Calling on all candidates to tell the country voluntarily how much they were spending, and where it was coming from, Senator Borah cited newspaper reports that the Wood promoters had pledged a campaign fund of $1,000,000; that "testimonials" indorsing Gen. Wood were being bought in Indiana for $2.50 each, and that every vote cast for the Wood or Lowden candidacies in the recent South Dakota primaries represented an expenditure of $10. Such a situation, said the Senator, forecast a "saturnalia of corruption," unless Congress acted.

BILL TO PREVENT IT.

Senator Borah's speech was made in support of a bill he introduced to limit the pre-convention expenditures of any candidate to $10,000 in each State; to compel any persons or corporation making a contribution of more than $100, to give the donation publicity through the Attorney-General, and to require each candidate to make public within fifteen days before the convention and again within 30 days after the convention, a complete list of contributions.

called together nearly men who were known to have made efforts in behalf of Mr. Hover's Republican nomination, independently of each other. Men prominent in the business and professional life of the city attended.

After forming the club, it was decided to invite the smaller groups, such as the College Hoover Club, and other units, to merge with the new organization.

Chairman Bell was requested by J. F. Lucey, temporary chairman of the National Hoover Republican club, with headquarters in New York City, to co-ordinate activities in Philadelphia.

A later conference was attended by a score or more of prominent men, including bankers, lawyers and members of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania.

HOOVER TIDE STRONG.

"Every one, whether advocating Mr. Hoover's nomination or not," said Mr. Bell, "realizes that there is a strong undercurrent of popular sentiment in favor of his nomination sweeping over the country.

"I am convinced that there are a great number of Republicans in Philadelphia who would work for his nomination. It is not necessary to create sentiment for him; it exists now.

"The object of the Philadelphia Hoover Club will be to crystallize that sentiment and to demonstrate that the public will request the Republican organization to recognize a real, widespread demand for Mr. Hoover as the standard-bearer of the Republican party."

Police Grill Chauffeur, Sweetheart of Brutally Slain Mrs. Reed, a Divorcee

Suspected of connection with the mysterious murder of Mrs. Ruby Reed, who was found strangled to death in her apartment at 681 South Bonnie Brae street, Los Angeles, last night, Detective Sergeants Winn and O'Brien early today arrested the dead woman's sweetheart, George Fredericks, a chauffeur, 41 years of age, at his apartment at 728 West Seventh street. After a severe grilling by the detectives he was lodged in the City Jail.

A diamond ring, torn from the finger of the dead woman by her assassin, according to O'Brien and Winn, may prove the key to the solution of the mystery murder. This ring had been given to Mrs. Reed by Fredericks, he told the detectives. It contained seven diamonds.

When arrested the chauffeur had a new stickpin which contained a dozen diamonds. He told the detectives that he purchased this ring two days ago while he was in San Diego taking his employer, a Mrs. Beardsley of 2445 Severance street, to the races at Tia Juana. Mrs. Reed was murdered on Tuesday night, according to the police.

TO TRACE DIAMOND RING.

Detectives Winn and O'Brien today will attempt to trace the diamond ring, and through it they expect to locate the murderer.

Torn love letters were found in the dead woman's apartment which were addressed to "Dear George" and which stated that $14 which he had requested was inclosed in the letter. These letters were evidently written on the night of the murder, for the fountain pen, opened, was found on her desk beside her writing materials, and the torn letters were close by.

Fredericks told the detectives that the letters referred to a request he had made of his sweetheart, Mrs. Reed, for $14 with which to buy new underwear, according to Winn and O'Brien. The detectives stated that the chauffeur had told them, however, that he was earning $150 a month and that when they entered his apartment to arrest him they found there an abundance of clothes and a large supply of underwear.

ADMITS VISITING WOMAN.

The chauffeur admitted that he had visited Mrs. Reed early on the night of the murder, according to Winn and O'Brien, but said that he had left after a short visit. Apparently the letter was written after he had left, the detectives said.

In explaining his request to Mrs. Reed for money the chauffeur said that borrowing was mutual between his sweetheart and himself. He said that he had frequently borrowed money from her and that she had borrowed from him.

The detectives learned that Mrs. Reed formerly lived in Houston, Tex., and was married there to a man named Carl Norbley about six years ago. But the marriage lasted only a month, when the couple separated, according to the dead woman's chum, Miss Peet. Later Mr. Norbley obtained a divorce, Miss Peet added. Since then Mrs. Reed had made her home here.

Fire at Maier Home

Fire, started by an electric heater, last night caused damage to the residence of Eddie Maier, at 2421 South Figueroa street, estimated at $4500, according to a fire department report.

Free ex-Saloonman

CHICAGO, March 26. — Joseph Weipert, former owner of a saloon, the first to be tried in Chicago for violating the Volstead law, was found not guilty today.

Killed in Collision

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—Frank Bardin is dead and an unidentified companion is dying at the County Hospital as the result of Bardin driving a motorcycle into the rear of a truck on the Stockton road several miles out of the city at a late hour tonight. Both were about 20 years of age and apparently ex-soldiers, as they wore service overcoats.

New Armenian Massacres

ROME, March 26.—The Vatican has received reports of new massacres of Christians in Armenia. In addition to large numbers of native victims, several Catholic missionaries are declared to have been killed. The Pope has sent 50,000 lire to be distributed among the needy in Armenia. The Pontiff also has sent 200,000 lire for the children of the devastated regions of France.

Near-Tragedy at Dance

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—A dozen or more persons, some of them women, were thrown into San Francisco Bay tonight when a gangway from which they were about to board navy launches to visit the battleship Mississippi gave way. All were believed to have been rescued by sailors. Six were taken to a hospital. A dance, preliminary to celebration of naval reserve day here tomorrow, was in progress on the warship.

Scutari Surrendered

BELGRADE (Serbia) March 26.—Scutari (Albania) dispatch says that, although Gen. Dufour, the inter-Allied commander, handed over the city to the inhabitants, according to the award of Allied War Council, the Italians began to occupy the city immediately after the general had left. The dispatch adds that the Italians have placed a complete battery of artillery in the fort, training the guns on the city.

HOOVER PAYS TRIBUTE TO BOY SCOUT SPIRIT.

AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS AND IDEALS SAFE IN THEIR HANDS, HE DECLARES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Praise of the "vigor, enthusiasm and steadfastness of American boys as exemplified by the Boy Scouts during the war," was given tonight by Herbert Hoover, speaking here at the tenth birthday dinner of the Boy Scouts of America.

He predicted many changes in the United States, but asserted that "with the Boy Scouts expanding their ideals and training, no danger to American institutions and ideals may be feared."

William G. McAdoo, who was made an honorary vice-president of the organization "because of the service during the Boy Scout week last June, said the movement "would be a very potent factor in improving the spirit of America and of the politicians," adding "God knows they need improvement."

These officers were elected: president, Colin H. Livingstone, Washington, D. C.; vice-presidents, Mortimer L. Schiff, New York City; Milton A. McRae, Detroit; B. L. Dulaney, Bristol, Tenn.; Arthur Letts, Los Angeles; R. J. Thorne, Chicago; national commander, Daniel Carter Beard, New York City; treasurer, George D. Pratt, Brooklyn; chief scout executive, James E. West, New York City.

FIVE SUSPECTS HELD IN MYSTERY AT ADENA.

ADENA (O.) March 26.—The search for the murderers of 11-year-old Frances Smith, whose body was found in a wood near here last night, was continued today by armed posses of miners.

Several residents of Herrick, five miles south of Adena, told the authorities today that they had seen a soldier in uniform coming from the direction of Adena at 5 p.m. yesterday, shortly before the body of the little girl was found. Officials attached importance to this clue, in view of the fact that the child's hands were tied behind her back with a military hat cord. Five suspects are being held.

DELAY DELAWARE SUFFRAGE

Pivotal State will not Take Vote on the Question Till Next Tuesday.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DOVER (Del.) March 26. — Neither branch of the Delaware Legislature reached a vote today on the suffrage amendment, and from present indications no vote will be taken until next Tuesday at the earliest.

While the Senate Committee on Judiciary, to which the suffrage amendment had been referred, held a meeting during the noon recess today, the report on the bill will not be made to the Senate until Monday.

The bill will be reported from committee to the Senate "on its merits."

The vote for such a report stood four to one, the dissenting vote being that of Senator Gormley, Democrat, that it should be reported "unfavorably." While it was currently rumored prior to the morning session that the suffrage amendment would be called out of committee in the House, and action taken at once on it, the result of a conference of the Republican members of the House changed this programme, and the bill will come back from committee in the House in the regular way by being reported out by the chairman, placed on the calendar and a vote taken.

The suffragist hopes rose to high altitudes today when Republican leaders in the Delaware Senate and House decided definitely not to vote on the ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment until next week.

DELAY HELPS SUFFRAGE.

The delay gives the ratification forces added opportunity to enlist more legislators on their side, and as the situation now stands there is good reason to believe that, with the turning toward suffrage of several heretofore uncommitted members of the House, the resolution will go through.

In a telegram received here by the National Woman's party this morning from Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, he said:

"The argument that Delaware has no right to coerce South Carolina or other nonsuffrage States has no reason in it. The Representatives and Senators of such States pass laws in Congress affecting Delaware whenever they meet."

CLAIM CARRANZA IS NOT FOR MORGANTHAU

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MEXICO CITY, March 26.—Notwithstanding the fact that the government of President Carranza considers Henry Morgenthau persona grata as United States Ambassador to Mexico, it is reported in well-informed government circles that Carranza will ask the United States to reconsider Mr. Morgenthau's appointment in view of the fact that it has been discovered that he is connected with the Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico, and is a close friend of Edward L. Doheny, head of the Mexican Petroleum and other large oil-producing concerns, and of other men prominent in the association.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon and Gen. Pablo Gonzales, Presidential candidates, held a meeting here this afternoon and decided to work together against the candidacy of Ignacio Bonillas, Mexican Ambassador to the United States, who is regarded as the Carranza administration candidate for President. It was authoritatively said that later on one of the two military candidates—Obregon or Gonzales—will withdraw from the race in order to form a single strong military party to oppose the Bonillas candidacy, which is backed by the civilian element in the government.

HUN CINEMA STAR KILLED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

GENEVA, March 26. — Hermine Koller, a well-known German cinema actress of Dresden, was killed and several actors and actresses were injured yesterday near Innsbruck in the upper Wildgratz mountains when an imitation avalanche, which was to envelope the group, developed into a real avalanche, according to reports received here.

CAPITAL SOCIETY GIRL TO DANCE WITH PRINCE

CHARMING SENORITA LEFEVRE, THANKS TO CULEBRA SLIDE, WILL REACH PANAMA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Fortune favors the fair. It is an old maxim, but has been proven true in the case of the charming Senorita Ramona E. LeFevre, sister of the Charge d'Affaires of the Legation of Panama. The senorita, who is one of the most popular Cabinet women in the Latin-American circles, planned months ago to be the guest of the President of the republic of Panama during the visit to that State of the Prince of Wales, where she will dance at the welcoming ball. She believed that she had ample time to reach the isthmus before the Prince arrived, but a sudden change in his plans made it seem doubtful whether the senorita would be there to greet the heir of England's throne.

Then came the slide in Culebra Cut. That saved the day for the dashing Latin beauty. She will reach Panama in plenty of time. Advices from Panama say that it is doubtful whether a channel sufficient to permit the passage of the British cruiser Renown can be cleared in the Culebra Cut by Tuesday next when the Prince of Wales will arrive aboard the warship on his way to Australia.

FIND FIVE MILLION IN BILLS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BUCHAREST (Rumania) March 26.—Five million dollars in bills found in a sack in the corridor of the Simplon Express, on the Rumanian-Hungarian frontier, have been seized and confiscated. The ownership of the money is not known, but officials believe it will be revealed in a few days. The owner of the money, it is asserted, was expecting to make a trip to England and the United States shortly.

BULLETINS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, March 26. — Cologne advices to the Lokal Anzeiger say it is announced from American and British sources that the Allies have decided to permit Germany to send 100,000 troops to the Ruhr region, and that if these are insufficient to maintain law and order they will be reinforced by 8000 British, French and Belgian soldiers.

SPOKANE, March 26.—An unmasked man held up Miss Edith M. Winslow, a book-keeper at the Fidelity Savings and Loan Society's office in the business district here, at the point of a gun this afternoon and forced her to give him $2000 in currency in the cash drawer of the teller's cage. He escaped.

LONDON, March 26.—The conference of representatives of the miners today gave authorization to the executive of the union to proceed with negotiations with the government.

LONDON, March 26.—A bill which will give local option to Wales passed its second reading in the House of Commons today, 86 to 84.

CHICAGO DRUNKENNESS STEADILY INCREASING.

FEDERAL DRY OFFICER THROTTLED—FAKE DRUG STORES IN FULL BLAST.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, March 26.—Maj. A. V. Dalrymple, at present in charge of the prohibition enforcement forces in the Chicago district, with his powers lopped off, is likely to be transferred to Arkansas, according to hints coming from Washington today.

The major is now in Washington, where he went to protest against interference with his work here and lack of support given him by other Federal officials.

From information dribbling in from Washington it appears his mission is in vain and that he will be succeeded by a local man, perhaps one less vigorous. In any event the new officer will be shorn of much power. Federal Judge Carpenter has ruled that hereafter no arrests or seizures can be made until they are sanctioned by the District Attorney. This makes the prohibition enforcement chief a mere figurehead.

It also means that it will be exceedingly difficult to round up any of the bootleggers or saloon-keepers. Liquor is obtainable almost anywhere in the city, as attested by increasing drunkenness.

Owners of private stocks who are planning to move from one residence to another May 1 are in a quandary. Under the Illinois search and seizure law, they cannot move their booze.

In other States they could secure a Federal permit, but that is not permissible under the Illinois law. State prohibition enforcement officials are speeding up their work, as the Federal activities show perceptible lagging.

An especial campaign is being directed against "druggists," chiefly former saloon-keepers, who display a few rolls of absorbent cotton on their shelves, but deal almost exclusively in "prescriptions."

ORLAND, CALIFORNIA, "DEATH" OLIVE HOME?

UNITED STATES HEALTH EXPERT BELIEVES HE HAS FOUND THE ORCHARD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

KLAMATH (Or.) March 26.—One orchard near Orland, Cal., may have furnished all the olives alleged to have caused numerous deaths from botulitis during the recent outbreak in the Middle West, says Dr. J. G. Geiger, of Washington, United States Health Bureau expert. Dr. Geiger is here investigating the deaths of thirteen hens which ate canned olives thrown out by Mrs. Swan Johnson because of suspicious appearance.

The deadly olives are of 1911 pack said Dr. Geiger and he believes he has traced them all to one source.

The public health service is working night and day, he said, to determine the cause and remedy for botulitis, but efforts so far have met with small success. He is working on an entirely new theory that hogs are carriers of the disease. He has established a number of facts in support of his contention and expects to have proof to convince the medical world before his Pacific Coast trip closes.

State Printing Trades to Expand.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SPOKANE, March 26.—With the purpose of seeking amalgamation of the California printing trades conference with the Northwest conference, the California organization will send representatives to the convention of the Northwestern association, to be held here April 12 to 15, it was announced here today.

NOTE STIRS CHILE'S IRE

Americans in Valparaiso Roiled.

Republic's Aid to Prevent Hostilities on West Coast was Asked.

Reply Declares Government, People are Tranquil; No Mobilization.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, March 26. — An official summary of the American note to Chile regarding the recent anti-Peruvian disturbances in Bolivia and of the Chilean government's reply was made public today by the State Department.

The American note, which asked Chile to do everything in its power to avoid the breaking out of hostilities on the west coast of South America, evoked some adverse comment in Chilean newspapers.

The American Chamber of Commerce at Valparaiso also criticised the action of the American government and in a message to Joseph H. Shea, the American Ambassador, said the note as published in the Chilean newspapers was "grossly erroneous, uncalled-for and absolutely contrary to expressed principles of the American government."

BOTH NOTES.

The State Department summarized the American note and the Chilean reply in the following statement:

"On March 17 the American Ambassador in Chile was instructed by the Department of State to inform the Chilean Minister of Foreign Affairs that the government of the United States had informed the Bolivian government that it viewed with the gravest apprehension the attack by a mob on the Peruvian Legation and consulate and on the houses and stores of Peruvians in La Paz. The Bolivian government was also informed that in the opinion of the Department of State any agitation tending to endanger peace on the American continent would be a calamity which would place the gravest responsibility upon those who countenanced it.

WARNS OF MOBILIZATION.

"The Ambassador was further instructed to inform the Chilean Minister for Foreign Affairs that this department would deplore mobilization in Chile and that a similar representation had been made to the governments of Peru and Bolivia regarding mobilization in those countries.

"In conclusion the Ambassador was directed to state that the government of the United States viewed the situation with the gravest apprehension and counted upon the government of Chile to do everything in its power to avoid the breaking out of hostilities on the west coast of South America and to preserve peace until other means of solution for the question interesting Chile, Peru and Bolivia could be found other than force, which could not be countenanced by the civilized world.

INCIDENT DEPLORED.

"On March 22 the American Ambassador in Chile cabled the department that he had received a note from the Chilean Foreign Office expressing thanks for the information the Ambassador had given concerning representations made to the Bolivian government, and deploring the disturbances in La Paz.

"The note declared in part that Chile's conduct in the past and its sincere desire for peace will counsel it to look with misgivings on any attempt to disturb international order. After stating that the Chilean government, when duly informed of the events occurring in La Paz could not attribute to them greater consequences than to a simple agitation of popular elements, the note concluded with the statement the government and people of Chile are absolutely tranquil and have not thought for a moment of the extreme measure of mobilization."

Operation on Heart Fails.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—After a rare, but successful operation on his heart to overcome the effects of a bullet wound, Calvin J. Gilmer, an automobile salesman, died of pneumonia, developed subsequent to the operation, in a local hospital last night.

CONSPIRACY IN HUNGARY

Expose Plot to Get Emperor Back.

Admiral Horthy, Regent, is Party to Scheme to Restore the Monarchy.

Charles, in Seclusion, Hesitates About Accepting the Throne Again.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

GENEVA, March 26.—Admiral Horthy, the regent of Hungary, has secretly but officially offered the Hungarian throne to former Emperor Charles with the assurance that everything has been arranged for the return of the Hapsburg monarchy, with the consent of the majority of the population, according to information from Pragins, where the ex-Emperor lives.

Admiral Horthy, it is declared, has invited the former ruler to come to Budapest as soon as possible, adding that the question with the Allies in connection with the move could be best arranged from the Hungarian capital. The ex-Emperor, however, is said to be apparently hesitating as to his course and has not left Pragins.

AMERONGEN, March 26.—Illness of the former German Empress has reached a stage where her doctors consider it inadvisable to permit her to walk.

PARIS, March 26.—The Allies have not as yet given or refused permission for German regular troops to enter the Allied zone of occupation or the neutral zone to the east established by the Treaty of Versailles, according to semi-official information today.

According to the same source, there is no further question of Inter-Allied intervention in the Ruhr district.

COPENHAGEN, March 26.—It is reported the Allied International Commission has agreed upon occupation of the northern plebiscite zone of Schleswig by Danish troops as soon as possible. The voting in this zone showed the inhabitants overwhelmingly in favor of Danish sovereignty.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The government of India has issued an order prohibiting the entrance of Germans into India for five years from the signing of the Versailles Treaty, according to State Department advices.

REINDICT NORTHERN SHIP BOARD MANAGER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE, March 26.—Capt. John F. Blain, former North Pacific district manager of the United States Shipping Board, was reindicted here today by a Federal grand jury on charges that he accepted secret commissions on sales made to the board while he was manager.

The indictment charged that Capt Blain accepted $15,988.15 in commissions from the Steward Davitt and Equipment Company on sales of equipment the company made to the board.

SEEK TO EXTRADITE ACCUSED ANGELENO.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—Gov. Stephens today issued a requisition upon the Governor of Washington for extradition papers in the case of C. J. McFarland, who is wanted in Los Angeles on a charge of embezzling $500 from [illegible] L. J. Scheck of that city.

BAUER'S CABINET RESIGNS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, March 26.—The Cabinet of Premier Bauer has resigned. Hermann Mueller, the Foreign Minister, has been authorized by President Ebert to organize a new Cabinet.

Vorwaerts announced that in deference to the unanimous wish of the entire Social Democratic party Herr Mueller has consented to form a new Ministry.

The resignation of Premier Bauer's Cabinet, it is said, was due to pressure from the Labor Federation, which has been extremely discontented with the government's attitude since its return from Stuttgart. It is stated that labor will have a strong voice in the new Mueller Cabinet.

PARIS, March 26.—Confirmation of the appointment of Hermann Mueller as Chancellor and of his authorization to form a new Cabinet has been received by the German delegation here. It is added Mueller will select his ministers from the parties which made up the retiring Cabinet.

WILLIAMS WILL QUIT SENATE.

Peppery Member from Mississippi is Disgusted.

Calls Defeat of the Treaty "Great Conspiracy."

Names Lodge as "The Head of the Poison Squad."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

JACKSON, (Miss.) March 25.—The peace treaty was rejected by the Senate as a result of a "great conspiracy" against President Wilson, Senator John Sharp Williams declared today in an address to the Mississippi Legislature.

"I believe there are men glad that the President is sick, perhaps hope for his death," Senator Williams said.

Declaring the treaty debate was the "most confused gabfest in the history of the world," Senator Williams, long known as a master of sarcasm in Senate debate, excoriated those who helped defeat the League of Nations.

"I do not see how any man who loves his country can look with unconcern on what has just occurred," he said. "There was a chance for the United States to stand at the head of a council of nations of the world; to lead the universe in the pathways of peace. The opportunity was rejected, and future historians will refer to the last two years as the 'time of the great conspiracy.'

QUITS THE SENATE.

"The long-winded arguments in the Senate were like fiddling as Rome burned, talking with a world in chaos. Do you blame me for saying that I would rather be a dog and bay at the moon than to spend one minute in the Senate after expiration of my term of office?

"The great conspiracy commenced when the President went to Versailles, and every time news came from Versailles that the President advocated or opposed something the conspirators opposed his plans. They are two-by-four politicians. Senator Lodge is the head of the poison squad.

"When McKinley was shot down, when Garfield was shot, was there a Democrat but expressed sorrow? Has any one seen words of sympathy for the President in any Republican paper? A great man is sick, a great mind and a great character, and they have whispered, 'We've got him now.'

"Men sometimes disparage ideals, but they are coarse-grained jackasses who do so and do it because they are coarse-grained, but the idealists point the way."

BRYAN AFTER HITCHCOCK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ELMWOOD (Neb.) March 26.—William J. Bryan today opened his campaign for election April 20 as a delegate-at-large to the Democratic National Convention with an address in which he declared he favored adoption of a prohibition plank by the Democrats at San Francisco.

Bryan, who recently announced he felt it was his duty to attend the Democratic National Convention "to fight the reactionaries and friends of the enemy," delivered his address at a public meeting and urged his hearers to help make the liquor issue "as dead as slavery, so that it will never be revived."

He reiterated his recent statement that he was opposed to United States Senator Hitchcock as a Democratic Presidential candidate, and in this connection said the Senator had voted against submission of the Federal prohibitory amendment, although Nebraska had adopted constitutional prohibition.

Opposition to taking the peace treaty issue into the campaign was expressed by the speaker, who also declared he was against compulsory universal military training. An effort was being made, he asserted, to force universal military training on the young men of our country."

FOR FOREIGN TRADE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, March 26.—Both political parties should declare their policies and define in their platforms their plans for the organization of foreign trade, Eugene Meyer of New York, managing director of the War Finance Corporation, declared tonight in an address.

"I am not trying to stir up a spirit of economic domination for America," he said, "but a nation, like an individual, should feel the obligation of making the most of its powers, and as I see it, this is the beginning of America's maturity."

JOHNSON IN BUFFALO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BUFFALO (N. Y.) March 26.—Senator Johnson of California, candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, opened his New York State campaign here today and tonight with speeches in which he declared the League of Nations must be the dominant issue in the coming Presidential contest.

NEVADA CONVENES TODAY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

RENO (Nev.) March 26.—Republicans of Nevada will choose delegates to a State convention tomorrow at a primary election. The State convention will be held in Reno on April 24, and will name six delegates to the national convention. It also will endorse a recommendation for the next national committeeman from this State. Many counties will hold no primary elections, county central committees naming delegates to the State convention under authority vested by the State Central Committee. In the First Assembly District of Washoe county, which includes Reno, there are seventy-nine candidates from which twenty-eight are to be chosen. No method is provided whereby voters may express their preference for President.

NEW MEXICO IN SESSION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SANTA FE (N. M.) March 26. — The Republican party of New Mexico, through a keynote address delivered today by George W. Prichard of Santa Fe, temporary chairman, to the State Republican Convention meeting here to name delegates-at-large to the national convention, trained its heavy artillery on the record of the Democratic party.

Mr. Pritchard criticised the Democratic record at home and abroad, and urged the delegates to work to elect a Republican President of the United States so that "order will be brought out of chaos."

He promised that a Republican President and a Republican Congress "will restore confidence; taxes will be reduced; the high cost of living will be cut down; normal conditions will be resumed, and the country will become prosperous."

Paying tribute to Gen. Wood, Mr. Prichard said the general "is worthy of wearing the mantle of Lincoln and of that long line of Republican Presidents who have contributed so much to and reflected so much credit, honor and glory on our country."

SHELL FIRE FROM GRAVES.

LOS ANGELES, March 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read your admirable editorial in the Sunday Times of March 14, on the backsliding of Flint, Crocker, De Young, Fleischacker and other supposed loyal Republicans, in accepting positions on the Hiram Johnson delegate ticket, and the question arose in my mind: Are not these men as much criminals towards the Republicans of California as was Johnson in 1912?

Johnson has not changed. He has not apologized for having betrayed the Republican party. He has not apologized for the insults he heaped upon the heads of all loyal Republicans. He has not apologized for having disfranchised the Taft supporters in 1912. He has made no satisfactory explanation of the fact that every one of his friends supported Wilson over Hughes in 1916.

Now, have not these men, whom the Republicans of California have heretofore signally honored, in going over to the camp of that glutton for political infamy, Hiram Johnson, admitted that his characterization of them, ever since 1910 to the present time, was true? Have they not now, by endorsing Johnson, pleaded guilty to his indictment of them as reactionaries, corporation tools, slaves of the Southern Pacific, and betrayers of the public trust. Certainly Johnson never could have approached these men, whom he had so foully abused, for their support. Is it possible that they approached the "Holy Hiram" with the following supplication:

"O, Holy Hiram, let us have peace! Hereafter be our guide and mentor! We admit that in 1910 we were not fit to be received into your sanctuary! We admit that we were all that you charged us with being. We admit that we were political slaves of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company! That we were reactionaries! That we were guilty of all the vile things you charged us with! But we have repented, having seen the political partronage we so long enjoyed pass into other hands! We have seen the error of our ways! We are ready to submit to you, O most holy Hiram, and become your slaves, purse-finders and standard bearers! Take us into your protecting fold and let us be one of your political family! And, if you win, we pray you to remember us when you dispense political favors!"

For one, I take no stock in the declaration of these gentlemen, that they are trying to unite the Republican party of California. No party was ever saved by compromising with a political traitor, who, time and again, sought to destroy it. Now that the Progressive party, which was never anything but an organization for loot, without principle or traditions, without parentage or posterity, is permanently disrupted, Johnson seeks to control the regular Republicans of the State, whom he has long insulted and vilified. Most of the men on his electoral ticket have heretofore passed as regular, not Progressive, Republicans, and most of them have received signal honors at the hands of the decent Republicans of this State; and yet, they are willing to forget and to forgive. There are countless thousands of Republican men and women in California who have not forgotten or forgiven the fact that they were, by Johnson and his followers, disfranchised in 1912; that for years they have been insulted, vilified and abused by the Progressives. All such Republicans will vote for the Hoover delegates, if for no other reason than revenge. As Johnson has never retracted his charges against the unhyphenated Republicans of California, including the men who are raising the money for his election in this State, and who have placed themselves on his delegate ticket, I can see no escape from the fact that they have pleaded guilty of his charges. That they have made their peace with him is significant.

Can the people of this State trust any set of men who have so unctuously swallowed the insults of the past? When the campaign opens, won't it be a glorious thing to see Johnson eulogising Flint, Crocker and De Young?

PRIVATE JAP SCHOOLS NUMEROUS IN STATE.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT WOOD UNCOVERS MANY ORIENTAL INSTITUTIONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, March 26. — Answers to questionnaires sent out by Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, to county superintendents of schools, made public today, indicate there are a number of Japanese schools in the State.

Placer county has three schools where Japanese teachers give exclusively in the Japanese language instruction after the public schools close for the day.

Mrs. Irene A. Burns, county superintendent of schools, reports that new Japanese schoolhouses are being erected at Newcastle and Penryn, and that a structure has been completed at Loomis.

One hundred Japanese children attend these schools, which also are open when the public schools are closed Saturday.

County Superintendent C. W. Edwards of Fresno reports 235 Japanese children attending private schools. Seven such institutions are reported as follows:

Two in Fresno, one each in Fowler, Selma, Bowles, Parlier and Del Rey. Another school is reported in Fresno in which children of kindergarten age are instructed during public school hours.

San Juan, San Benito county, has one all-day Japanese school, and another in which instruction is given morning and evening. The total attendance is fifty.

Hanford, county seat of Kings county, has one Japanese school, which is open throughout the day and evening. County Superintendent M. L. Richmond reports eleven children in the evening class.

Japanese in San Mateo county have appropriated "quite a sum of money," according to County Superintendent Roy W. Cloud, for the erection of a school building in San Mateo, but active work has not begun.

James Malaley, county superintendent of Yuba county, reports an afternoon school in Marysville, which is attended by twenty Japanese children.

Reports from Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento and other important counties have not been received by Wood.

Complete data on this subject will be submitted to Gov. Stephens and the State Board of Control.

Cuban House Favors Coalition.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

HAVANA, March 26.—The House of Representatives last night, after a stormy session, adopted the Senate bill amending the Crowder electoral law so as to permit the coalition of national political parties. It is understood the Liberal representatives who left the chamber will abstain from attendance at the House as a protest against adoption of the bill.

WILHELM SUPPLIED MONEY FOR REVOLT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

GENEVA, March 26.—Former Emperor William of Germany withdrew deposits amounting to 250,000 Swiss francs from a Zurich bank early in March, it is learned here, and the money is said to have been sent to Berlin just before the attempted reactionary revolt.

BORAH ASSAILS CAMPAIGN FUNDS

prisonment would be imposed for violations.

Another bill, of the same general nature, drafted three years ago by a special subcommittee, but never acted on, was reintroduced by Senator Pomerene, Democrat, Ohio.

Reading a published story that "testimonials" indorsing Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood were being purchased in Indiana at the rate of $2.50 apiece, Senator Borah said he had been advised that "plenty of affidavits to the same effect were on file in a neighboring State."

QUOTE PRECEDENT.

"Gen. Wood's managers state that the managers for Gov. Lowden are spending more money than they are. That is their defense. I am inclined to think that is true. There are some evidences of it."

Senators Thomas, Colorado, and Ashurst, Arizona, Democrats, asked Senator Borah to give the names of Democrats who were spending large sums of money, and the speaker said he would do so at the proper time.

"If I knew any Democrat who was spending money excessively," said Senator Ashurst, "I should feel it my duty to see that he didn't get some delegates he might otherwise get. And if I thought any Democrat was trying to get a third term, I would not hesitate to tell the people that that was wrong."

SENATORIAL SARCASM.

"If the Senator doesn't know that a Democrat is seeking a third term," rejoined Senator Borah, "then he is blessed with an innocence of which I would not suspect him. I think the President is entitled to a third term, for who else would lead the fight for the treaty?"

"Doesn't the Senator mean a third nomination?" asked Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, who is manager of Gen. Wood's Washington bureau.

"Well, if the candidate of the Senator of New Hampshire keeps up his practices and is nominated, it will be a third term," Senator Borah replied.

Senator Borah quoted a newspaper report that the Democratic National Committee was raising a $10,000,000 campaign fund, and added that there were evidences of a like situation in the Republican organization.

Senator Chamberlain, Democrat, Oregon, interrupted Senator Borah's reading of a list of names of alleged contributors in General Wood's campaign fund to ask if some of them were not giving money for political activities in both parties.

DOHENY MENTIONED.

"They usually do," Senator Borah said. "Edward L. Doheny, head of great oil interests in Mexico, is named here as a contributor to Gen. Wood's funds on the Republican side, and he himself is a candidate for election to the Democratic convention as delegate-at-large from California. These gentlemen usually look to the protection of their interests. Mexico is likely to bulk large in the next campaign.

"I believe this is a national peril; I intend to get the facts out even if I have to do it in a brutal or crude way. Candidates who accept favors like these are called upon to return them after they get elected.

"Now I have a lot of telegrams from South Dakota, concerning the primary there this week which I'm not going to read. They indicate that for every vote cast in that primary for Wood or Lowden, $10 was spent. It cost that much."

Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, interrupted:

DEFENDS SOUTH DAKOTANS.

"I cannot let the inference go out that the people of South Dakota have yielded to bribery," he said. "I'm not denying that money has been spent. Immense sums can be used for newspaper advertising and printer's ink. That there has been any purchase of votes I do not concede."

"I haven't intended to say that," Senator Borah returned. "I do say the effect of this expenditure is to corrupt the electorate. If the money had not been spent the results there would have been different."

Senator Borah declared that "a man who will accept money from great corporations for political purposes is not fit to be a precinct official, much less President of the United States."

Senator Moses replied that any money being spent in the Wood campaign was being spent "legitimately and necessarily," and said that if Senator Borah wished to end the expenditures he should remove the cause, which, he said, will be the Presidential primary system.

The Wood campaign is immaculate with regard to expenditures," declared Senator Moses. "I know that if an investigation were held it would be found that the Wood expenditures have all been legal, and nowhere as large as the huge sum mentioned in the New York World."

CAMPAIGN DIFFICULT.

Senator Moses asserted that if Senator Borah had his way a candidate would go out on his front porch and cry out, "I am a candidate for President," and the people would flock to him and hand him the nomination.

"Things can't be done that way nowadays," he said. "The character of my candidate gives refutation to the implications."

"The Senior from New Hampshire says he doesn't know anything about these things," replied Senator Borah. "Mr. Proctor, Mr. Hitchcock, Mr. King, Mr. Doheny and Gen. Wood know about them."

"Does the Senator mean to accuse Gen. Wood of being implicated in a conspiracy to corrupt the American electorate?" asked Senator Moses.

"I do say that the men who are managing the Wood campaign propose to control the Republican convention by the use of money," replied Senator Borah, "and I waive my Senatorial privilege when I say that. Now let them go to the bat if they want to."

Senator Borah declared it was "a complete outrage and an insult upon the American people that you've got to spend hundreds and millions of dollars to control an election."

Senator Moses said it was absolutely necessary to conduct a publicity campaign in order to awaken the public from its lethargy, adding this was demonstrated during the war, when large sums of money were spent for that purpose in connection with the sale of Liberty Bonds.

The Senator from Idaho replied that what he wanted was publicity and added: "Let us know who the man are."

"Do you know how much money was spent in South Dakota?" Senator Borah asked, turning to Senator Moses.

"I do not know," was the reply. "Let somebody who knows then say," continued Senator Borah. "If you would do your country a service, you will have Mr. Proctor, Mr. Hitchcock or Mr. King say how much money you sent into South Dakota. If you would have company, let Mr. Lowden also answer."

Senator Moses closed the discussion with the remark that he thought he was engaged in a "greater public duty in trying to elect Gen. Wood."

RULE FOR ADD

LOWDEN ANSWERS BORAH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, March 26.—An offer to join with all other candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination in submitting to Senator Borah or a committee appointed by him, all records of his campaign expenditures was made tonight by Gov. Frank O. Lowden in a telegram to the Idaho Senator. The telegram follows:

"The statement made by you in the Senate today, as reported by the Associated Press, with reference to the expenditures by the various candidates in the Presidential campaign to date, so far as it applies to me, is in no way warranted by the facts.

"I will gladly join with all other candidates for the Republican nomination for President in submitting to yourself, or to a committee to be appointed by you, all expenditures made in the campaign, together with names of contributors and amounts contributed, and all books, records and vouchers for the purpose of the widest possible publicity. I sincerely hope this may be done and at once."

ANSWER FOR WOOD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Congressman Norman J. Gould and former Congressman Thomas W. Miller, eastern campaign managers for Maj.-Gen. Wood, in a formal statement tonight replying to attacks made on Gen. Wood in the Senate today, declared they were "perfectly willing to go to the bat on Senator Borah's statement."

They classed as "ridiculous" the charge that Gen. Wood's managers are trying to "dominate the Chicago convention," and said they were "trying to bring Gen. Wood's character, personality and achievements before the public."

The assertion made in the Senate that E. L. Doheny, head of the Mexican Petroleum Company, had contributed to the Wood campaign fund, the statement said, was disposed of by Mr. Doheny's denial over his signature in a statement to the press.

KIDNAPED KENTUCKY BOY FREES HIMSELF.

CAPTORS LEFT BATHROOM DOOR UNLOCKED; CALLED SISTER ON PHONE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LEXINGTON (Ky.) March 26.—Paul Little, 12-year-old son of E. R. Little, a local capitalist, was safe at home tonight while the authorities were searching in several States for two men who kidnaped the boy Wednesday afternoon.

The lad was returned to his parents this morning after he had telephoned to his home from a hotel room, where he said he had been imprisoned for thirty-eight hours. Often, he said, the kidnapers threatened his life, sometimes shewing him a revolver. He said during his confinement his only food was a little fruit and a piece of cake.

His captors left the bathroom, where he was confined, unlocked this morning and Paul said he emerged into the room to find its door locked. Then he telephoned and his sister answered the call, the boy screamed with delight. In a short time his father was at the hotel and burst in the door of the room. The boy rushed into his arms.

The boy said he had been lured to the hotel by one of the kidnapers on a promise of a dollar for delivering a box of candy.

A note demanding a ransom of $25,000 had been received by Mr. Little and although he announced he had deposited the money Thursday night in a garbage can as directed, the kidnapers failed to appear, supposedly, the police say, through fear of arrest.

NAVY DECEIVED PUBLIC, CHARGE.

Prevented Personnel Shortage from Being Known.

Daniels Believed Numerical Strength was Adequate.

Department's Policy One of Delaying Preparedness.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Charges that the Navy Department took steps to prevent reports reaching the public regarding a shortage of personnel in the navy before the United States entered the war were made before the Senate Naval Investigating Committee today by Capt. Joseph K. Taussig of the Naval War College at Newport, R.I.

Capt. Taussig, who was on duty at the Navy Department prior to the war and later served on destroyers overseas, said Secretary Daniels in his annual report in 1914 stated that the numerical strength of the navy was adequate and in 1915 said that only an additional 10,000 men were needed, while the Navy General Board, in its 1914 report, had stated that 19,600 men were necessary.

The General Board, the commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Fleet and many officers of high rank "brought the deplorable and unsatisfactory condition of the personnel" to the department's attention, with "emphatic and repeated" recommendations that immediate steps be taken to remedy the situation, Capt. Taussig testified.

BRITISH COULDN'T SHOOT.

The witness told the committee that the department's policy with regard to personnel was one of unpreparedness rather than preparedness, even when war with Germany "apparently was inevitable."

The Germans, by their superior gunnery, "turned the British on their heads" at the battle of Jutland, Rear Admiral Plunkett declared.

Admiral Plunkett was testifying as to the need for keeping the navy personnel at full strength so men might be adequately trained. He did not go into details as to the Jutland battle and was asked no questions regarding it. The admiral, who commanded the great naval battery of 14-inch guns on the western front, was the fourth witness in the investigation of Rear Admiral Sims's charges that the Navy Department failed to co-operate fully with the Allies early in the war, and all of his testimony was devoted to the matter of personnel. He told the committee that the navy was without sufficient men when the war began.

"If we had been up against Germany at the outbreak of the war," he said, "we would have been paying indemnity today, and all because we did not have trained men.

DANIELS ACCUSED.

"We didn't have the men because Mr. Daniels wouldn't let us have them and wouldn't let us do anything to get them."

First evidences of friction at the headquarters of Rear Admiral William B. Fletcher at Brest came with the arrival there of Capt. Thomas P. Magruder, commanding the third fleet of American craft sent to that port, Admiral Fletcher testified.

On his arrival Capt. Magruder showed a great disinclination to shore service, Fletcher said. Subsequently, a letter from Sims said Magruder was to be retained at sea, but Fletcher said he command suitable for an officer of his rank was available.

"Did Capt. Magruder support you loyally and carry out your orders?" Admiral Fletcher was asked.

"I cannot testify as to his having carried out my orders," Admiral Fletcher said. "I do not think he supported me loyally."

SHIFT ANTILLES BLAME.

Admiral Fletcher told the naval board that his orders directing the escorting of the convoy which included the transport Antilles, sunk off the French coast in October, 1917, were not obeyed by Lieutenant-Commander N. F. Freeman, commanding the escort.

Fletcher said he had no knowledge that Commander Freeman had put to sea with part of the convoy until Freeman's report of the sinking of the transport came in.

The order issued to Freeman was presented in evidence. It directed him to proceed with four converted yachts from Brest to St. Nazaire to take out six homeward-bound craft, including the Antilles. On the eve of sailing, Admiral Fletcher said, one of the yachts developed boiler trouble, and a change in assignment was made, three going from Brest, and a fourth, the Kanawha, being ordered to join the flotilla at Quiberon Bay, thirty miles from St. Nazaire.

On reaching St. Nazaire, Commander Freeman found only the Antilles, Savannah and Henderson, all troop transports, ready. The City of Atlanta was to sail later in the day. Admiral Fletcher said he received telephone report from Commander Baldwin, naval port officer at St. Nazaire, that Freeman, with two yachts and the three transports, had proceeded, leaving a third yacht to convoy the City of Atlanta when ready.

Admiral Fletcher said he took no action, assuming that Freeman intended to await at Quiberon arrival of the rest of the convoy and escort before putting to sea. The Antilles was sunk a short distance out of Quiberon.

DUBLIN MURDERS ARE UNPUNISHED

inquest attempted to connect the police with the murder and the Sinn Feiners say the killing was in revenge for the slaying of a policeman in Cork a few hours before the Mayor was murdered.

SITUATION TENSE.

The Weekly Nation, in its issue of tonight, says the police and soldiers raid about 12,000 Irish homes weekly. That Gen. Hackett Payne, who commanded the Carsonite army in Ireland, has been called in by Field Marshal Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to assist in the rule of Nationalist Ireland, and that Inspector Smith, who was chief of the Belfast police when cargoes of rifles for Sir Edward Carson's force were being landed, is head of the Royal Constabulary.

With a superheated atmosphere on both sides of the channel the Irish home rule bill will be debated in the House of Commons next Monday. James Ian MacPherson, Chief Secretary for Ireland, will introduce the bill and John R. Clynes, former food controller, and former Premier Asquith, members of the Irish Privy Council, will lead the opposition for the laborites and the Liberals.

The debate is not expected to last more than two or three days. Premier Lloyd George will make the final summing up.

The House of Commons today discussed the case of Alderman William O'Brien, leader of the transport workers, who is in jail. He is said to be conducting a hunger strike, and in danger of death. P. O'Connor, the Nationalist, called attention to the case of O'Brien was serving on the government's coal commission, and asked:

"Has the government considered the effect on Irish opinion the possible death of Alderman O'Brien resulting from his case without trial?"

Andrew Bonar Law, the government spokesman, replied:

"It is obvious this is a responsibility. The Irish government is to be the judge of its citizens, and the government has taken the responsibility of deciding this arrest was necessary for that object."

The Lord Mayor of Dublin applied to the authorities of police to protect the Mansion according to a dispatch to the Central News from Dublin.

Mayor O'Neill's report, it is reported, was due to the fact that Mayors of Limerick and other towns had received letters such as the one said to have been sent to the Lord Mayor of Cork, Thomas MacCurtain, who was shot and killed.

Two constables of a police patrol at Tanera, County Clare, in the west of Ireland province, were fired on by Sinn Feiners, according to advices received here. One of the constables was wounded. No arrests were reported.

OSBORNE BACK FROM TRIP TO CANAL ZONE.

LOS ANGELES CONGRESSMAN HELPS INSPECT UNCLE SAM'S POSSESSIONS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
WASHINGTON, March 26.—Congressman Osborne of Los Angeles returned today from an inspection of the harbors, submarine and naval bases on both the Pacific and Atlantic sides of the Isthmus of Panama, the inter-oceanic canal, fortifications and other public works there, and at San Juan Harbor, conducted in company with other members of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors, and other members of the House of Representatives.

He traversed the Isthmus four times in his stay of but four days there, and conferred with the Governor at Panama, and with the military and port authorities, both on the Isthmus and in Porto Rico.

Passing from the severe weather of the first part of the month in Washington into the mid-summer temperature of the tropics, Congressman Osborne has eliminated the effects of a severe attack of influenza which he suffered in January, and returns in excellent condition for the strenuous work which will be required throughout the present session of Congress.

CAN'T SEIZE RUM IN ROOM OVER A SALOON.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
CHICAGO, March 26.—Enforcement of the prohibition law received another wallop today when Federal Judge Carpenter ordered Maj. Dalrymple to return to George F. Dallman, a traveling salesman, three cases of liquor that had been seized in his room above a saloon without a warrant.

The case attracted considerable attention inasmuch as it is the first of its kind to come up for hearing in the Illinois district. The question of whether a residence above a saloon is a residence in the eyes of the law was involved. It is said that the disposal of large quantities of seized liquor will be affected by this decision.

According to Judge Carpenter's order, Maj. Dalrymple must return to Dallman, his private stock, consisting of one case of champagne, two four-gallon jugs of port wine, one two-gallon jug of port wine and fourteen quarts of whisky.

SPOKANE WILL IMPORT EUROPEAN DOMESTICS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]
SPOKANE, March 26.—To relieve the shortage of domestic servants in this city, which it is declared is acute, local business men are planning the organization of an association to bring 250 young women from Europe, according to announcement by O. P. Oudin, president of a large industrial concern here.

"It is our plan to send a responsible woman as our representative to select the girls, act as our agent in booking their passage, and chaperone them on their trip," he said. "We will pay their passage and all expenses.

"The girls will sign no contracts to work until they arrive in Spokane and look the situation over for themselves."

To give the plan official standing in the eyes of families of the girls employed, the approval of the Mayor and City Council will be asked, Mr. Oudin said.

MIDDLE WEST NEWS IN BRIEF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
MINNEAPOLIS, March 26.—The opinion yesterday of attorneys in the hearings on the gas company's suits against the city before John R. McGee, special master, was that private consumers of the Minneapolis Gas Light Company cannot hope for a 1920 rate of less than $1.05 a thousand cubic feet, 14 cents in excess of the present temporary rate of 75 cents.

It was announced yesterday by Postmaster Purdy that two mail deliveries a day in place of one previously started yesterday morning in outlying sections of Minneapolis.

ARIZONA OFFICIAL RESIGNS, IS CLAIM.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PHOENIX, March 26. — There is fairly definite knowledge of the resignation of Andrew Baumert, Jr., from the place of secretary of the State Board of Directors, a place that pays $4800 a year. Official information is assumed to be delayed, awaiting determination of his successor, who may be Tom Maddock, now State Engineer. Interest in the change is mainly through the fact that Baumert also is secretary of the State Republican Committee.

Maddock, before he went to France with the engineers, was State chairman, and was the Republican candidate for Congress at the last election.

Baumert has been very active of late in local politics. He also is mentioned as the probable City Manager of Phoenix, in the event of the success of the Young city ticket.

It is assumed there is some connection in the change with the remarks of Gov. Campbell at the State convention concerning lack of support for his administration.

BOLSHEVIKI OCCUPY VILLAGE IN KUBAN.

TURKOMANS ABANDON ANTI-RUSS ARMY ON TURKESTAN FRONT, REPORT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
LONDON, March 26.—The Bolsheviki have occupied Maikop, a town in the territory of Kuban, Ciscaucasia, according to a wireless message sent out by the Russian soviet government at Moscow today.

LONDON, March 26.—The Turkomans on the Turkestan front are abandoning the anti-Bolshevik army, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow today. The commander-in-chief at Ferghana, with his troops, has gone over to the Bolsheviki, the message states.

"The Cossacks," adds the dispatch, "are reported in ferment, forsaking the Turkestan front."

CHRISTIANIA, March 26. — A force of 2000 Bolsheviki from the Murmansk region has occupied the town of Petchenka, in the northwestern section of the Kola Peninsula, according to the Tidens Tigen. The Finnish force there has been driven northward.

BULK OF CHICAGOANS OF FOREIGN LINEAGE.

FOURTEEN PER CENT. ARE GERMANS; POLES IN SECOND LARGEST GROUP.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
CHICAGO, March 26.—More than 67 per cent. of Chicago's total population, based on unofficial and uncomplete census figures, is composed of persons of foreign birth or parentages.

Of the estimated total of 2,884,827, 14 per cent. are German, the count of that nationality being given as 403,785. Approximately 340,452 native white Americans are Chicagoans. The second largest group of foreign nationality, as disclosed by the figures, is the Polish population, with a count of 288,482. Russians are third, with a total of 201,837, while the Irish take fourth place, with 173,089.

The population of American Samoa was 8196, an increase of 946, or 13 per cent., over 1912, the Census Bureau announced today.

Population statistics for 1920, announced today by the Census Bureau, include:

Columbus, Neb., 5410; increase, 396, or 7.9 per cent.

FREE SEED FUNDS CUT FROM BILL IN SENATE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, March 26. Nearly a quarter of a million dollars for free seed was cut out of the agricultural appropriation bill which was passed today by the Senate, but members said the item would be put back in conference, in accordance with the time-honored custom.

The bill's total is $32,000,000. The Senate added an amendment permitting the War Department to sell 50,000 tons of nitrate of soda for fertilizer.

JAP PICTURE BRIDES CONTINUE TO ARRIVE.

MANY HAVE PASSPORTS WHICH ENTITLE THEM TO SAIL UP TILL AUGUST.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Japanese picture brides will continue coming into this country until August despite the proscription placed on them by the Japanese government, because of the fact that many of the brides secured passports previous to February 25, when the ban became operative, and now are awaiting passage to this country, the Japanese Association of America announced here today.

"According to the regulations of the Japanese government a passport is valid for six months after its issuance," the association said. "It is therefore obvious that for the few months following February 25 picture brides will continue, though undoubtedly in decreasing numbers. The Japanese government cannot legitimately revoke the passports that were issued before February 25."

CAR THEFT MYSTERY.

Stolen Auto Found in Bay with Angeleno's License Plate.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Announcement that the expensive automobile found in the bay off here yesterday, and which bore the license number taken out by A. C. Whitten of Los Angeles, belongs to M. R. Page, a San Francisco machinist, was made by the police here late today. They could not explain how Whitten's license number was attached to Mr. Page's car.

According to the police report, the car was stolen from Mr. Page August 14, 1917. Identity of the car's ownership was established through the number on the motor.

Efforts to locate Whitten up to late today proved unavailing, the police said.

PHOENIX SCENTS WHISKY STILL.

Sugar, Yeast, Corn Lead Officers a Chase.

Pay $100 for Five Gallons of "Tea;" It Was.

Teacher Finds Two Lads Trying to Break Safe.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, March 26.—Officers at Miami are at work on a clue expected to lead them to a still in the mountains back of that camp.

Former Postmaster Noland of Ray and Lee Cutworth were followed when they left Miami in a machine known to contain a sack of sugar, a bucket of yeast and several sacks of corn, materials often used by distillers of spirituous liquor.

Near Gibson the officers met the auto returning. When Cutworth refused to stop, the car was disabled with a pistol shot and the two men were taken into custody. In the car was found two bottles of "white mule," of the kind with an abundance of "kick." The materials taken out had disappeared.

TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

In the local Police Court Lazaro Apoderadi was arraigne dfor dealing in a beverage of peculiarly atrocious character, assumed to have had wood alcohol as its base. He pleaded that he had purchased the bottle for the same amount he received for it, and had used none of the stuff himself. "That kind of booze make me sick. I only want to get rid of it," he assured the judge. "So I sell it to a colored woman. She can drink anything. Me—I'm too delicate!" The transaction cost Lazaro $100, paid in to the city's benefit.

Two Glendale business men lately bought for $100 five gallons of a liquid mysteriously spoken of, with accompanying wink, as "cold tea." There was assurance of the high quality of the Oolong. They took it home and opened a bottle. It was tea, and tea was in the other bottles. They took their case to a lawyer only to be assured they had legally received exactly what they had bought.

PRISONER IN VAULT.

G. N. Hilborn, a youthful collector for the Bank of Arizona at Prescott, is assumed to have been asleep in the big bank vault when its doors were closed with a time lock that was not to unlock for a matter of forty hours. Missed at home, he was located in the vault at 11 o'clock, but wide awake. The air was good and he was willing to stay till the clock freed him, but he was instructed how to proceed with the lock from the inside, and within half an hour was in the open.

At Flagstaff Glen Johnson, a Western Union messenger, found a purse containing $75 and a ticket from Albuquerque to Los Angeles. He hunted diligently for the owner, ran him down in the postoffice lobby and received his reward. It was an expression of cordial thanks.

LADS, SAFE BREAKERS.

As a teacher in the Mesa schools went into the Franklin School Building to attend a Red Cross meeting, she found two lads in the principal's office working with apparent skill in an attempt to break open the safe. They already had rifled the principal's desk.

A Mexican boy at Yuma has been arrested on an odd charge, only to be released in the lack of a law to cover his offense. Becoming enamoured with an American girl, a recent arrival, he wrote her an affectionate note in Spanish, with offer of marriage. This was translated into English and both letters were sent. They were turned over by the girl to the authorities.

NAVAL RESERVE DAY IN BAY CITY TODAY.

PAGEANTS AND PARADES, WITH DREADNAUGHTS IN HARBOR ARE FEATURES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—A race between three hydro-airplanes from San Diego to San Francisco which was scheduled as a feature of naval reserve day in the Twelfth Naval District tomorrow, has been postponed until an unnamed date in April, because official permission for the race was received too late to complete arrangements by tomorrow, district headquarters announced here today.

"Although the race may be held there was no opportunity to detail the necessary submarine chasers or designate fueling and supply stations," it was announced.

A pageant of twenty-four naval and marine units under the general direction of Rear-Admiral W. R. Shoemaker, will be one of the outstanding features of naval reserve day here.

The pageant will be reviewed by Lieut.-Gen. Hunter Liggett, commanding the Western Department of the Army, and other army, navy and civil notables.

Contrary to the usual procedure for parades in San Francisco, the pageant will form in the Civic Center, and will march to the Ferry Building, where it will disperse.

Major war vessels in the harbor will be the dreadnaughts New Mexico, Mississippi, Texas and Idaho. A flotilla of smaller war craft also will participate in the celebration.

The day will be concluded with a grand ball in the Civic Auditorium.

HARD COAL OPERATORS OPPOSE RISE SOUGHT.

GO ON RECORD AGAINST GRANTING EIGHTEEN AND A HALF PER CENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Anthracite mine operators went on record today as opposed to granting the hard coal diggers' demand for an increase of at least 18.5 per cent. more than the 27 per cent. advance just granted the bituminous miners.

Statistics and data to show that the earnings of the anthracite and soft coal workers were on an "equitable basis" were introduced by the mine owners at the session of the subcommittee appointed by both sides to negotiate a new hard coal wage agreement.

Although the employers admitted that the hard coal workers' wage scale might not now be as high as that paid the bituminous men they pointed out that the earnings were "about the same" as the anthracite miners got in more working days in a year.

STRIKE IN APRIL.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PEORIA, March 26.—"There will undoubtedly be a suspension of work in the coal mines of Illinois April 1," Frank Farrington, president of the United Workers of Illinois, said today.

"Understand it will not be a strike but an unavoidable suspension of work. It may be for a short time or a long time. Our agreement expires at midnight March 31. I believe it will be impossible to keep the men at work after that.

"It is possible, of course, that some sort of an agreement will be reached at the meeting in New York Monday to keep the mines running, but even at that a brief suspension of work will occur."

PACIFIC COAST NAVY OIL SUPPLY IS SHORT.

ONLY ONE-FIFTH OF REQUIRED AMOUNT IS COVERED BY BIDS RECEIVED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Less than one-fifth of the fuel-oil requirements of the navy on the Pacific Coast for the next fiscal year were covered in bids opened today by the Navy Department.

Against requests for 4,500,000 barrels, the department received but one bid of 602,000 barrels from the Standard Oil Company of California.

Prices quoted were more than 50 per cent. under those submitted in recent bids for Atlantic Coast delivery, averaging $1.95 for port delivery against $4.30 for the east coast.

With the east and west coasts bids together falling about 6,000,000 barrels short of total requirements, the problem present to the navy of securing its fuel oil under contract, it was stated today, becomes a serious one.

The navy has been commandeering fuel oil for its west coast supply for more than a year, but officials indicated their belief today that it would be unsafe to depend upon securing the bulk of its requirements in this way, particularly as the commandeering authority of the Lever Act will terminate with a formal status of peace.

RUMANIA WILL BEGIN DEMOBILIZING IN APRIL.

DANGER FROM BOLSHEVISM IS OVER, IS BELIEF OF THE GOVERNMENT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BUCHAREST, March 26.—Rumania no longer feels the need of a large army, and demobilization is to begin April 1.

The government thinks the danger from the Bolshevist armies is past, and the soldiers are to be released as soon as possible, that they may take up the development of the agricultural districts.

The purpose of the government is to place Rumania, as soon as possible, on a peace footing, develop her vast resources and tighten her hold on Transylvania, Bessarabia and Bukowina, so these provinces will become co-ordinate parts of the Rumanian kingdom.

Frequent messages have been received from the soviet government at Moscow, urging adjustment of relations between Russia and Rumania, the Bolsheviki seeming extraordinarily eager to enter into diplomatic relations with Rumania.

Another one of the big land owners in our vale of Tujunga has seen the light. He agrees to let us subdivide his acreage on the basis of $4 monthly payments. This gives the buyer—who, with his family, really wants the new values—a chance to share big in them.

Original Hollywood lot buyers made 50 to 1 in a few years.

Over 1000 Los Angeleans think the same of Tujunga, for they have recently acquired from this great offering.

A shoe manufacturer cannot wear all the shoes he makes, and we cannot make all these lot profits to ourselves, because we have to have you as population to do it with.

Hence the bottom prices and the land-banking terms—to gain YOU.

MEXICANS RIOT AT CAMP LOGAN.

Laborer Curses a Waitress, Brandishes Knife.

Glass, Cups, Kitchenware Fly in Mess Hall.

Army Officers are Charged with Misconduct.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HOUSTON, March 26.—Following a race riot Thursday morning between 100 Mexican and American employees at the base hospital at Camp Logan, near here, the American employees have asked the American Legion to make an investigation into alleged misconduct and mismanagement on the part of army officers in charge.

The riot started in the mess hall at breakfast Thursday. A Mexican employee refused to eat at a table segregated for Mexicans and drew a knife and cursed an American waitress when she asked him to leave the table for American employees, according to workmen who came to Houston, Friday morning.

In the fight which followed, many persons were cut and bruised by flying glass, cups, chinaware and kitchen utensils. The messroom was overturned and many windows broken, it is reported.

The riot was quieted only upon the arrival of army officers. There were no officers in direct charge of the mess hall at the time, it is claimed.

It is declared that the trouble has been brewing for some time and started when an American white girl began to keep company with the Mexicans. Most of the American civilian employees are ex-service men. They also charge that the hospital is unsanitary. A sewer line broke last September and has not yet been fixed.

Some trouble between white women has just been settled in court. G. A. Palmer, who led the walkout from the mess hall, said Maj. Max Rogers, commanding officer at the hospital, refused to segregate the Mexican laborers and thirty-nine employees, including two women, quit their jobs. According to Palmer, Lieut. J. A. Godbe, material officer, asked the men to report at his office to get the pay roll straightened. When they arrived there, Palmer claims, Lieut. Godbe came out and told them they were under arrest. The officer, according to Willie T. Leonard, another of the employees, did not say why they were under arrest, but said they could be sent to Leavenworth for two years. Deputy sheriffs arrived at that time and after a conference with the army officers, made no arrests.

The employees declare that Lieut. Godbe put them off the hospital reservation. They say he was wearing side arms when he did this.

Maj. Rogers, who has been in command three days, stated Friday he thought the men wanted to eat together and that he had no idea trouble was brewing.

Officers at the hospital stated that many of the men had returned to work Friday morning.

WILD BANDIT PURSUIT IN BAY CITY STREETS.

RAPID POPPING OF REVOLVERS PRELUDE TO CAPTURE OF ALLEGED THIEF.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March, 26. — Following a wild pursuit of three miles through thickly-populated sections of the city in the early morning hours, during which many shots were fired from each car, a police automobile ran down another car alleged to have been occupied by three store bandits and placed one of the men, giving the name of Andrew Ashley, under arrest. The other two escaped in the darkness. A complete safe-cracking outfit was found in the tool box of the pursued car, the police said.

Shortly after midnight a woman telephoned that she had seen three men break into a tailoring shop and load a quantity of goods on an automobile. The chase followed, both cars going over long stretches of street at breakneck speed and revolvers continually popping. Ashley said he lived in Sacramento.

The car used by the men bore the license number 13754 of the 1920 issue. This is the number of the car operated by Addison Ashley, a chauffeur residing at 924 Second street, Sacramento, according to the police.

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—Andrew Ashley, arrested by the San Francisco police after a gun fight in racing automobiles today, has been in custody for minor offenses, and has been under investigation in connection with robbery and other charges in Sacramento, the police here declared.

Ashley, who is a rent-car driver, has been away from home since Wednesday, it was said. He was last seen in Sacramento in company with two companions who are known to the police. His mother resides here. Ashley is married.

PASTORS URGE WILSON TO HELP OUST SULTAN.

WOULD BANISH TURKISH GOVERNMENT DEFINITELY FROM ANY PART OF EUROPE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—A resolution signed by more than 200 clergymen, requesting President Wilson "to exercise all possible influence to remove the Sultan forever from government control of any part of Europe," has been forwarded to the White House, the presiding bishop of the council of the Protestant Episcopal church announced here today.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 25.—The Cabinet of Sali Pasha resigned today, and the Sultan authorized Damad Ferud Pasha, former Grand Vizier and Foreign Minister, to organize a new ministry.

Damad represents the Liberal party, and apparently is acceptable to the Entente representatives, who have been urging the retirement of Sali Pasha, who has shown himself favorable to the Nationalists.

BISBEE I.W.W. ASKED NATION-WIDE TIE-UP.

DEFENSE AT TOMBSTONE INTRODUCES A COPY OF WRITINGS AS EVIDENCE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TOMBSTONE (Ariz.) March 25.—Photostatic copies of writings by A. S. Embree, secretary-treasurer of the Bisbee local of the I.W.W., tending to show that the local voted June 23, 1917, in favor of a general strike throughout the United States as a protest against the "persecution of I.W.W. members on account of alleged anti-conscription activities," and to establish that the strike in the Warren district, called June 16, 1917, was ordered by that organization as part of a nation-wide movement, were introduced by the defense late today in the trial of Harry E. Wootton, charged with kidnaping in connection with the Bisbee deportations of July 12, 1917.

The miners' strike in the Warren district began June 26, 1917, and in force when the deportations are alleged to have occurred, was called by the Metal Mine Workers' Union, an I.W.W. organization, Fred W. Brown, a witness, testified.

Tom Connors, an employee of the Calumet and Arizona Mining Company, the next witness, testified that A. S. Embree, secretary-treasurer of the I.W.W. at Bisbee, presented him a demand by the Metal Mine Workers' Industrial Union, No. 800, June 26, 1917, for transmission to his superior, and asked that an answer be given in a few hours. The demand was not acceded to, Connors said.

The defense then began the introduction of depositions tending to show that the Bisbee strike was instigated by the I.W.W. Depositions by Walter L. Furbershaw and Russell H. Lutz, at that time connected with the Department of Justice at Chicago, were read to the jury in an effort to prove that a mass of exhibits later to be offered by the defense were in reality authentic I.W.W. literature, seized under a search warrant at the headquarters of the organization in Chicago.

GERMANS WANT SHIPS FOR AMERICAN ROUTE.

VESSELS TO OPERATE HAMBURG LINE UNDER STARS AND STRIPES SOUGHT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, March 26. — Foreign interests are negotiating with the Hamburg-American Line, with a view to obtaining facilities in building up trade routes which previously were offered to this government, Chairman Benson of the Shipping Board said today.

The German company proposed that enough American vessels be allocated to operate trade routes formerly under Hamburg-American supervision, and while no decision has been reached by the board, Chairman Benson said positively that "not an American ship would be put under German control."

"What we would like," the chairman said, "would be to have an American company take over the proposal and operate our ships temporarily, so that it could gradually assimilate the trade routes for the American merchant marine which we are trying to build up."

Remarking that competition for world markets was very keen, and that he could not blame competitors for using every weapon that came to their hands, Chairman Benson asked newspaper men to analyze carefully every item derogatory to the Shipping Board that came to their notice and to check up all statements with the proper officials before publication.

"I am not trying to fend off criticism," he said. "There will be causes for criticism, but I do ask that you prevent so far as possible untrue and biased accounts, which might serve to shake the confidence of American shippers."

The new chairman announced he had discontinued the one-man control of allocations. Hereafter ships will be assigned by the entire board at its regular sessions. Another innovation is a weekly meeting of representative shipping men with the board, with a view of discussing the entire subject of the American merchant marine.

ROPE BREAKS; NEGRO URGES TO BE HANGED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

POPLAR BLUFFS (Mo.) March 26.—Adam Jackson, negro, was hanged here late today for assaulting Mrs. Emma Mann, a white woman, last month. He was the first man to be executed since capital punishment was restored last July.

The first time the trap was sprung, the rope, which had been used at a hanging in St. Louis several years ago, broke. Jackson was partly stunned by the fall and upon returning to consciousness urged that his execution be hurried.

He was carried back to the platform and a second rope was adjusted. Thirteen minutes after the trap was sprung the second time, the negro was pronounced dead.

Just before starting to the scaffold, Johnson confessed that he had assaulted two white women here several months ago.

Example of Kansas Boys Followed by Girls, Who Put on Gingham Aprons.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NORTONVILLE (Kan.) Determined not to be outdone, the girls next day came to school wearing gingham aprons.

FIFTY DOLLARS WON BY GALLOPING COW.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

BERKELEY, March 26.—Mollie, the racing Galloway cow, which left the State Farm, at Davis five days ago to race against time to Berkeley, arrived on the University of California campus shortly before noon today and was greeted by a large number of students.

The arrival of the cow on schedule wins the $50 bet for Harvey Kilburn, which he made with Ernest Vawter. Both are State Farm students. Towns between Stockton, which Mollie left Wednesday, and Berkeley, did not report the passage of the cow, but Kilburn indignantly denied today that he had shipped her to the campus in a box car, or otherwise than on her four feet. She wore a banner advertising the annual State Farm picnic at Davis.

afternoon. Fighting, which had been in progress during the day, was seemingly dying away at that hour and although Wesel is under fire from artillery in the hands of the workers' army, the troops had succeeded in repelling all infantry attacks.

Today's battle opened during the forenoon when government troops attacked workers' forces which had advanced to within a few hundred yards of the Wesel bridgehead. The regulars drove the Reds south across the Lippe River and southeast, out of Lippe Schloss. In the meantime government artillery opened fire upon the workers.

UNDER ARTILLERY FIRE.

In the meantime government artillery opened fire upon the workers' headquarters at Lipperdorf and partially destroyed them. Working southward from Lippe Schloss and eastward from Lipperdorf, the regulars began a double flank attack which swept the Reds back. An armored train pushed along toward the bridge across the Lippe River and kept up a steady fire on the workers.

Many shells fired by the workers' artillery flew wild during the struggle.

TO INVESTIGATE STATE PRICES.

Public Hearings on Clothing, Food Costs.

First Step of Federal Body to Stop Gouging.

Alleged Profiteering in Macaroni Under Fire.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Public hearings to take up complaints made to the government of high prices of clothing and foodstuffs will be held next week by subcommittees of the Federal Fair Trade Committee, the chairman, H. Clay Miller, announced today.

These commodity hearings will be the first step taken by the committee in its policy of attempting to develop fair prices and fair trade practices by a campaign of education, Miller said.

The committee, which is composed of thirty-five men and women, leaders in business and civil affairs, and appointed by the United States District Attorney, held an organization meeting today and chose an executive committee of nine members to aid the chairman.

MACARONI COLLUSION.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—An investigation to learn if there is collusion among manufacturers of macaroni in bids submitted to the State, will be asked, according to W. G. McMillin, State Purchasing Agent.

In three months the price has increased from 6.5 cents a pound to 9.25 cents, and there was only one bid today, whereas in the past there has been lively competition.

State institutions, acting under advice of Prof. M. E. Jaffa, nutrition expert of the State Board of Health, had planned to substitute macaroni for potatoes, which are selling at 6.5 cents a pound.

Flour, the chief ingredient in macaroni, has decreased 5 per cent in price, McMillin declared.

"SAVE ON MEAT" PUT OFF.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—A postponement of the "Save Money on Meat" week has been ordered in California by Atty.-Gen. Palmer, at the request of the California Cattlemen's Association, in order that more time might be given for a campaign in behalf of the observance, the association announced here today.

The week, which will be devoted to efforts to have the public buy the cheaper cuts of meat, originally was scheduled to start Monday, March 29. It was pointed out to Mr. Palmer by the association that as Easter week begins on that date many would abstain from meat altogether for at least three days, and some other week would be more effective. More time to exploit the observance also was desired, it was said.

SUGAR DISCLOSURES?

Announcement that he hoped to present evidence to the Federal grand jury next week, possibly on Tuesday, in relation to recent advances in the price of sugar by refineries which serve the whole Pacific Coast from this city, with a view to determining if the Lever Food Control Act has been violated, was made by Ben Geis, acting United States district attorney.

Recent sugar transactions of both the refineries and the jobbers are to be investigated thoroughly, Geis said.

Two advances were announced here by the Great Western Sugar Refining Company in a period of four days. The California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company announced on March 24 it would not change its tariffs for at least three weeks.

QUIZ PACKERS AGAIN.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHICAGO, March 26.—The Interstate Commerce Commission opened its hearing here today of complaints brought by the National Wholesale Grocers' Association against the packing interests. The grocers claim that the packers are engaged in the manufacture and sale of products not connected with the packing industry to the detriment of the grocery business.

The packing companies represented are:

Swift, Armour, Morris, Wilson, Cudahy and interior Iowa packers.

William D. Reynolds and J. P. Nail, Fort Worth (Tex.) cattlemen, both opposed packer regulation as impractical and not necessary from the producers' point of view.

"I can remember thirty-five years ago when our only market for cattle was killing them for their hides and tallow," Mr. Nail said, "and now a six months' old calf is selling for $40. A lot of that improvement is due to be packers and yet a lot of fellows who've gotten rich out in our country now are complaining against them."

Clifford Thorne, counsel for the grocers, presented the proposal, to which he asked the packers and railroad interests to agree.

The proposal provided that canned vegetables and soups, butter, cheese, various oils and canned meats with vegetable ingredients be excluded from cars used to ship fresh meats.

PRESENT AGREEMENT HOLDS.

R. D. Ryander, counsel for Swift & Co., said the recent agreement between the packers and Atty.-Gen. Palmer would cover the situation. "We cannot enter into any other agreement that might interfere with the carrying out of its terms," he said.

Walter McCormack, representing interior Iowa packers, said that only one of his clients came under the Palmer agreement and that the others would continue their business as formerly until prevented from doing so.

Prohibition of the manufacture and sale of "side lines" by the packing interests would increase the cost of all commodities sold by the packers, Luther Walters, a representative of Morris & Co., said.

Mr. Walters said that if the packers were required to ship meat alone in their cars and were unable to fill them with other commodities, the freight charges on each would be advanced, to be paid by the ultimate consumer.

PORTLAND SPUDS HIGHEST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND, March 26.—The retail price of potatoes here today was 7 to 7¼ cents a pound, the highest on record. Stocks were reported unusually low, and dealers declared it doubtful if enough could be obtained at any price to supply the trade until the new crop is available.

LIBERAL LEADERS FIGHT FOR PLACE

Lloyd George and Asquith Struggle Gets Bitter.

Premier Called "Demagogue" by Former Member.

Party's Club Dinner Receiving Cancellations.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, March 26.—Premier Lloyd George and Herbert H. Asquith, former member of the House of Commons for Paisley, are conducting an informal debate over the right to the leadership of the Liberal party.

Incidentally, the question of who will be the predominant figure in the National Liberal Club, the party's headquarters, is involved.

In his speech at today's club luncheon in his honor, Premier Lloyd George defended his attack of last week on the Labor party, for which he has been condemned by both the Labor party and the followers of Mr. Asquith.

"The programme of the Labor party is to put an end to the capitalistic system and create a co-operative commonwealth," he declared. "I have read carefully everything said by Mr. Clynes (John Robert Clynes, Laborite) and Mr. Henderson (Arthur Henderson, Laborite) and all the apologies of the Labor party.

LABOR AND COMMUNISM.

"Not one of them denies that the doctrine of the Labor party is a doctrine of communism. It is said by some that the doctrine is not sincere, that common ownership is only put into the Labor programme to conciliate a section of the party. You must not put doctrine of that kind in the forefront of the programme of a powerful party, and then say they mean nothing.

"Suppose the Labor party won a general election and formed a government. You may say Mr. Clynes and Mr. Henderson are moderate men, who would not do these things, but they would have to do them or break faith with the people who put them in power. We cannot take any chances in these revolutionary days.

"The Labor programme is not a movement started among the working classes. It comes from a group of men who have received a lop-sided education, who have had no experience of affairs or of work in factory, shop or office, and who call themselves intellectuals.

"A vast majority of the working classes has repudiated that programme, and the common sense of the working classes will save them right to the end."

APPRECIATES EPITHETS.

Replying to Mr. Asquith's reference to him as a "demagogue," Mr. Lloyd George said the term had been applied to some of the greatest men in history.

The next event at the Liberal Club is a dinner in honor of Mr. Asquith, commemorating his election to the House of Commons, at which the president of the club, Lord Lincolnshire, will preside.

This function was arranged before the split between Mr. Asquith and Premier Lloyd George became acute, and some of the Premier's followers now are removing their names from the list of subscribers to the dinner.

SAILORS ENTERTAIN IN MUSIC MELANGE.

IDAHO CREW STAGES "TABLE FOR TWO" AT WALKER AUDITORIUM.

With members of the crew of the U. S. S. Idaho playing the feminine as well as the masculine roles, the presentation of a "Table for Two" last night at the Walker Auditorium proved an entertaining and amusing affair for a large audience. The play is a bright and happy melange on night life previous to the beginning of the dry days, and is laid in the Bohemian section of New York City. With the costumes used by the players, it might be said that Julian Eltinge has nothing on the Idaho's "Baby Dolls."

The leading female role is taken by Earle Crooker, and he proves to be quite a vamp. Virgil Barron is seen as Johnnie Walker, while Joseph Elias, as the jealous wife of Walker, Elias and Barron delight the audience with their novelty fox trot. Oderman as the waiter, Petro as the Quaker aunt and Concella as Alea Hall, are excellent in their parts.

John Monogue with his soft shoe dancing, proves a decided hit. Jack Thornton, a diminutive chap, sings several effective numbers, as does also the Idaho quartette.

The piece will be repeated this afternoon and evening and tomorrow.

GERMAN ARMY MORE THAN THREE MILLION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, March 26.—Germany, in the event of mobilization, can place an army of 3,400,000 men in the field, says Henry Didou, well-known French war correspondent, in a dispatch to Le Journal from Mayence.

He adds that Germany secretly has reinforced her once-famous war machine, which in 1918 was virtually shattered. Officers, he says, are available to command an army of 4,000,000 men.

CLAIM IRON DIVISION TO MARCH ON BERLIN.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, March 26. — The Majority Socialist organ, Vorwaerts, charges Pomerania and the Northern Uckermark, northwest of Stettin, are under domination of the Iron Division (Baltic troops) and the League of Pomeranian Land Owners, who have mobilized the citizens' guard.

In Prenzlau, southwest of Stettin, they procured the murderer of the local executive of the Independent Socialists, the newspaper declares.

According to statements made by its officers, Vorwaerts asserts, the Iron Division intends to march on Berlin.

Peasants of the eastern district of Prignitz, Northwestern Brandenburg, have been equipped with machine guns, according to Vorwaerts.

Doctors Testify Killing was Done in Frenzy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DURANGO (Colo.) March 26.—Three physicians, qualifying as experts, closed the defense today in the trial of 17-year-old Caroline Jones, charged with the murder of Carl Bay at Bayfield, last January.

The physicians testified that Caroline was suffering from a transitory frenzy at the time she shot and killed Bay and was unable to distinguish the character of the deed at the time of the killing. They defined the disease as one destroying memory, inducing a partial unconsciousness and declared the attack was super-induced by great fear and mental anxiety.

The prosecution will begin its rebuttal testimony tomorrow morning, expecting to complete it by noon.

The courtroom was crowded again today and there were several demonstrations among the spectators in sympathy with the girl defendant.

NEAMY TRIAL BEGUN.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

DEADWOOD (S. D.) March 26.—A jury of ten farmers and two laborers was selected yesterday and taking of testimony begun in the trial of Mr. and Mrs. George Searle, charged with the murder of Mrs. Hilda Neamy, mother of Mrs. Searle, whose charred body was found in the Neamy apartment furnace at Lead, December 7, last.

Dr. V. R. Hodges, County Coroner, was the only witness examined, and his testimony was continued today.

The body of the woman was found in the furnace, head foremost, with the arms folded over her breast, he said. The woman's clothing had been neatly folded and laid away on a chair in the basement. He said the waist and skirt had distinct bloodstains. In the basement also was an ax which the witness said Mr. Searle had told him he had used to kill chickens.

"BLACK CAT" SABOTAGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND, March 26.—The black cat which frequently appears in I.W.W. literature stands for sabotage, according to George F. Vanderveer, counsel for Joseph Laundy, alleged I.W.W. on trial here for violation of the State criminal syndicalism law. Vanderveer made this admission in court today after he had objected to William Josh, a State witness, giving testimony as to the significance of the picture.

SYNDICALIST GUILTY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Harry Winitsky, executive secretary of the local branch of the Communist party, was found guilty in the State Supreme Court late today of violating the criminal anarchy law.

Acme STORES

Snowdrift —a shortening
—a pure rich vegetable fat; wholesome, richer than butter. Of high food value and being a clean vegetable fat, preferable to animal fat.
—squarely back of every pound it sells stands your Acme; back of the Acme is the reputable firm that produces it; the same concern which has for years produced Wesson Salad and Cooking Oil.
—the promise of satisfaction is made good—to the very letter.
—try it, then, at our risk; if it doesn't satisfy, fully, your money back, cheerfully.
Snowdrift, small can, 35c; medium, 1.35; large, 2.68

Preserves
—no guessing about quality when you know Tea Garden preserves;
—because the makers have the courage to get the very best fruits and berries—and to spare no expense in putting them up properly, the Tea Garden brand is now reaping the harvest in good will and in large sales.
—delightful to the palate and to the eye—pure.
—the preserves, in 16-oz. glass, 35c to 47c
—the jellies, in 8-oz. glass, 25c and 27c

Grape Juice —Island Queen
—do you like wine?—here's the Catawa grape juice; tastes like wine — is like wine, minus the headache.
—surprisingly good, and a welcome addition to the list of permitted beverages.
4-oz. bottle, 15c; pints, 40c; quarts, 75c

Milk
—Borden's, Alpine or Sego; the secret of their success is a secret no longer.
—good rich milk, condensed by the most skilled methods; nothing more —good milk, and satisfaction.
—the large cans, 2 for 23c
—the small ones, 6c

Peachlade
—a peach preserve that retains to the fullest degree the charm and deliciousness of the ripe peach.
—to lead you into trying it a special price 36c

Japan Tea —Acme tea
—we must all admit that certain best teas are grown in Japan; no denying that. Here, then, is an Uncolored Japan tea, of the first Spring picking, when the leaf is young and delicate; the natural leaf, which has not been hand rolled—and is therefore to be preferred.
—this particular grade of tea was packed in Japan for the Acme stores; goes to you as a most exceptional value.
—the ½-lb. pkg., 31c

Polishes
—O'Cedar, Liquid Veneer or Ragged Robin polishes are about the handiest thing about the house; cleans as it polishes—and gives new life to all sorts of furniture.
—brings back the new look to the piano, the dining table—even the automobile.
—nothing better for right dusting.
Liquid Veneer, Small, 17c; large, 33c
O-Cedar Oil, small, 18c; large, 35c
Ragged Robin, small, 18c; medium, 34c
—be glad you have an Acme near you.

Heads of Y.M.C.A. Testify They Signed Blindly.

Witnesses in Suit to Break Mrs. Wilshire's Will.

Doctors and Others Declare Widow was Incompetent.

Councilman A. P. Fleming was called as a witness in the trial of the contest of the will of Mrs. Susan Emerson Wilshire before Judge Rives of the Probate Court yesterday. An agreement signed by Mr. Fleming, as secretary of the Y.M.C.A., and by the heirs figures in the evidence.

Under this agreement the heirs were to receive a percentage if a threatened contest by one of the heirs was headed off, the percentage to come out of the large residue of the estate left to the Y.M.C.A. by Mrs. Wilshire for uplift work among soldiers and sailors.

Mr. Fleming stated he signed the agreement for the board of directors of the Y.M.C.A. He said he knew nothing about the matter.

Mrs. Harry McLaurin, an old-time friend of Mrs. Wilshire, said she had had some experience in cases of paralysis and testified that Mrs. Wilshire's eyes had "the expression of brain disturbance."

Dr. J. Ross Moore and Dr. E. B. Hoag testified that in their opinion Mrs. Wilshire was incompetent.

J. E. Carr and D. E. Luther, members of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors, stated that no reason was given them for signing the agreement with reference to compromising a threatened contest, and acted on the advice of attorneys.

A. B. Cass, president of the Y.M.C.A., said he signed the agreement, as president of the organization, on advice of counsel. He said he did not know anything about the agreement.

Woman Loses Fight with Dentist Over Fractured Jaw.

Evelyn Dunwiddie, who sued Dr. H. L. Trafford, a dentist, for $10,325 for fracturing her jaw while pulling a tooth, lost her case in Judge Myer's court last night when the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. Dr. Ellis W. Jones took into court an X-ray machine, picture of the jaw and testified it will be necessary to graft a piece of bone on the jaw, which will cost $300. Dr. Trafford asserted that the plaintiff did not follow his advice and that he was not responsible for the injury.

HOTEL RAYMOND OF PASADENA TO BE OPEN UNTIL APRIL 30TH.

Management of Famous Winter Resort Decides to Remain Open During Most Beautiful Month of Year

In compliance with the urgent requests of many visitors who desire to prolong their sojourn in the Southland, Walter Raymond announces that his famous hostelry, the Raymond, Pasadena, will be open to guests until the 30th of April.

Although in past seasons the Raymond has closed about the middle of April, the unprecedented conditions prevailing this year have made it necessary to lengthen the season, and this announcement will prove welcome news to large numbers of eastern visitors, as it will enable them to enjoy the varied attractions of Southern California during the most beautiful season of the year.

Since the recent rains the Raymond forms a most picturesque setting. The popular golf course on its own estate is like a vast, velvety green carpet; while the profusion of roses and other spring flowers lend a charm typically Californian.

The Raymond being situated on the main motor boulevard from Los Angeles to Pasadena, as well as on the Short Line of the Pacific Electric Railway, makes it easily accessible to all points of historic and other interest and strongly appeals to the visitor who desires to be close to all the advantages of city, country, beach and mountain life while enjoying the luxuries of the Southland's most magnificent suburban resort hotel. — [Advertisement.

Dr. William Allan Neilson.

SMITH COLLEGE HEAD TO BE CITY'S GUEST.

MAN OF MANY ATTAINMENTS TO SPEAK BOTH HERE AND IN PASADENA.

Dr. William Allan Neilson, president of Smith College, will arrive here Wednesday, to speak before a number of organizations in this city and Pasadena. He will speak at noon Tuesday at a meeting of the Smith College Club in the Shakespeare Club House in Pasadena; at the Friday luncheon of the Friday Morning Club, and at a luncheon and reception, under the auspices of the Smith College Club, at the Clark, Saturday, April 3. While here Dr. Neilson will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Gamble, 4 Westmoreland place, Pasadena.

Dr. Neilson was born in 1869 in the village of Doune, Perthshire, Scotland, where his father was schoolmaster. He prepared for college at Montrose Academy, and was graduated from Edinburgh University with honors in philosophy. Receiving a traveling fellowship in education, he crossed the Atlantic and spent some time in visiting schools and colleges in the United States and Canada.

During the next four years he was English master in Upper Canada College, Toronto, a position he resigned in 1895 to enter the graduate school of Harvard, where he held a Morgan fellowship. After taking the degree of doctor of philosophy at Harvard, Mr Neilson went to Bryn Mawr as associate in English, returning to teach at Harvard in 1900. Four years later he was called to Columbia University, where he served as adjunct professor and professor from 1904 to 1906, lecturing also in Barnard College. From 1906 to 1917 he was professor of English at Harvard and Radcliffe. In the summer of 1909, Dr. Neilson lectured at the University of California, and in 1914-15 in Paris at the Sorbonne as exchange professor. At the close of his courses there he received the medal of the University of Paris in recognition of his services to the university in war time.

Dr. Neilson's activites in English scholarship have covered a wide field. Apart from special articles, he has written three books: "The Origins and Sources of the Court of Love," a study in mediaeval allegory; "Essentials of Poetry," lectures delivered at the Lowell Institute in Boston; "The Facts about Shakespeare," with Prof. Thorndike; and "Burns, How to Know Him," which has recently appeared. As editor he is responsible for a number of school editions of Milton and Shakespeare, for the new text of Shakespeare in "The Cambridge Poets," the only complete text constructed in America since Grant White's for the "Chief Elizabethan Dramatists," and the "Chief British Poets of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries," with Prof. Webster. He is joint general editor of the Tudor Shakespeare; general editor of the series of types of English literature, and he collaborated with President Eliot in the editing of the Harvard classics.

His most important work in the Harvard Graduate School has been the directing of research in the field of modern literature. He has been a president of the New England Association of Teachers of English, vice-president of the American Folk-Lore Society, and of the Modern Language Association of America, and he is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

"INVENTOR" HELD ON BAD-CHECK CHARGE.

DECLARED TO HAVE POSED AS ADDING MACHINE WIZARD AND DUPED BANKERS.

W. E. Burroughs, who is said to have interested organizations and various financiers in San Francisco with the understanding that he was the inventor of the Burroughs adding machine, so that plans were made for the erection of a large building there to manufacture a new "invention," was lodged in the County Jail yesterday by Constable Thomas on a charge of having passed a fictitious check for $100. The complaining witness is James Johnson of this city.

According to information given the authorities here, Burroughs stayed at a fashionable hotel in San Francisco and spread the rumor that he was the inventor of the adding machine of that name and that he had recently invented a wonderful new machine, which would be manufactured on the Pacific Coast. Bankers and others were said to have been interested in his plans and at one time he held open house in the lobby of a large hotel in San Francisco. In a few days, it was said, he spent $4000 at Tia Juana. He is reported to have said that his income is $40,000 a month.

He was arrested at San Diego by Constable Thomas and was arraigned before Justice Brown, who set his hearing for Monday. He said he is a steamfitter.

FOR PARKING PURPOSES.

The southerly sixteen-foot strip of the water department's lot at Fifth and Olive street was leased by the Board of Public Service Commissioners yesterday to A. E. Lott, at a rental of $100 a month. It is to be used for parking purposes.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY MYRA NYE.

Friday Morning Club.

It was a distinct triumph for Miss Willamene Wilkes, yesterday, at the Friday Morning Club, to present two playlets with such success, in spite of the handicaps of an inadequate stage and facilities. The players taking part were from the Wilkes Stock Company. In the first one, "The Pierrot of the Minute," they were Mr. Horton and Miss Booth, both of whom were charming in their roles and neither neglected the delicate satire of the lines. The playlet is by Ernest Dawson, an English poet-dramatist, who died at the age of 26.

The second play, "The Very Naked Boy," was written and originally produced by Stuart Walker of New York, the originator of the portmanteau theaters. In the scene, "Half Way to a Proposal," Miss Elliott, Mr. Pangborn and Mr. Morgan were quite silly enough to make the whole scene excruciatingly funny.

Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson, formerly a Colorado State Senator, was the guest of honor and chief speaker at the luncheon. Mrs. Robinson remarked that she had heard there was to be a woman run for the California Senate. "One is not enough," she said. "You must send women to your Senate in sufficient numbers to make their influence felt in group, not as individuals. I like men. I've always found them interesting. They can do many things better than we can, but we women must not only help them to make the world safe for democracy, but, what is more in our line, a pleasant place for democracy."

The speaker for the clubhouse fund was Mrs. Arthur C. Wier, who announced that more than $5000 had been raised through the foundation fund committee and that during the day and evening every member of the club within telephone call would be reached.

Mrs. John Osgood stated in her report for the charter membership committee that there are forty-one living charter members and twenty-nine have already responded with contributions amounting to nearly $1600. Other speakers for the clubhouse building were Mrs. John R. Haynes, Mrs. Benjamin Goldmin and C. P. Townsley of the Otis Art Institute, who spoke for beauty and art in the building.

Those appearing at the next regular meeting, Friday, are William Butler Yeats, who will speak in the morning on "The Younger Generation of Poets," and Miss Helent Taft will be the luncheon speaker.

DUPE OF BUNCO MEN FOR YEAR.

Street Sweeper Thinks Tin Box Contains Fortune Until Police Open It.

After keeping for almost a year a small tin box supposed to contain $20,000, Fortunato Magliari, a street sweeper living at 625 New High street, yesterday had his dreams of wealth shattered when police detectives opened the box and showed him a roll of newspapers. The box, according to Mr. Magliari, was left with him by two "friends" after he had given them $2000 in cash. The "friends" told him there was money in the box to be given away to the poor, and the $2000, all Mr. Magliari's savings, were given as proof of his good faith in the matter. Not until a year had elapsed did he realize he had been buncoed.

IN FIGHT FOR BABY.

Mulholland Gets Writ Directed Against Daughter.

Continuing the fight for the custody of his 3-year-old grand-daughter, Chief Engineer Mulholland of the Public Service Commission yesterday caused a writ of habeas corpus to be obtained, directed against his daughter, Mrs. Lucille M. Strang, and her husband, Benjamin C Strang, of Pasadena. The writ was made returnable Wednesday before Juvenile Judge Reeve. It was asked for in the name of the child's grandmother, Mrs. Clara S. Sloan, who was given custody of the child by Mr. Mulholland after he was appointed guardian. It is asserted that Mrs. Strang spirited the child away from the grandmother's home "by trick and device."

DENIES GIVING I.W.W. HER HUSBAND'S CASH.

STEELINK DISCLOSES PLAN FOR "STRIKE" AGAINST COURTS AND LAWYERS.

When Mrs. Mary R. Davis, whose husband said their home was disrupted by her radicalism, took the stand yesterday in the case of Nicholas Steelink, on trial in Judge Willis's court for criminal syndicalism, she emphatically denied that she had given $1000 of her spouse's money to the I.W.W. Following her statement she underwent a severe two-hour cross-examination on the part of Dist.-Atty. Woolwine and Deputies Keyes and Turney.

J. R. Davis, the husband, testified earlier in the trial that his wife had given his money to the I.W.W. to buy printing presses and that she had encouraged the holding of I.W.W. meetings in her home. She said she bought a press, but declared it was for her own use. It is said to be set up in the Germain Building, near the I.W.W. headquarters.

She denied that she had written a letter to "All Comrades," in which was the statement, "I am a born radical." The letter deals with an I.W.W. named Weber. She admitted giving Weber $25.

Steelink, in the course of his testimony, disclosed that the I.W.W. planned a "strike" against all courts and lawyers. He admitted having seen a letter, which he identified as it was placed in evidence, to Warren Lamson, once secretary of the local I.W.W., from the headquarters in San Francisco. This mentioned the appointment of a committee to "try" three reputed I.W.W., arrested in Sacramento, who had employed attorneys to defend them instead of remaining silent and ignoring the courts in a "strike." One of these three was Theodora Pollock.

BURGER CASE OVER.

The case of Charles Burger, Civil Service Commissioner, charged with contributing to the delinquency of three youths, and assigned for trial to Judge Houser's department, came before the court yesterday, but no date was named, as nobody appeared, the prosecutor assigned being busy in another department.

FOR SALE—

SPRING IS HERE—NOW YOU CAN

LIVE IN A TENT AND RAISE

YOUR OWN FOOD ON

SOUTHLAND HOME ACRES
(35 minutes from Main street.)

YOU know what potatoes cost today, and everything else is equally high. One of our acre tracts will raise all the garden stuff you can eat for months. A few chickens and rabbits will supply your table with meat. And an improved Petaluma System Poultry Plant will bring you an income of $50 to $85 weekly.

COME OUT TO TRACT AND SEE

Families now living there in tents and temporary homes. Broiler plants in full operation. Gardens made and making. Come save money and make money like others are doing.

SELECT YOUR HOMESITE

And put up your tent. We'll plow the ground free. Start a broiler plant—we'll stock it from our hatchery. You'll save and make enough in rent and living expense in short time to be able to build home you'll be proud of.

YOU CAN DO IT ON SMALL CAPITAL

Southland Home Acres are located just three blocks from end of Alhambra-San Gabriel car line, (San Gabriel boulevard.) Auto meets every car and takes you to tract office where salesmen are ready to show you every stage of this wonderful development. You can also drive out to San Gabriel boulevard to Fremont, or Huntington boulevards, turning east on Broadway to tract office three blocks away.

DEADLOCK ON PARK.

Councilmen Split Over Plan to Buy Bessemeyer Tract.

The City Council sent back to its Public Welfare Committee yesterday the report of that committee recommending that condemnation proceedings be instituted to acquire the Bessemeyer tract in Hollywood for park purposes. With only eight members present there was a tie, four Councilmen taking the stand that condemnation proceedings should not be instituted unless a majority petition of property owners in the proposed district were presented.

It was pointed out that while a definite price of $250,000 has been made on the thirty-two acres it is proposed to acquire, twenty acres of the land has since been sold at an increased price and there is no assurance that the property can now be obtained at the original figures quoted.

PLANTS FOR GARDENS.

Will be Distributed Free Through Community Service Council.

Arrangements have been perfected by the Council of Community Service whereby the propogation and distribution of all necessary plants for home gardens for this season is assured.

A seven-acre tract near Forty-ninth street and Vernon avenue, under the supervision of R. J. Brown, director of agriculture at the McKinley avenue Junior High School, will become a municipal certer for plants. Seeds will be provided by the Home Gardens Association through the executive committee, of which Walter Mallard is financial chairman and William Bowen, chairman of the seed committee.

Mr. Brown will be assisted in this work by eighty-five high school students.

May 1 the distribution of plants will begin from community centers established through the Council of Community Service and thereafter free plants will be ready for all Los Angeles gardens.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

Picnic Postponed.

The Litchfield, Ill., picnic, which was to have been held tomorrow, has been postponed two weeks.

Former and visiting residents of Litchfield, Ill., will hold a basket picnic in Lincoln Park, tomorrow.

Picnic if It's Fine.

The New York State picnic will be held today in Sycamore Grove, if the weather is fine.

Gama Phi Beta Meeting.

The Alumnae Chapter of the national sorority, Gama Phi Beta, will meet this afternoon at the home of Miss Edna Earle, 942 Beacon street.

Postpone Picnic.

Because of unsettled weather conditions, the picnic of the Sioux City Social Club to have been held in Sycamore Grove, today, has been postponed until April 24.

Roamers to Hike.

Members of the Roamers' Hiking Club will leave the Pacific Electric station at 7:45 a.m. tomorrow for a ten-mile hike up Eaton Canyon. Miss M. Ringstrom is president of the club and H. Shaw is the secretary.

Bourbons to Meet.

Miss Mary Foy, national Democratic committee woman, and director of the woman's bureau of the Democratic party in California, will hold a preliminary meeting of her advisory board at 2:30 p.m. today at the headquarters in the Stimson Building. A general discussion of pending political matters will be held.

In Humane Work.

Under the auspices of the American Humane Association and the Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Richard C. Craven, organizer and lecturer for the first-named association, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Animals in War and Peace" in the assembly room of the Alexandria, at 8 p.m., Sunday. A feature will be the showing of films of animal incidents in the World War.

Story Hour Today.

Miss Cara Atherton, who studied for four years at the University of Paris, and who has lived many years among the French people, will give a story hour for children at the public library at 3 p.m. today. Swords used in the Franco-Prussian War, a small statue of liberty carried through the streets of Paris on the day of the execution of Marie Antoinette and other objects loaned to the Public Library by prominent citizens of French descent will be used to give the children the atmosphere of the stories which Miss Atherton will tell.

For Easter Cantata.

Members of the Mexican girls' club, the King's Daughters, are planning a special Easter programme to be given at the International Institute this evening. The entertainment will be in the form of a cantata, "The Risen Redeemer," in which twenty of the club members will participate. Miss Higgins of the Plaza Center will sing the solo parts. The programme will be under the supervision of Miss Ethel Newton, executive secretary of the International Institute, and Miss Rena Cathcart, Mexican visitor, will direct the affair. This club is composed of about thirty Mexican girls, none of whom has been in this country more than six years.

FOR Y.W.C.A. CONFERENCE.

Statesmanship, democracy, the Girl Reserve code as a girl's guide and "The All-Around Girl" will be topics of discussion at a Y.W.C.A. conference to be held at Pomona College today and Sunday by the high-school girls and young employed girls who are members of the association. The programme, planned under the direction of Miss Esther A. Dayman, girls' work secretary of the Y.W.C.A. for the Pacific Coast field, will include representatives from over the entire southern part of the State, including the six Los Angeles high schools, the intermediate schools and the Blue Triangle Club. This evening the girls will assemble around a bonfire on the campus.

PIONEER PASSES ON.

Funeral services for Henry Lee, a pioneer, who died Thursday at his home, 1702 South Figueroa street, will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. today at the Sutch chapel. Mr. Lee was 72 years of age and had resided here thirty-two years. He leaves a widow, a granddaughter, Mrs. Clara Metcalf Benner, and two great grandchildren, Virginia and Betty Benner.

CHRISTIAN GUILTY.

Little Girl's Story of Trip with Man Convicts Him.

Telling of a trip she made to Imperial Valley with J. T. Christian, on trial in Judge Craig's court on a statutory charge, Jenpie Gross, aged 13, yesterday testified against the man she said she loved. The offense is alleged to have been committed on July 1, 1919. The case was argued by Deputy District Attorney Randall and M. G. Phillips and John S. Cooper, defense counsel. The jury was out twenty-six minutes, and returned a verdict of guilty against Christian.

PICTURE DOCTOR AS A CAVE MAN.

Osteopath Choked His Wife, Her Witnesses State.

Methodist Choir Singers in Contested Divorce Case.

Husband Denies Charges of Brutality and Sulking.

It may have been temperament or it may have been an exemplification of the old axiom that no love is true without fussing and making up, but in the case of attractive Anna Catherine Gustason, she tired of the reputed cave-man methods of her husband, Dr. David George Gustason, an osteopath, and yesterday sought a divorce in Judge Crail's court.

She gave a long recital of her at the hands of her woes, including two instances of what she termed brutal treatment at the hands of her husband. One incident occurred in the First Methodist Church, where Dr. Gustason and his wife were members of the choir, and another in Westlake Park. In both instances, witnesses testified, they discovered the doctor choking his attractive wife.

Mrs. Gustason declared her husband virtually kept her a prisoner in a hotel room during the evenings. His argument was that she could rest up for work in the morning. She is employed as a stenographer by a well-known wealthy man. She said her husband would not allow her to have friends. During her married life she had been allowed to go to only one motion-picture show, she related. He compelled her to eat at cheap cafes, she complained, and used her money to pay the bill, and whenever she crossed him he would pout. Other witnesses testified that he sulked.

STRUGGLE IN CHURCH.

Carl Bronson, choir leader and teacher, testified that he heard an uproar during choir rehearsal and discovered Dr. Gustason and Mrs. Gustason in a struggle in the basement of the church. He said he forced Dr. Gustason away from the wife.

Another witness testified she saw a couple struggling in the park and when she remonstrated, calling the man a brute, he replied, "Why, this is my wife." She said the two were Dr. Gustason and Mrs. Gustason.

Dr. Gustason wrote his wife in one letter in evidence:

"I wonder why there is anything but happiness in this world. To err is human, to forgive is divine. Can't you forgive and forget, even if the pathway is unpleasant at times? Read Kipling's 'If,' and remember that we are all human. It is within you to be true and affectionate. I hope we may share these blessings. May we?"

"HAPPY WITHOUT YOU."

In reply Mrs. Gustason wrote her husband:

"I have long since forgotten you, and I hope you have done likewise. You and I are strangers, and I am going to tell you right here and now that I never want to see you again. I'm getting along most happily without you. Don't write me any more letters, for I don't want to read them."

Dr. Gustason, who was called to the stand near the close of court, denied his wife's allegations. He will resume his evidence Monday afternoon. He is represented by Attorney McLaughlin. Mrs. Gustason's attorneys are Robert Odell and Georgia P. Bullock.

RETAILERS SIGHTSEEING.

Research Association Convention Is in Session Here.

Visiting members of the Retail Research Association now in convention here with their wives toured the cities and beaches around Los Angeles yesterday and visited several motion-picture studios in the afternoon. They were the guests of Mr and Mrs. John G. Bullock at a noon luncheon given at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

Today the party will drive to Riverside to see the orange country. Their tour will include the famed "Orange Kingdom" and at noon they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bullock at the Glenwood Mission Inn.

The membership of the organization includes representative dry goods and department store operators of the country. Most of the delegates to the convention are staying at the Green and the Huntington hotels in Pasadena.

WHOSE OIL WELLS?

Jurisdiction over Mineral Wealth of Parks is in Question.

The Board of Public Works yesterday sent a formal request to City Attorney Burnell for an opinion as to whether the city or the Park Department has the right to develop oil wells on park property.

This step follows the development of the plan started by Commissioner Treat when he made an examination of sections of Elysian Park and came to the conclusion that at least forty acres in this public domain are likely to prove oil-bearing lands. Then followed an inspection by all members of the board accompanied by City Engineer Griffin, and their conclusion, if there are no legal difficulties in the way, to secure the opinion of an oil expert and undertake the development of wells that may furnish street improvement material.

ON WORK FOR DEAF.

How deaf children are taught to speak was explained yesterday afternoon to the pupils of the Pacific Coast School of Lip Reading by Miss Bennett, who for twenty-five years supervised the instruction of deaf children in the Los Angeles public schools.

FLOWERS JURY CANNOT AGREE.

Seven to Five for Conviction After Five Hours.

Panel Discharged and Case will be Re-tried.

"Dugout" Editor Assailed by State as Menace.

After five and a half hours of deliberation the jury trying Sydney R. Flowers, editor of the Dugout, on the charge of criminal syndicalism, disagreed and was discharged by Judge Houser, last night. It stood seven to five for conviction. The case will be retried at a date yet to be set.

Deputy District Attorney Stafford closed his argument for the prosecution at 3:20 p.m., and after the court's instructions, the jury retired. Six ballots were taken, the first being eight to four for conviction and the second and rest seven to five. No names of those voting for acquittal were disclosed. Flowers, represented by Attorney John Beardsley, assigned to the case by E. A. Meserve, president of the Los Angeles Bar Association, did not take the stand. Witnesses in his behalf declared that he expected to accomplish the overthrow of the government in favor of the workers by peaceful means.

The prosecution, on the other hand, showed by witnesses that from Mr. Flowers's own statements and public addresses he favored force, if necessary, to accomplish the soviet movement. Mr. Stafford declared in his argument that the people of this country are entitled to protection against internal and external abuse and that while Flowers served as a soldier, his views after he returned from war and his alleged expressions to citizens stamped him in favor of the movement fathered by Lenine in Russia.

After the jury had retired, it sent for the cartoon published in the September number of the Dugout showing a dog, three fleas, one marked capitalistic, and a sea, styled revolution, and the copies of the Dugout offered during the trial.

The jurors were James M. Graham, Howard Hill, Henry F. King, Mrs. Mary E. Blythe, Mrs. Frances S. Mendell, J. J. Carruthers, Walter Devereaux, Thomas W. Newman, Damuel B. Hall, Mrs. Helen P. Bush, E. Vance Hill, Mrs. Frances W. Johnson.

CARSON HEIRESS TO WED RAIL-MAN'S SON.

BETROTHAL OF MISS GRACE CALDWELL AND THOMAS COOPER MADE KNOWN.

The betrothal of Miss Grace Caldwell and Thomas Cooper, both of this city, was made known yesterday. Miss Caldwell is the daughter of Mrs. Virginia L. Caldwell and granddaughter of the late Mrs. Victoria D. de Carson, who died in 1917, leaving a large estate.

Miss Caldwell is a scion of the historic Dominguez family which now owns the Dominguez Rancho. They are descendants of one of the notable Spanish families which dates back to the days before the Armada in Spain. Cristobal Dominguez, a Spaniard of noble lineage, received a grant of 52,000 acres, including the present California rancho, from the King of Spain as a reward for valor in battle. He sent his son, Manuel Dominguez, to manage the estate for him in 1820 and Manuel built the original home of the family here. Some 30,000 acres of the grant yet remain.

Miss Caldwell is a cousin of Mrs. Henry Hanrahan, who, until her marriage in the autumn, was Miss Valerie Carson, and of Miss Gladys Carson. She is a graduate of Mariborough School and has been one of the most popular girls in society.

Mr. Cooper is a real estate operator, the son of Mr. H. H. Cooper of the Southern Pacific Railroad and a brother of John C. Cooper. He is a graduate of the University of California and is prominent in society and in business circles.

No date has been set for the wedding. Just before that day Mrs. Hanrahan will give a large tea for her cousin.

NO FEAR OF CHARGES.

State Highway Board Undisturbed by Former Secretary's Accusations.

Concerning charges of maladministration made against the California Highway Commission by William R. Ellis, until recently secretary of the commission, N. D. Darlington, chairman, said yesterday that the board had nothing to fear from any disclosures that Mr. Ellis may make; that the policies and construction procedure of the board have been publicly announced.

Mr. Ellis made the charges in a letter to Gov. Stephens, in which he tendered his resignation, and said that he was prepared for a fight with the commission. Mr. Ellis made the general charge of wrong administration of the State's highway affairs without giving specific details. Gov. Stephens arrived in Los Angeles last night and may confer with Mr. Darlington today on the matter.

FOR SAMUEL SOTHERN.

Funeral Services Monday for Brother of Noted Actor.

The funeral of Samuel Sothern, whose death occurred at Beverly Hills last Sunday, will be held at the chapel of George A. Fitch Monday at 2 o'clock p.m., Dean MacCormack officiating.

Following the services, Frank Colfax, a friend of the family, will accompany the body to New York City, where further services will be held. Later E. H. Sothern, the noted actor or brother of the deceased, will take the body to London, Eng., for final interment.

CHINESE UNDER ARREST.

Supposed Author of Police Hold-up Plot Taken; New Confession Secured.

Lee Hing, a Chinese drug peddler believed by the police to be the author of the Chinatown robbery plot for which two police officers, another man and two women are now confined in the City Jail, was captured late last night by Police Lieutenant McIntosh and officers of the Chinatown squad. Some hours earlier Ralph E. Childs, one of the quintette previously arrested for the robbery, at the Chinese residence at 504 North Los Angeles street, broke down and confessed after he had been questioned six hours by Chief of Police Home. In his statement, Childs implicated Patrolmen Mortimer and O'Gara, now under arrest, and Mrs. Jessie Elliott and Madge Brown, who had been taken into custody following the first confession made by Mortimer.

Although Childs told the police of the ride to the Chinese house and the manner in which the officers gained admission to the place, he denied he took a part in the actual holdup and stated that he thought until the time of his arrest early Thursday morning that the whole affair was a regular police raid. These parts of Childs's statements, declares Chief Home, are not true, as the man was identified by nine of the Chinese victims as one of the bandits who entered the house.

After Childs had made his statement, Mrs. Jessie Elliott was questioned by Chief Home, but she refused to say anything. The police declare, however, that both Mrs. Elliott and the Brown woman assisted in planning the robbery and were in a second automobile with Patrolman O'Gara and intended to decoy Patrolman Torres, the officer on the beat, from the vicinity of the house that was entered.

CHINAMAN HUNTED.

While Police Detectives Cline, Hickok, Winn, O'Brien and others were searching the city for Earl White and his wife, both of whom the police say took an active part in the holdup, Police Lieutenant McIntosh, in charge of the Chinatown squad, was hunting for Hing, because of information furnished the police by the Chinese victims of the policemen-bandit gang. He was surprised in his room. He had been known in Chinatown as a dangerous gunman. His room was located on Rose street, near First street. When the officers smashed their way into his room, Lee Hing was found hiding behind a door. He was under the influence of drugs and an automatic revolver lay on his bed. At Central Station, Lieut. McIntosh found several bundles of cocaine hidden in his clothes. He was booked on a charge of highway robbery.

Hing is charged with first laying the plot to rob the Chinese. He had been ejected from the North Los Angeles street house, and to avenge the insult, it is charged, he went to Mrs. Jessie Elliott and laid his scheme before her, explaining that a raid on the place would net $30,000.

Marked by many varieties of weather, the storm which visited all districts of Southern California strewed a goodly quantity of rain and snow over valley and mountain, punctuating its visits in many places with hail and wind. The rainfall for this city during the storm was .42 of an inch, bringing the precipitation for the season up to 11.42 inches, against 8.22 inches for the same date last year. The normal rainfall for this date is 12.67. The forecast is for fair weather today.

Many districts in Southern California are already from five to nine inches ahead of last year's record, and some have exceeded the normal supply for the whole season. San Bernardino has had 16.75 inches, which is almost four inches more than last year's rainfall for the same date. Pomona claims 19.73 inches, which is a little more than nine inches over last year. Bakersfield has 1.11 inches in excess of her record for the same date in 1919. Only one or two districts are behind last year's record.

The run-off so far has been slight, most of the rain soaking deep into the earth. There has been little destruction of property by flood waters this season. The Weather Bureau predicts more showers during the next ten days.

FLOOD AVERTED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

FRESNO, March 26.—Dry Creek, the natural water channel that traverses the northern part of the city, ran bankful this morning and there was threatened danger of a flood for a time with breaking of the banks. Later in the day the peak of the flood passed and the danger of flooding the northern part of the city was averted, unless more rain comes. Due to the storms of the past few days, the creeks and irrigation ditches are carrying all the water they can hold.

ELSINORE FILLING.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, March 26.—A short but smart hailstorm occurred here this morning. Lake Elsinore is filling up rapidly, receiving about 3000 miner's inches from the flow of the San Jacinto River. The Santa Ana, which invariably gives trouble during periods of freshets, has behaved well this season owing to the gentleness of the showers. The Lake Hemet water level has reached ninety-eight feet. Hemet ranchers state that they will not have to resort to irrigation before June 1.

SNOW IN NORTH.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Coming as a part of a great storm which swept Washington, Oregon and California and practically all of the vast plateau region, a snowfall visited many sections of Central and Northern California yesterday and last night, depositing thirteen inches at Summit and coming as close to the coast as Mt. Tamalpais and the Santa Cruz Mountains. San Franciscans awoke today to find a white mantle on Tamalpais, while from San Jose could be seen snow flurries far below the 500-foot line in the hills near the town. The snow in the lower reaches melted a few hours after it had fallen.

In the Sierras the snow fairly cascaded down for a time, bringing the pack at Summit to the 85-inch level and sending drifts and flurries far below the 5000-foot mark, where there has been little such precipitation this season.

Weather Bureau reports said the snow was packing unusually well for this particular period, although the depth of the pack is little more than half of normal.

The rain which preceded the snow was heaviest from Fresno to Bakersfield and lightest in Northern California.

Victim of Lover's Jealousy Lies Dead in Her Room Three Days Before Discovery; Horticulturist Held.

George Fredericks, chauffeur, 41 years old, one of the two other men sought by the police in connection with the strangling of Mrs. Ruby Reed, was arrested at his apartment, 728 West Seventh street, at 1 a.m. today by Detective Sergeants O'Brien and Winn. He is held in the City Jail on suspicion of murder, as also is Spencer Poynter, arrested earlier.

Strangled with her own chemise, Mrs. Ruby Reed, a divorcee, 37 years of age, was found murdered in her room in the Bonnie Brae Apartments, 681 South Bonnie Brae street, last night, by her girl chum, Miss Myra Peet of the same address. The murder occurred late Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning, according to the police.

The slaying is believed by the detectives to have been the fruit of jealousy on the part of an unknown lover. Spencer Poynter, a young tree surgeon, who lives at 723 South Main street, was arrested on suspicion of murder after he had told the detectives that he had visited Mrs. Reed in her apartment on Tuesday night, leaving about 11 o'clock after a late supper with her. The detectives also are seeking another man.

Poynter was arrested under significant circumstances. He called up the woman's apartment after the police arrived there last night and inquired how she was. He was informed by the landlady that she was very ill and wished to see him. He arrived a few minutes later and was taken into custody. He told the police he is 30 years old and was a sailor on the United States submarine H-6 at San Pedro during the war, receiving his discharge May 7, 1919. He declared he knows nothing of the killing, saying he left the woman when she told him she expected another caller.

The police have the name, address and description of another man whom they expect to arrest in a few hours. They are also anxious to locate Mrs. Reed's former husband, from whom she was divorced in San Francisco about six months ago. He is in Los Angeles, according to friends of Mrs. Reed, and may know something of her associates.

A possible motive for the crime was discovered by the detectives shortly before midnight when they pieced together bits of paper, found in a vase in the room, to reconstruct a letter signed by Mrs. Reed, addressed to "Bobbie," and containing endearing terms. The police theory is that the murderer entered the apartment, saw the letter and became enraged upon the realization that another man shared the woman's love.

The murder was discovered by Miss Peet, when, not having heard from Mrs. Reed for several days, she went to her chum's apartments with her friend, Clarence A. Austin, of the Austin-Murphy Company, building contractors of Pasadena. Finding the door locked, they summoned Mrs. Anna Toucciane, the landlady, who opened the door. In the bedroom they found Mrs. Reed's body, clad in negligee, lying on the floor, dead. Then they locked the door and summoned the police.

DESPERATE STRUGGLE.

When the police arrived, they found the apartment in wild confusion, indicating that Mrs. Reed had waged a silent death struggle with her assassin before she was overpowered and garroted. The body was lying on the floor beside her bed in the bedroom, clad in pajamas, which had been torn. Around her neck was twisted a silk chemise. In her mouth was a man's handkerchief, covered with blood and thrust far down the throat. Her neck was broken and bore still the blue-black marks of the slayer's fingers.

The Victrola top was still up and a record on the disc. The detectives believe that the instrument may have been playing while the death struggle was going on. Records from the cabinet were strewn about the floor.

On the bureau top was a note from a taxi-driver which had had a money inclose of, $15. The note had been opened and the money taken out.

The police learned from N. C. Hausman, who occupies the apartment directly beneath Mrs. Reed's, that he had heard sounds of scuffling in the murdered woman's apartments, shortly after midnight on Tuesday. No one visited the apartment on Wednesday or Thursday, the landlady said, and although Miss Peet tried to call her friend on the telephone on those days, she failed to elicit any response. Yesterday afternoon the landlady brought some people to Mrs. Reed's apartment on the third floor to show them the rooms with a view to renting them, as Mrs. Reed had said that she might vacate her apartment soon. They looked in the parlor of the apartment, which consists of a parlor, bedroom, and kitchenette and bath, but found everything in confusion and retired without looking into the bedroom.

Detective Sergeant James Cline of the police identification bureau made finger-prints from the Victrola records and the murdered woman's wearing apparel, in the hope that a clew to the murderer's identity lay there. The main apartment was minutely examined for some article

TO OBSERVE PALM SUNDAY.

Churches Make Elaborate Preparations for Ushering in of Passion Week.

Nineteen hundred and twenty years ago, just five days before the enaction of the greatest tragedy in history, the Savior of the World, whose physical death was accomplished through selfishness and hypocracy, triumphantly entered the city of Jerusalem amid the plaudits of the common people, who had learned to love Him for His wondrous kindness and comforting doctrines. "Lord of Lords and King of Kings" the populace hailed Him, strewing his pathway with flowers and with palms, emblematic of victory. It is recorded that the earth shook and that the sun was darkened when this great Man died and for a time hope died in the hearts of those who had believed in Him. However, the real victory came with the Resurrection and today, throughout Christendom, Palm Sunday is celebrated with new significance and a greater understanding. Elaborate preparations have been made for the celebration of this important festival in Los Angeles, tomorrow, and special sermons and music will feature the services in the various churches.

"THE SOVIET MENACE."
ST. PAUL'S PRO-CATHEDRAL.

That many European countries have, in the recent past, made considerable material progress there is little question, but that progress along commercial or even scientific lines does not necessarily go hand in hand with spiritual growth is the opinion of Rev. William MacCormack, rector of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral who, in his discourse tomorrow night, will discuss the recent social and political disturbances in Europe. Mr. MacCormack will answer the question as to how far, if at all, culture and the higher learning are inimical to the religion of Jesus Christ. The topic of the sermon will be "The Menace of the Soviet in the United States." At the morning hour, Mr. MacCormack will preach the last sermon of a series on "Great Men of the Bible," taking for his special subject, "Daniel, or the Religion of a Gentleman."

"HOW TO GET MARRIED."
THE WHITE TEMPLE.

Do you want to get married? If so, don't pay a big sum to a professional marriage broker, but apply to Dr. Bruce Brown, pastor of the White Temple, formerly known as the South Park Christian Church. Dr. Brown will give his popular sermon-lecture, "How to Get Married," tomorrow evening at the White Temple. All the ushers and singers will be unmarried people. At the morning service the sermon will be appropriate to Palm Sunday, the subject being "For His Sake." Dr. Brown will leave Los Angeles next Thursday for Taft, in which city he will deliver the annual Maundy Thursday address to the Scottish Rite Masons.

BISHOP JOHNSON TO PREACH.
ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, bishop of the local diocese of the Episcopal Church, will be present at St. John's Episcopal Church tomorrow morning for the special purpose of confirming a large class to be presented by Dr. George Davidson, rector of the church. Bishop Johnson will also preach the morning sermon. In the evening the choir will sing a sacred cantata entitled "The Gospel of Calvary," by Thomas Adams. Services for Holy Week will be as follows: Every morning at 9 o'clock; Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 4 p.m.; Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock; Good Friday, from noon until 3 p.m.; Maundy Thursday, an additional service at 7 a.m.

"LONG-WINDED PREACHERS."
WESTLAKE PRESBYTERIAN.

"Church Sleepers—Who are They, and How Can We Wake Them Up?" That is the question to be discussed in a sermon by Dr. G. A. Briegleb tomorrow evening at the Westlake Presbyterian Church. In the morning Dr. Briegleb will preach a Palm Sunday sermon, the subject being, "Bringing Back the King." In his evening discourse Dr. Briegleb will ask and answer the following questions: "Why is it that we never fall asleep at a play but invariably grow drowsy when we go to church? Do preachers preach too long? How long ought a sermon to be in these high tension days? Are preachers, as a rule, long-winded? Are most sermons dull and dry as Baalam's brindled cow and do they savor of some intellectual and religious Sahara? Are our theological seminaries to blame in that they seem to train men to be scholars and recluses instead of giving them an efficient course in the leadership of things pertaining to life? Do the common people remain away from church because it bores them when they attend and they feel the church has no vital message for them? Is it because the men in our pulpits are preaching too much new theology and not enough old-time religion? Can the church improve her mission and ministry? Would good ventilation help in keeping folks awake? Do most choirs and quartettes hinder rather than help the services of the church?

"WANT TO BE A JUDGE?"
TEMPLE BAPTIST.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher has arranged for two especially interesting services for Palm Sunday at the Temple Baptist Church. Preceding the morning sermon on "The Man and the Woman who Ought to be in a Hurry," a special musical programme will be given by the Temple Quartette, the choir, and Miss Nell Lockwood and other soloists. In the evening Dr. Brougher will preach on the question, "How Would You Like to be a Judge? or Lessons Learned in Judge Willis's Courtroom." A feature of the evening service will be an address by Horace A. Wade, an 11-year-old boy whose novel, "In the Shadow of Great Peril," is said to be attracting considerable attention in the literary world. The Men's Glee Club from the University of Redlands will sing several numbers. Constance Balfour will be the soloist and Dr. Ray Hastings will preside at the organ.

"PRESENT-DAY FADS."
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

Dr. Carl S. Patton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, has announced a special sermon for tomorrow morning, the theme being the relation between Christianity and the governments and kingdoms of the world. In the evening, preaching on "The Psychological Element," Dr. Patton will deal with some of the fads of the present day and will also discuss questions of psychology in advertising salesmanship, religion and every-day life. Holy Week will be observed by a series of evening meetings from Monday to Friday evening, inclusive.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.
CHURCH OF THE PEOPLE.

The Church of the People will celebrate its fifth anniversary tomorrow morning and special music and addresses will make the programme of exceptional interest. Mrs. Maud Fletcher Galigher will speak on "The Bonds of the Free" and Reynold E. Blight will preach on "A Church Without a Fence." Musical numbers will be given by Miss Modesta Mortensen, violinist, Mrs. Paula Dohrman, soprano, and Miss Ruth Snow, pianist. Next Friday evening B. P. Wadia will give a lecture, in Blanchard Hall, on "The Life After Death."

WILL RAISE BIG SUM.
FIRST UNITED BRETHREN.

Representatives of the various United Brethren Churches of Southern California, met at the First United Brethren Church yesterday to plan for participation in the Inter-Church World Movement. The United Brethren will endeavor to raise a total of $10,000,000 for extension work during the next five years. The pledges taken in April, however, will be for $4,000,000 only, covering a two-year period. The apportionment to First Church, of which Rev. H. C. Shaffer is pastor, is about $17,000 for the five-year drive. Passion Week services will be conducted every night next week to emphasize the spiritual needs of men. Mr. Shaffer will preach tomorrow morning on "The Pre-Eminence of Christ" and in the evening on "The Essential Elements of an Old-Fashioned Revival."

DR. BROUGHER TO PREACH.
IMMANUEL PRESBYTERIAN.

Immanuel Presbyterian Church expects to have a victorious Palm Sunday tomorrow. The campaign for the erection of the new church is now well under way and tomorrow morning Dr. William W. Newell will speak at the church in the interest of the campaign fund. At the evening hour Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, will address the congregation on the subject, "How Temple Baptist Went Over the Top." Under the direction of William James Chick, the choir will sing special music at both morning and evening services.

REV. A. L. LEE RECOVERS.
HIGHLAND PARK CHRISTIAN.

After an illness of more than a month, Rev. Alden Lee Hill, pastor of the Highland Park Christian Church, has recovered his health and will supply his pulpit again tomorrow morning, preaching on the subject, "Our Father's Business." At Mr. Hill's invitation Rev. J. W. Maddux, pastor of Lincoln Heights Christian Church, will take charge of the services in the evening.

ON "SPIRITUALISM."
FIRST CHRISTIAN.

Rev. Edgar Fay Daugherty, pastor of the First Christian Church, returned to Los Angeles yesterday after a brief visit to Bakersfield and will supply his pulpit, as usual, tomorrow morning, preaching on the subject, "Talking with the Dead." The subject for the evening discourse will be "A New Name." Services of an evangelistic nature will be held at the church every night during Holy Week and Mr. Daugherty will preach a series of sermons on the general subject, "First Principles of the Gospel."

"WAS JESUS GOD'S SON?"
WILSHIRE-BLVD. CHRISTIAN.

Unbelievers and doubters are extended a special invitation to be present at the Wilshire-boulevard Christian Church tomorrow morning, when Rev. M. Howard Fagan will preach on the subject, "If Jesus was Not the Christ, Who Was He?" Speaking on this subject yesterday, Mr. Fagan said that no logical explanation can be offered for Christ's life in His Deity be denied. During Holy Week an evangelistic campaign will be carried on at the church, with services every evening at 8 o'clock.

IN CHURCHES TOMORROW.

Topics of Interest to be Discussed in Many Local Pulpits.

TO SHOW PASSION PLAY.
WESTLAKE METHODIST.

Special musical services in celebration of Palm Sunday will mark the programme tomorrow morning at the Westlake Methodist Church. In the evening Dr. J. M. Wilkinson will talk on the Passion Play of Oberammergau, accompanying the exhibition of the slides with a lecture. The pictures to be shown were taken by Dr. Wilkinson during the rehearsal of the famous tragedy by the Bavarian peasants in 1910. Dr. Wilkinson is preparing to reproduce the Passion Play in Southern California.

HOME-COMING DAY.
UNITED PRESBYTERIAN.

Tomorrow will be "Home-Coming Day" at the First United Presbyterian Church and all visitors in Los Angeles who are members of this denomination are invited to join with resident members in a joyous reunion. In the morning the service will be a memorial for the congregation's late pastor, Rev. Edwin C. Little. The meeting will be in charge of Dr. J. G. Kennedy of Santa Ana and addresses will be made by Dr. G. A. Briegleb, George C. Hill and Dr. David R. MacDonald.

CAMPAIGN NEARS CLOSE.
WILSHIRE PRESBYTERIAN.

At the end of the first five days of the new building campaign of the Wilshire Presbyterian Church the total was pushed to $40,000. Six days of the time allotted still remain and the sixty workers promise to carry the enterprise to a successful termination by next Wednesday night, when they hope to report the full $60,000 sought in this drive.

A full programme of interesting events is planned for Passion Week. Palm Sunday marks the end of the fiscal year of the church. A grand closing service for the year with a final round-up of all finances will be held tomorrow morning. Dr. John Albert Eby will preach the final sermon in his series on "Springs of Joy," the topic being "The Joy of the Will." There will be a congregational rally and service of thanksgiving at the church Wednesday night, when the termination of the campaign will be celebrated. Good Friday night will be family night, an annual event in this church.

GLEE CLUB TO SING.
FIRST BAPTIST.

The Men's Glee Club of Redlands, which is on a concert tour of the State, will give a free entertainment this evening at the First Baptist Church. Services at the church tomorrow will be in charge of Dr. O. P. Gifford, who will preach in the morning on "Jesus and the Resurrection" and in the evening on "Risen With Christ."

"THE GREAT TRIUMPH."
PLYMOUTH CONGREGATIONAL.

The series of Sunday evening sermons suggested by scenes from the life of Christ will be concluded tomorrow evening by Dr. George A. Andrews at Plymouth Congregational Church. The topic for tomorrow will be "Jesus at the Pharisee's Table." In the morning Dr. Andrews will preach on the subject "The Triumph Worth While" and there will be special music in observance of Palm Sunday. During Holly Week services will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

"THE BETTER PART."
ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN.

The reception of a group of young people by the rite of confirmation and by adult baptism will feature the services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church tomorrow morning, when Rev. J. E. Holck will preach on "Choosing the Better Part." In the evening the junior choir will sing and the pastor will preach on "Now is the Accepted Time." Although St. Paul's is only five years old, having been organized with a charter membership of fifteen, the church has grown until today the membership is more than 100, a new parsonage has been secured and the congregation is free from debt. Extensive arrangements are being made for an elaborate Easter service and next Thursday evening preparatory services will be conducted. Services will also be held Good Friday evening.

"MY MOTHER'S HANDS."
FIRST METHODIST.

"Old Home Night" will be celebrated at the First Methodist Church tomorrow evening and the ideals of America's greatest institution, "Home, Sweet Home," will be presented in song, stories and sermon. All homesick people are extended a special invitation by Dr. Charles Edward Locke, who will preach on "The Place Where I was Born." Among the sermon sub-topics will be "My Mother's Beautiful Hands" and "My Father's Stalwart Heart." Under direction of John A. Van Pelt, a programme of old home songs will be given, among them being "Home, Sweet Home," "My Old Kentucky Home," and "Home Again—America for Me." Dr. Locke has invited Dr. J. M. Peebles to be present and speak on "How It Feels to be Ninety-nine Years Old." The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Christian's Revenge."

REVIVAL AT TRINITY.
DR. SELECMAN TO PREACH.

Dr. C. C. Selecman will open a series of special evangelistic revival services at Trinity Methodist Church tomorrow morning. During the next two weeks services will be held daily at 2:30 p.m. and at 7:45 p.m. A large chorus choir under direction of Thomas Taylor Drill will furnish music for the meetings and solos will be sung by Miss May A. Trude, Mrs. Alma K. Moss, J. Ben Wheatley, G. Haydn Jones and others. A band of personal workers, under the leadership of Richard Davenport, and a membership committee, in charge of C. C. Hooper, will assist Dr. Selecman in the campaign.

MEMBERSHIP INCREASES.
KNOX PRESBYTERIAN.

At the communion service to be held tomorrow morning at Knox Presbyterian church thirty-five members are to be received. This will make eighty members received since Rev. Leslie Logue Boyd was called to the church about a year ago. During the year there have been other marks of progress including the purchase of the lot adjoining the church building for the future expansion of the church and the erection, recently, of a beautiful changeable letter bulletin board. At the evening service the pastor will preach his last sermon in the series on "Christ's Words on the Cross."

CHURCH NOTES.

"The Coming of the King" is the theme of a discourse by Rev. John Knape, D.D., tomorrow morning at the Hollywood Baptist Church. In the evening a six-reel picture entitled "From Manger to Throne" will be shown.

Walker will preach on "The Palm Sunday Pageant and the World Crisis."

Rev. Frank Whiting will preach tomorrow morning at Fenisi Hall, 227 South Main street, and Rev. J. W. Smith from Africa will preach in the evening. There will be special music.

FLAG AT HALF MAST.

High School Mourns Death of Prof. T. A. Magnuson.

The flag at the Los Angeles High School was lowered to half mast yesterday in memory of T. A. Magnuson, one of the faculty, who died at his home Thursday night after a short illness. The R. O. T. C. organization fired a salute, and the flag was lowered to the accompanying strains of the band.

Mr. Magnuson had been out of school exactly a week with influenza. He had been unconscious since Wednesday.

GOES EAST.

Thomas B. Clark, the auctioneer, leaves today for Cleveland, where he and George H. Weighert will hold an oriental rug sale. Mr. Clark expects to be gone three or four weeks.

What Germany's Week-End Revolution May Lead To

The outbreaks and disorders in Germany, some for monarchy and some for Bolshevism, bring up sharply the question whether it is to the best interests of the Allies to enforce upon Germany the terms of the Treaty. A Washington dispatch says a fear is felt in official circles that Russian and German Bolshevism may join hands and drag Europe down into red ruin unless aid is extended. "Simple sagacity, apart from any more generous consideration, sanctions a liberal enforcement of the peace terms," avers the Atlanta Journal, which remarks that "it would be a strange sort of equity that would end the play by plunging the rescued heroine back into calamity rather than spare the villain a pang or two of his sentence."

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week, March 27th, presents a study of American editorial opinion upon the enforcement of the Versailles Treaty, and by reading it the average reader will get an unclouded idea of many problems that confront the Allied nations at the present time.

Particular

We are particular—very particular—in the selection of the meats for Puritan Hams; only a small percentage of the hams we produce is eligible to the Puritan label.

Particular, too, in the preparation of these meats; the curing and smoking requires great skill and much time to give it just the proper tang.

The result is a particularly delicious ham; a fine grained, tender meat, a sweet, zestful flavor.

Be particular when you order ham. Ask for it by name and say "Puritan".

AN EXAMPLE.

The labor-union interests are out after the scalp of Senator Cummins of Iowa because he urged an anti-strike clause in the railway regulation act. Now watch them get it. If they want to make an issue of it, the Hawkeye statesman will be elected by the largest vote he ever had.

MILES'S MEASURE.

Out of about 100,000 votes in the South Dakota primary Miles Poindexter receives some 700 or more. At any rate, he gets more than the regulation half of 1 per cent. This will give an idea of how many jags there are in a bottle of not-yet hops. In Dakota Wood, Lowden and Johnson were running with Poindexter Miles away.

BIG BUYING.

The International Harvester Company has bought 15,000 suits of clothes of the British government and will let its employees have them at $18 apiece. They would cost from $30 to $40 if made to individual measure. Big buying is one way to dig a hole in costs and a number of corporations have undertaken instances of this kind that materially benefit their workers.

RAISING THE RENT.

The New York Assembly will pass a number of measures directed at different phases of rent profiteering. One law slated for passage declares that an advance in rent exceeding 25 per cent. in space of a single year is presumptively oppressive and is forbidden under penalty. It would take a landlord more than three years to double the rent of his tenant under such a law, but as it is he has been doing it in three minutes.

OF LOW BERTH.

The Interstate Commerce Commission permits the Pullman Company to make an average increase of about 20 per cent. in rates. Lower berths are to go higher, but upper ones, although not to go lower, it is understood will not be higher. In fact, they will remain stationary, which will be nice for those who have to sleep in them. By raising the lowers it is expected to even the demand and make people more willing to use the uppers—which seems to be mainly desired by those who travel on their uppers. In Pullman berths the old riddle is reversed. It is a matter of the lower the fewer. There are never enough lower berths to go around.

AT THE BANQUET BOARD.

Since the country became bone dry the public or semi-public banquet has also lost its savor. Men do not care to linger over the table for four or five hours listening to a flock of prolix speeches unless they can be reinforced. Almost every fellow needs to be mellowed a bit by the bubbles in order to fitly appreciate the average dinner-table story. But in England the banquet still has its run and a good story may be in demand. It must be, for one entertainer is advertising in the London Times to syndicate his yarns. He announces that he will furnish a new and smart dinner story every week for ten consecutive weeks for two shillings. Neatly typewritten copy is furnished every Monday morning all ready for a hard week's usage. Banquet orators may save up a month's supply and achieve a reputation for wit in a single evening and have nothing to worry about. It is quite a system, but we are glad that it is several thousand miles away. It makes prohibition easier to realise that the syndicated dinner story is not with us this evening.

WESTERN WONDERS.

Southern California has furnished the world with many wonders during the past few years. The great growth of Los Angeles, the remarkable extension of oil fields, the tremendous development of the motion-picture industry, the revival of San Diego, the winning of Imperial Valley and the upbuilding of our Coast pleasure resorts are among the most notable. But the rest of the West has not stood still. Advances have taken place in Northern California and in the States above it. British Columbia, too, which sends Los Angeles so many winter visitors, has marched rapidly ahead. Its neighbor, Alberta, where men make fortunes farming and then come here to live at ease, also reports amazing progress. On the borders of those two Canadian provinces is famous Jasper Park. A dispatch from Winnipeg says that near the park are coal deposits totaling nearly 30,000,000 tons and so accessible that the fuel can be put on cars as cheaply as gravel can be loaded in a ballast pit. This huge deposit of coal is another western wonder. A lucky prospector stumbled on it over ten years ago when hunting in the shadow of that strangely-shaped peak, Roche Miette. It was found that the deposits stretched over 15,000 acres. The West holds many such surprises as this. As railways and highways are constructed adventurous men, who cannot stand the life of cities, fare forth to the wilds, ever on the lookout for a big strike. In the North there still remain vast unscratched areas which will yield treasures to the intrepid.

Also the Finns have a new Cabinet. The careless kid says it seems to him that what the Finns need is not a new Cabinet, but a refrigerator.

COURTEOUS DRIVING.

Aviators who flew in France were a pretty careful bunch. When any of them grew careless it usually resulted in quick and violent death.

Motor-car drivers in Los Angeles are a careless bunch. We are all traveling too fast, are not watching out for the rights of others and are taking needless chances to gain a few seconds' time. The death string of automobile victims is growing, but the names of the drivers do not always appear in the black-bordered list. The innocent bystander usually gets his name in print.

When an airplane goes out of control there are slow music, flowers and "Taps" for the pilot. When an automobile does the same thing there are smashed fenders, headlights knocked through the radiator, somebody hurt or killed. An automobile out of control is just as dangerous, potentially, as an airplane. And because many motorists do not have complete control of their machines at all times the automobile is referred to as the most deadly mechanical contrivance in America.

We are all driving too fast. This may mean fifty miles an hour on a clear stretch of county highway or it may mean ten or fifteen miles an hour on a crowded corner. Laws can only state a comparatively safe speed. Conditions alone tell whether an automobile is under control or out of control. Questions of "right of way" and "other drivers' mistakes" seldom trouble the man who knows exactly what his own car is going to do.

Nine-tenths of the automobile accidents in Los Angeles are due to selfishness, speed and carelessness. Walking down a street, a gentleman will show courteous consideration of other pedestrians. Driving down the street, this same man would rather split his machine wide open than give way an inch to some less courteous motorist trying to steal the right of way. This very attitude, "I know what my rights are and I'll have 'em or smash up," is keeping a man at the police station busy filling out accident blanks every day in the year. This "fighting for your rights" would be all right in a padded arena, but when the lives of other people are endangered it is a crime, an outrage and must stop. Ordinary courtesy in driving would end this smashing, maiming and killing record more effectually than any laws or traffic squads could ever do.

An automobile association in the East has printed a list of rules for its members as an aid to the safety-first movement. Most interesting are the following:

"Drive as if the other driver was a born idiot.

"Drive as if all children and most pedestrians were bent on suicide beneath your wheels.

"Drive as if every hill has a cavern at the bottom.

"Drive as if every curve was a highwayman, a Bengal tiger and a stone wall."

In other words, drive your machine under such complete control that, no matter what happens or what emergency comes up, you will be able to stay out of trouble. It is a peculiar thing that an ordinarily tame man will climb into an automobile, put a chip on his shoulder and start out ready to fight the world. Looking for trouble is his lengthiest suit and if he finds it he'll cheerfully gallop into the ditch with it.

Selfishness in driving almost always goes hand in hand with too much speed. If a motorist has a chip on his shoulder he is always willing to speed up a little to prove his point. And as speed increases, particularly in a crowded district, complete control of the machine passes completely out. Slowing up on the part of every driver would automatically eliminate the selfish element of danger and there would only remain one factor to contend with—carelessness.

A man can drive an automobile at five miles an hour and get into more trouble and be more of a menace than many a speedier motorist—because of carelessness. Some people pull out from a crowded curb, at a slow rate of speed to be sure, but with an utter and cheerful disregard of all traffic rules and regulations, and immediately get their names in the accident list. Looking behind to see what the other driver is going to do, giving the proper arm signals and showing a careful regard for other motorists are all essential, not matter at what speed you're moving.

The whole thing resolves itself down to courteous driving. The same rules govern us here that control us in business and social life. When you get into a traffic argument and find that the other driver is an old friend you feel foolish and caddish because you've been caught in a discourteous act. A courteous consideration of all other motorists and pedestrians would end this traffic accident snarl.

Many of the worst automobile accidents during the past month have shown that pedestrians are neglecting their responsibilities as well as the motorists. Drivers are frequently brought up against a stiff emergency because of carelessness on the part of a pedestrian. No matter how slowly a machine is traveling, a man dashing across in front of it places himself in needless danger. Sacrificing safety to speed is to be condemned equally in motorists and pedestrians. While there are few laws and regulations governing the movements of people on the streets, there are unwritten rules which, if followed closely, would eliminate many of our worst accidents. Pedestrians should move with the traffic on crowded corners and not try to dash through the passing stream of vehicles. In this way many accidents in which pedestrians are the unfortunate victims and who blame auto drivers, even though they themselves are in the wrong, could be avoided.

The alarming increase in the number of automobile accidents in Los Angeles is a thing which laws and regulations and traffic squads and police forces can never stop. It vitally affects the whole public, and the whole public alone has the power of eliminating accidents. Courteous driving on the part of motorists and courteous attention on the part of pedestrians will end the whole trouble. Nothing else will.

Now the French people are proposing a direct tax on tourists. The curious travelers have been taxed indirectly for about as much as the traffic would bear and now the idea is to make a definite assessment upon the stranger within the gates. Maybe it is only a new form of hospitality—something to make the visitor feel at home. The Americans who have made companions of the income, excess profits and luxury taxes should appreciate this new suggestion.

HIGHER COAL RESULT OF POLITICS IN BUSINESS.

Government regulation of the coal industry has proven even more detrimental to the public interest than government operation of the railroads. An Associated Press dispatch from Washington on March 23 contained the following information:

President Wilson today withdrew government control of the price of bituminous coal so that the 27 per cent. wage advance for miners, recommended by the majority of the coal-strike settlement commission, may be absorbed in the price the consumer will pay after April 1. The commission estimated this wage advance at $200,000,000 a year.

On the following day a Washington dispatch announced that the United Mine Workers of America was taking steps to exclude from membership all members of the American Legion. Such is the return that the Miners' Union makes to the government which has forced the mine operators to give them wage increases averaging 111 per cent. since 1914. The objection to the members of the American Legion is that their loyalty to the Legion and the country would cause them to remain at work if a general strike were to be called.

It will be recalled that Dr. Garfield resigned as Fuel Director three months ago because it became apparent to him that the administration was going to grant to the miners a wage increase which he held to be unjustifiable and against the public interest. He then said that the increase would have to be made up by the consumers of coal, and that it would be paid in the most part by those who could least afford the additional expenditure.

Dr. Garfield's premonitions have been too fully confirmed. The action of the administration is similar to that on the Adamson bill. The increase given to the miners is greater than their increased cost of living. It was secured through the most ruthless strike ever called in this country. The government surrendered, apparently for political reasons, after the strike had been won. The settlement commission was supposedly composed of three members, one representing the Miners' Union, one representing the operators and a third representing the public. But the public, in reality, was not represented at all. The third member was the selection of Democratic politicians, made over the protest of Dr. Garfield, and he was reported in advance to have agreed to a 30 per cent. increase. Dr. Garfield held that a 14 per cent. increase would be a liberal settlement and that any amount above that sum would be paid by the users of coal, who would have no representation.

While the commission estimates the amount of the increase to be $200,000,000 a year, the estimate made by the operators was $350,000,000. The position taken by the mine owners and operators is not very creditable to them, but it was in full accord with the government attitude. They agreed to pay whatever advance the government thought fair, provided they be permitted to add it to the selling price of coal. The result is a settlement that satisfies the mine owners, satisfies the Miners' Union, satisfies the politicians and adds about $300,000,000 annually to the badly swollen cost of living. Allowing interest on the additional capital involved, the increase will amount practically to 30 per cent. to the public on the present price of coal.

With characteristic cowardice, the administration makes no statement as to the increased cost of coal to the consumer. It simply withdraws government control and leaves the odium to fall upon the mine operators. The Socialists and government ownership advocates will point to the rise and cry, "Look what happened when government control was withdrawn! How much better it would have been for the government to have taken over the mines and operated them in the interest of the public." And the ignorant, the gullible and the thoughtless will believe them. It is by such a display of rank demagogy that confidence in American institutions is shaken.

It may be interesting for those who will have to bear the burden to know where the major part of the money will go. Two-thirds of the membership of the Miners' Union is composed of foreigners, few of whom are naturalized. It was estimated in 1914 that the coal miners of America alone were sending $100,000,000 a year of their savings to relatives in Europe. They were then receiving a living wage and were able to accumulate that $100,000,000 a year in addition. The increase which they have now received will enable them to send $250,000,000 a year. It means an additional $150,000,000 withdrawn from investment in this country and sent abroad. Is it to the public interest to deprive itself of that sum to placate the members of the Miners' Union, who are so unpatriotic as to deny membership in their organization to the members of the American Legion?

To be sure, the members of the Legion will be much better off, both morally and financially, outside such an organization. The action of the union is stupid, for it is only hastening the day of its own destruction. It is giving an added reason for legislation penalizing strikes against the public welfare.

How much better it would have been for the government not to have interfered at all! The operators would not have risked bringing public contumely upon their heads by making such an increase in the price of coal if the government had not furnished them both the reason and the excuse. The operators will not suffer from the increase. They have been practically forced into a combination with the Miners' Union against the public interest. They have the justification that it is a condition not of their making. But the public, already groaning under the burdens of high taxes and high prices, is made the goat. The result is simply a repetition of what always occurs when politics gets injected into business. The President includes in his message withdrawing government control a couple of paragraphs warning the operators against profiteering and unlawful combinations to increase prices. Words, mere words! For the government has already forced upon the operators these wage advances making an increase in the price of coal inevitable.

It is announced that the wets are contemplating an overturn of the drys. And it can be done by the wets employing similar methods to those used by the drys when they overturned the wets—a constitutional amendment. And that is not as easy as it looks.

ARABIAN ADVENTURE.

Ancient empires of what Europeans call the Near East, which is more distant from California than the Far East, are now engaging attention. Many of the older generation of Americans first became acquainted with those historic lands through reading the Bible. Since the exclusion of that book from the schools information about them has been "scrappy," as far as American public school pupils are concerned. At the present time Syria and its troubles are to the fore. A cablegram states that sanguinary troubles between Christians and Moslems in Syria are expected as a result of a boycott declared against France and England by Emir Feisal, newly-elected King of Syria. The Emir Feisal is a son of the King of the Hedjaz and was on the side of the Allies during the war. He appears, however, to have adopted autocratic tactics in obtaining the throne of Syria, a committee of Greater Lebanon charging that he convened the "self-appointed assembly which proclaimed him king." It is evident that the Emir and his father have planned to erect a great Arab state which shall include not only the region which the Turks called Syria, but also Palestine, Lebanon and other regions which were governed separately under the Ottoman rule. Their ambitions are opposed by the Supreme Council and also by many of the Christians of Syria. These latter, before the war, numbered at least one-fifth of the population and comprised the majority of the educated portion of the people.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

BACK TO NORMAL.

We won't get back to normal ways until we've had some rainy days.
So long as roubles grow on trees and greenbacks wave in every breeze, we'll hit high places and repeat and scorch the length of Easy street.
We can't be prudent while the rest are blowing money galley west.
It's epidemic, like the flu,
this gorgeous spendthrift howdydo.
Some day a panic, large and pale,
with four white feet and braided tail, will land upon us while we spend and to our orgy put an end.
Then you will see men out of jobs, and you will hear the housewives' sobs;
and you will mark the loan sharks thrive, while others scarce can keep alive. Then we'll quit blowing useful coin for canvasback and tenderloin, and thank our gods if we've the price of wholesome liver off the ice. And we'll cut out the silk attire, the princely tips, the chauffeur's hire, and all the costly pomp and rain and demonstrate that we are sane. Then every sad and chastened gent will ponder ere he spends a cent, and figure for a weary time before he cuts loose from a dime. WALT MASON.

BILL THE BURGLAR.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

"Was it you who broke into that Hollywood cellar and got away with a jug of cider?" said I, in greeting our old friend, Bill the Burglar, as he was descending the City Hall steps.

"Not me," answered the burglar. "I never would go to Hollywood looking for cider. Out in this country we don't get the juice of the apple in the home of the peach."

"Pity 'tis, 'tis true," responded I. "But what have you been doing in our municipal palace? Do you have to take out a license to practice your profession or have you been subsidizing our fearless officials?"

"Neither one," responded Bill, amiably. "I'm trying to keep as far away as I can from the grand jury."

"Well, you are three blocks away at this minute, but that is no sign you can stay there," retorted I. "Why don't you and Jimmy break into politics and legalize your work?"

"We're not looking for notoriety," answered Bill. "In fact, we're keeping under cover as much as possible. No press agent stuff for me."

"You don't have to be notorious to be in politics," retorted I. "You can run for Vice-President in a set of gum shoes and if you get elected you can be as peaceful and exclusive as the star boarder at the Old Ladies' Home."

"Not if you're on the ticket with William Dandruff Hearst," argued the burglar. "Then you'd get your name in the paper and be dodging the grand jury every day."

"So you're thinking about hooking up with Billious Hearst, are you?" continued I. "What party?"

"Tall, thin party, I believe," answered Bill.

"No! I mean which political party—Democrat or Republican?"

"We haven't decided yet," responded the burglar. "Probably a party of our own."

"With a confidence man at one end of the ticket and a burglar at the other you would have what might be called a well-balanced ticket. It wouldn't make much difference which way it ran, backward or forward. You could have a ouija board for a platform and the Japs for an issue. You might have a Hearst slogan—He kept us out of breath.' But what are you going to do with Hiram Johnson? I thought your friend Hearst would rather boost for him than for himself."

"Mostly guff," countered the burglar. "This Johnson is due for the decoration of the double-cross. Hearst is a cracker-jack plunger for William Randolph Hearst, but not much for anybody else. If he says he is for Johnson, why, Johnson better copper the bet. He is due for a jolt. You ought to know by this time that nobody can run this country to suit Hearst but a tall party of the same name. He'd sink the harpoon into his own twin if it gave him a piece of glory. His idea of good business for the nation is to have wars with England and Japan going at the same time and in the meantime take over Mexico as an oil station. He is in favor of a separate treaty which would give Milwaukee and St. Louis to Germany and allow a million-dollar pension to the Kaiser."

"What are you knocking your friends for?" ejaculated I. "That's no way of talking about an old pal. If you're going to be side partners in politics you don't want to be running down the other half of the sketch. You're behaving just as you say of Bill. Supposing he turns you down? He's liable to hook up with Hiram Johnson for Vice-President yet, and then where will you light? You'll be left without a boon companion or a party. You might have to go back to burglary to make a living."

"Well, at that, it might be worse," returned Bill. "Maybe I'd rather be an honest and self-respecting burglar than a haughty politician with a crooked back and a chloroformed conscience. Maybe I don't want any office, anyhow. Maybe I'd rather separate some tired millionaire from the $100 he'd never miss than bunko the whole country by grabbing a job that I wasn't fit for. Have you ever been through this plant?" added the burglar, pointing back at the City Hall.

"Sure," said I. "The last time I was trying to get a job for a friend."

"Of course, you were," retorted the burglar. "That's what people go there for—to get jobs for friends, and how many men are there there who just fit the jobs they have?"

"Oh, well," exclaimed I, apologetically. "It won't do to be too particular. Maybe they do the best they can."

"That's just the trouble," continued Bill. "The best they have is none too good—in fact, it is punk, but because they are working for the public and not for me or you they get away with it. Maybe they are anchored for life to some dinky little job that isn't worth standing room in Hades. If they were pried loose and should give the same work and thought to something of their own they would land on both feet among the pansies and have something worth while. As between burglary and holding an office for which you are not fit, give me burglary every time."

"Doggone you! Bill," exclaimed I. "You're not as crazy as you look. At the same time, if you want to run for Vice-President with Billious Hearst I will say that the tail of the ticket would average up mighty well with the head."

"Nothing to it," replied the burglar. "I'm trying to tell you that he is no comrade of mine. I promised my poor old mother——"

"Oh, piffle!" exclaimed I, with scorn. "Don't tell me that you promised your mother never to run for Vice-President. No mother could be thoughtful enough for that."

The committee headed by Senator Fall is collecting a lot of facts in regard to conditions in Mexico that may be utilized by the coming Republican administration at Washington. There is nothing to be learned by President Wilson or his advisers.

Saturday Store Hours

This store is open on Saturday from 9:00 to 5:30, as on every business day. We do not advertise Sundays.

The Entire Store is Gay With New and Lovely Things

Every Woman Is Asking—"What Will Be Worn For Spring"

The spring tailleur is of course of first importance; for what is Spring without a new suit? There are jaunty youthful Etons, a new version of a long splendid line; smart tailor-mades with a slightly longer coat and a nip-in effect at the waist—and box coats with countless new details of embroidery, string belts and vestees. These are variously developed in tricotine, serge, Poiret twill, mixtures, checks, velours, and are selling at $49.50, $55.00, $65.00, $70.00, $82.50 and $92.50.

For the Woman of Full Figure

We have made a careful study of the new fashions as related to her; and are prepared to present suits that through the most slenderizing lines and the smartest style features best establish the mode for her.

Every detail that connotes youthfulness, every feature of tailoring that assures ease and grace has been emphasized. The garments have been designed and fashioned for full figures of varied proportions, for all occasions—of serges, tricotines, striped mannish materials; and are ready for immediate Springtime wear, at..$50, $69.50, $72.50, $98.50

The Springtime Frocks

Are bouffant and draped of taffeta; satin dresses with harem skirts, and straightline tricolettes, wool embroidered. Short sleeves, square necks and trimmings of pleats and flounces characterize these charming gowns, which may be had in kitten's ear crepe, charmeuse satins, crepe meteor, taffetas, tricolettes, Georgette, tricotine, serge and jersey. Prices begin at $49.50; thence to $89.50.

Cotton Frocks—voiles and organdies, plain or printed; embroidered, tucked and trimmed with lace; or in the simple dotted Swiss dresses, are moderately priced here at $20.00 to $35.00.

For Sports Wear

Garments are more picturesque and "Sporty" than ever. Saucy little suits flaunt coats with straightline skirts, often accordion pleated; with a gay bit of silk or braid revealed at waist or belt.

Whatever your sport—yachting, tennis, walking, golfing—you will find here a coat or suit for it.

Velvet Jackets—are pearl button trimmed or braided; and finished, some of them, with leather belts; priced at .....$39.50 to $47.50

Wrappy Capes—in smart draped effects in velour of vivid colors, lined throughout, at $69.50

(Third Floor)

The Separate Coat

Styles are all full, so that they may be worn over the softest and fluffiest of the new bouffant and draped dresses.

Well fitting shawl collars, string belts, button trimmings and novelty silk linings are details given great importance. Some extremely distinguished models in blue, brown or tan, have been given a surprisingly low price-mark $98.50

In Three-quarter Lengths—velours, flossglow, Polo and duvetyn appear to best advantage; in new shades, and may be had at..$28.50 to $105.00

Tax Reductions

There is a heavy tax on our income to meet the Government's running expenses, and interest on the public debt. This tax we all must, can, and do meet.

There is another tax which money will not discharge—the tax on our physical system from stagnation of food waste. Its name is Constipation. It burdens us and makes sluggish a system otherwise perfectly healthy.

Nujol will fully clear this tax. Nujol will keep the poisonous waste moving out of the body by this entirely new principle—it works on the waste matter instead of on the system. Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take—try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in bottles only, bearing Nujol trade mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger."

DEATH COMES TO FUNERAL PARTY

Woman Killed En Route from Husband's Burial.

Long Beach Resident to Erect Tent City.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, March 26.—Mrs. J. L. Rodgers, 57 years old, of 304 East Eighth street, this city, was fatally injured last night when a Pacific Electric car struck the automobile in which she was riding at Rivera, near Whittier. Mrs. Rodgers was en route from Long Beach to Sierra Madre after attending the funeral services of her husband here yesterday afternoon, when the accident occurred.

E. B. Funkhouser, of 319 East Seventh street, local painting contractor, who was driving the machine, was seriously injured, sustaining a fractured collar bone, several broken ribs, severe bruises and lacerations. The only other occupant of the car was Mrs. Funkhouser, who escaped with slight bruisers.

Mrs. Rodgers was taken to the Whittier Hospital following the accident, where she died from her injuries a few hours later. Mr. and Mrs. Funkhouser were brought to their home in this city by a passing motorist.

Mrs. Rodgers's late husband, John L. Rodgers, 78 years old, died Sunday night. Funeral services were held for Mr. Rodgers at the Byrum, Brunscher & Baker parlors yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Rodgers sustained a fractured skull, a broken arm and a fracture of both limbs, in addition to deep cuts on the head and face. She died without regaining consciousness. The automobile is a total wreck.

TENT CITY.

Long Beach City Commissioners today granted Mrs. May Evelyn Hart permission for the erection on Venetion Square in the industrial district a new $75,000 tent city. Approximately fifty small homes will be erected at once on the site.

PAINTER INJURED.

Arthur J. Winkler, local sign painter, suffered the fracture of the bones in both heels this afternoon when he landed on his feet on the cement sidewalk after a fall of twenty feet from a ladder. He was erecting a sign on the corner of Fourth street and Pine avenue when a strong gust of wind overbalanced him and he fell from the ladder. He will be confined to his bed for several weeks.

DEFER BAND DISPUTE.

SANTA MONICA, March 26.—According to a decision finally reached by the Commissioners today, the controversy over the band situation will rest until July. The band, which will be under the leadership of Signore Tommassino, will present part of its programmes at Ocean Park and part of them in North Santa Monica. Whether this will continue after July is the question before the city.

Concerts will start early in April.

HOOVER CLUB AT PASADENA.

Boosters for California Man Organize for Action.

Rain Stops Picnic of Wealthy Eastern Visitors.

Crown City Woman Celebrates Hundredth Birthday.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, March 26.—The Hoover Republican Club of Pasadena, to urge Herbert C. Hoover for the Republican nomination for President, was organized at an enthusiastic meeting of prominent Pasadena Republicans held late today at room 214 Dodworth Building.

It was decided to affiliate with the State Hoover Republican organization and to organize here systematically on the "group plan," forming grocers, clothiers, bakers, doctors, lawyers and other groups into a great club for Hoover. Headquarters will be established.

William F. Knight was elected chairman of the club; Mrs. T. A. Bell, vice-chairman, and Garfield R. Jones, secretary.

More than fifty Republicans of the city attended the organization meeting.

RAIN BLOCKS PICNIC.

A heavy rain and hail prevented the fashionable eastern social colony at the Hotel Huntington from holding its big picnic in Fish Canyon planned for today. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Monroe of Chicago were to have been hosts and eighteen men of the party, all of them millionaires and prominent in eastern financial and business circles, had volunteered to prepare and cook the picnic dinner. All the members of the party were disappointed when the picnic could not be held. No new date has been announced.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD.

Mrs. Anna Woodward Hakes was receiving congratulations on her one-hundredth birthday today at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Milo C. Treat, 98 North El Molino avenue. Mrs. Hakes was born in Preston, Ct., March 26, 1830, the descendant of Connecticut pioneers. She married Henry B. Hakes in 1840, and they lived many years in Worcester, Mass., where Mr. Hakes was an official of a great plow factory. Mrs. Hakes has been a member of the Baptist church all her life, and a fine tribute to her life was paid today by Mrs. Seldon W. Cummings, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

ROTARY CLUB ORGANIZED.

At the organization of the Rotary Club of Pasadena today, H. G. Chaffee was elected president; Harold Landreth, vice-president; C. J. Hill, secretary; Francis V. Baer, treasurer. They, with H. L. Miller, W. F. Crellar, J. M. Cole and Reginald Johnson, will be the directors.

ALL-YEAR HOTEL NAMED.

The "Hotel Pasadena" will be the name of the all-year hotel to be conducted by the California Hotel Company in the east wing of the Hotel Green, and the new hotel will be established late in April, when the Green's season closes. Heretofore the east wing has always been a part of the Hotel Green, connected with it by an arched passageway over Raymond avenue. Announcement of the name and time for opening the new hotel was made today by J. B. Coulston, president and manager of the California Hotel Company. Robert J. Reid, the popular resident manager of the Green, will conduct the Hotel Pasadena.

A private collection of exceptional merit, Chinese and Japanese porcelains, antiques, embroideries, costumes, furniture, rugs, etc., is offered for sale. 400 Arroyo Terrace, Pasadena. Phone Fair Oaks 468.—[Advertisement.

SCHOOLS BENEFIT UNDER WOMAN'S WILL.

ACCIDENT VICTIM PROVIDES FOR PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. COURT PROTECTS BEACH.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, March 26.—The University of Redlands, the W.C.T.U. of Southern California, and the First Baptist Church of Santa Ana are among institutions to receive bequests under the will on file for probate here today, of Mrs. Sallie D. Hall, 73, who was killed in an automobile accident on March 3, each receiving $500. The Baptist Theological Seminary of Kansas City, Kan., receives $6000 and $2000 goes to her son, R. H. Hall of Santa Ana, who also is to receive $150 a month from the remainder of the $62,000 estate, which is to be managed by four trustees.

PROTECT OCEAN BEACH.

Ocean frontage property at Laguna Beach to the value of many thousands of dollars heretofore used for park and other public purposes, must remain so used and cannot be built upon so as to obstruct the view of residence there, according to an opinion handed down today by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams in the famous Seaview case brought by Frank A. Phillips, Amelia H. Keech, Esther H. Rounthwaite, and Alice D. Seeley against the Laguna Beach Company of which H. G. Heisler is now principal owner.

SOCIETY LEADERS IN ACTOR'S ROLE.

COMING OUT OF MISS GRAHAM MOST GORGEOUS EVENT OF SEASON.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, March 26.—Society gathered at Bellosguardo, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mines Graham here, for the coming out of Miss Geraldine Graham, tonight. Three one-act plays served as the vehicle for the elaborate function. The scenes for each play were arranged by Albert Herter, Norman Bridge and Robert Snow. The affair is one of the most elaborate society functions given so far this season.

All the participants in the plays are members of the social set. The plays and the casts were:

"The "Shepherd in the Distance," a pantomime in black and white, by Holland Hudson. The cast: A Voice, Charles W. Dabney; the Princess, Margaret Waterman Canby; her attendant, Katherine Harvey; her slaves, Mrs. Hastings Arnold, Cornelia Kemper; the Waxies, Wenzell Kuhn; the Vizier, J. L. Langdon Erving; the Nubian Slave, Reginald Fernald; Guri-Wuri, the beggar, Huron Rock; the Shepherd, Elliot Rogers; the Goat, Duncan Lewis Edwards; the Maker of Sounds.

"The Chinese Nightingale," a poem in tapestries, by Vachel Lindsay. The cast: A passer-by, E. Kendall Rogers; Chinese laundryman, Harry L. Brainard; the Princess, Marion Craig Wentworth; the Joss, Alexander C. Soper; Voice of the Nightingale, Mrs. Stephen Gates.

"Gandharie" (the Hindu Maid), a scheme from the East. In the picture: Queen Pirouze, Mrs. Preston Gibson; fruit bearers, Mrs. Robert Rowan, Miss Dorothy Fithian; Al-Tiyakah, Dewitt Parshall; Abd-Al-Samad, Harry L. Brainard; peacock bearers, Mrs. Edward Hicks Carle, Mrs. Carey Weston; an acrobat, J. Erickson; Gandharie, Geraldine Graham.

VETERANS HAVE PAY DAY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SOLDIERS' HOME, March 26.—Total amount of pensions for this quarter for veterans of the home, when payment by checks through mail to members on furlough is finished, will be in excess of $260,000, of which amount the sum of $186,-$18.41 is already paid in cash to members present. Most of the latter amount was deposited in Sawtelle banks or in the money order office of the local postoffice.

NEW ROBBERY CONFESSION.

Second of Gang Accused of Chinatown Plot Implicates Policemen, Women.

Mrs. Elliott then called in the police officers, it is asserted, but despite their carefully-laid plans, their scheme suddenly collapsed with the arrests of the three men and the two women.

Police officers who searched the city for a trace of White and his wife stated late yesterday that he must have fled. Telegrams were dispatched last night to all nearby cities and to the Mexican border, asking that the couple be arrested if located. Chief Home declared they will be unable to escape the net that he has thrown out.

Following the confession made yesterday by Childs, Chief Home declared he had enough evidence against all persons implicated in the robbery to secure complaints charging highway robbery. He stated that he can prove that the whole affair was a carefully planned attempt to loot Chintatown of about $30,000 in gold and to sieze a large quantity of opium thought to be concealed in the house raided. The bandits, according to Chief Home, did not have correct information either as to the amount of money or as to the drugs.

CRIME RECONSTRUCTED.

According to Chief Home, the plot to rob the Chinamen was first hatched in the apartments of Mrs. Jessie Elliott and Miss Brown. They were given the information by the Chinaman. Patrolman O'Gara was next called in and in turn he secured Mortimer. White and Childs were then told of the plot. They both discussed the matter in the Elliott apartments, the police say, with Miss Brown and Mrs. White.

The party left the Elliott home in two automobiles, the police declare, O'Gara and Mrs. Elliott in one machine and Mortimer, White and Childs in the other. Miss Brown is believed by the police to have gone with O'Gara and the Elliott woman. While Mortimer and his party drove to the Chinese house the other party attempted to find Patrolman Torres to lure him from his beat; they failed to find the officer and he watched the entire raid from across the street, believing that members of the police purity squad were making a raid, according to the police version of the affair.

As soon as Patrolmap Torres had learned that the affair was a hold-up and had notified Lieut. McIntosh, a Chinaman who had opened the door of the house for the bandits was arrested. He stated he had been hired to open the door by the Chinaman who is now being sought. Then Mortimer was taken into custody at his house and the rest of the suspects were rounded up. Then followed Mortimer's confession and the statement by Childs.

Late yesterday afternoon the police learned that Childs was arrested by Detectives Hickok and Erven early in 1915. He was charged with grand larceny, but was never convicted.

Before leaving the station late yesterday afternoon, Chief Home declared that with more complete statements from Childs and with Mortimer's confession he would be able to connect all the prisoners with the hold-up and secure convictions of robbery when the cases come to trial.

WOMAN SLAIN IN HER HOTEL.

that might have been left there by the assassin, but none was found, the detectives said.

Under the personal direction of Chief of Police Home and Captain of Detectives Moffat, Detective Sergeants Ziegler, Yarrow, O'Brien, Winn, Blue and Fitzgerald are working on the case. The body was taken to the mortuary of Alvarez and Blue at the request of Miss Pget. Funeral arrangements will be made today.

FIVE WOUNDED IN STREET BATTLE.

UNARMED MEN REPEL ATTACK OF BANDITS; TWO SUSPECTS ARE JAILED.

As an aftermath of a free-for-all knife battle between two hold-up men and four Mexicans, five of the men were treated at the Receiving Hospital late last night, and one, Jose Esparsa, of 1212 Goytino place, will probably die.

Four of the men were returning to their homes from a Mexican theater on North Main street. They were Esparsa, Manuel Moreno, 617 North Bunker Hill; Sevano Belasco, 512 Bordenni street; and Sam Consentino, 512 Goytino place. At Ord and Castelar streets two men stepped out of the shadows and, with knives drawn, ordered the four men to surrender their money. Instead, the quartette attacked the hold-up men with their band hands. The two bandits escaped, and the four friends were taken to the Receiving Hospital to have severe slashes on their bodies dressed.

Half an hour later, attracted by three shots, Patrolman Dorn ran to 828 Castelar street, where he found two men huddled in a bathroom. One was badly cut and beaten up. The two also were taken to the Receiving Hospital and identified as the hold-up men. They gave their names as Jose Bran, 434 Ducommon street, and George Lopez, 813 Vignes street. Bran's left arm and hand were slashed badly. The two were locked in the City Jail on charges of highway robbery.

POLICE OFFICIALS PREVIEW PICTURE.

A special preview of Leroy Scott's police story, "Partners of the Night," was given yesterday by Fred Miller, with a number of police officials in attendance. Only they were present in the projection room, and it is stated that when, at the conclusion, they were asked to express an opinion of the merits of the plot they unanimously agreed that it was no exaggeration, that incidents in their own lives were as strangely dramatic as those shown on the screen.

Among those present were Capt. Robert Le Heath, commanding University police division; Capt. James McDowell, commanding the police traffic bureau; Capt. David L. Adams, commanding the Hollywood division; Capt. John L. Butler, commanding police statistical bureau; Lieut. Richard Hilf, in charge of the police school; Capt. James Chapman, commanding the Lincoln Heights division, and Capt. Robert S. Haupt, in charge of the Boyle Heights division.

"NAUGHTY WIFE" NEXT PLAY AT MOROSCO.

The production of Bayard Veiller's new play "The Kind-Hearted Burglar," has been postponed until Oliver Morosco arrives here from the East, according to word received from Morosco in New York, the producer is desirous of personally supervising the rehearsal of Veillers' new play. As a result of the change in programme the next play at the Morosco will be Fred Jackson's successful comedy "The Naughty Wife."

NEW FILM FEATURE

A new feature picture, "The Confession," is to be presented April 5, at Clune's Auditorium. It is said to involve a number of tense dramatic situations built on the theme of love and devotion.

CHILDREN'S MATINEE.

A special school children's matinee of "Pollyanna" is to be given today at 10 a.m. The picture is one that has an especial appeal for youngsters, as it reveals Mary Pickford in a child role, with many clever kiddies of the screen in the cast.

FOR MINING MAN.

Funeral services will be held at the Bresee mortuary, this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, for William Reid, pioneer mining man of Arizona and California, who died at his home in San Bernardino after a brief illness. He leaves a widow and daughter.

SHAM SEA BATTLE TODAY.

All the thrills and none of the dangers of a great modern sea battle, with vaudeville and dancing as side attractions, are open to the general public today at the naval reserve force day celebration at the United States Submarine Base at Los Angeles Harbor. The celebration, which was planned to inaugurate an annual get-together for the regular navy and the 15,000 members of the Naval Reserve in Southern California, will begin at 9 a.m. and continue till late at night. Only members of the Naval Reserve will be allowed on board the submarines, but all the spectacular events will be open to everybody.

The big feature is to be a realistic sham battle in which submarines, submarine chasers and hydroplanes will participate. The underwater boats of division 6 of the submarine force will submerge in battle formation and "attack" the submarine chasers. Naval aircraft then will attack the submarines.

Beginning at 9 o'clock, visitors will be allowed to inspect the submarine chasers, the U.S.S. Alert and the former German submarine UB-88. After that the sham battle will take place. Throughout the day boats will take visitors to inspect the battleship Idaho.

At 1 p.m. a programme of sports will begin, including a baseball game between the Submarine Base team and the Los Angeles All-Stars, two baseball games between teams representing the Idaho and the Base, several boxing bouts and a pie-eating contest.

Continuous motion pictures will be shown in the auditorium, beginning at 4 p.m., and at 6:30 p.m. vaudeville talent from the Idaho and the Base will present their best and worst. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

Capt. Chauncey Shackford, commander of the Base, has made arrangements to entertain a large crowd. Lunch stands will be on the grounds. Special cars direct to the Base will start from Fifth and San Pedro streets.

The Chamber of Commerce will be officially represented at the observance by Lieutenant-Commander Morgan Adams and Lieutenant-Commander Frank R. Grosse, who are the naval representatives on the chamber's Military and Naval Affairs Committee. A general invitation has been extended to all chamber members to visit the harbor today.

JAIL-BREAK ATTEMPT FAILS.

Three alleged members of the bandit gang that held up and robbed the manager of the Vermont branch of the Home Savings Bank made a vain attempt to escape from the County Jail yesterday, according to a report made by Capt. Gallagher, the jailer. J. B. Loving, a turnkey, reported that he was unable to unlock the cell of Bert Edwards, Charles Scott and Roy Pierce, who were confined in the "emergency" tank. An investigation disclosed that meat had been poked into a large padlock, apparently to get an impression of the lock, and that a staple had been partly sawed off.

Further investigation showed a vain attempt to cut a square out of a sheet metal side of the cell.

Yesterday when the three and Joe Carney were taken onto the bridge between the Hall of Justice and the jail, Edwards was forced to remove his hat. In it the jailers found several pieces of wire, with which it was thought he intended trying to force a lock there.

The four pleaded not guilty in Judge Willis's court and their trials were set for April 27.

The futility of the attempt of the three to escape was shown by the fact that they would also have had to open a large double lock, even after removing the large padlock.

WAGNER-LISZT CONCERT.

SYMPHONY ORCESTRA DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE.

By Jeanne Redman.

The Wagner - Liszt programme, given yesterday afternoon by the Los Angeles Symphony, attracted a house of unusual size at Clune's Auditorium. The only symphony to have been composed by Richard Wagner was the piece de resistance of the performance. The work was written when the composer was but 19 years of age, and shows the strong influences of Mozart and Beethoven on the young composer's mind.

Wagner himself says that he had not yet begun to feel his wings, and consequently the work carries but little of the real composer, as we know him now, and as he was beautifully represented yesterday afternoon in Adolph Tandler's interpretation of the "Forest Murmurs," from "Siegfried" and the "Magic Fire" from "The Walkyrie." These gorgeous bits from the operas had their effect upon the audience, which responded warmly to the emotional atmosphere which is invariably to be derived from a successful rendition of the master of all opera.

Desider Josef Vecsei, pianist, was the soloist, and played Liszt's Concerto in A Major. Vecsei is a favorite with the orchestra audiences, and Liszt is the composer above all others who affords the best opportunity for the brilliant manner of playing for which Vecsei is distinguished.

The Liszt cadenzi and arpeggi, and the extensive octave passages are accomplished with the utmost facility and clarity, and the pianist was encored and applauded extensively. He responded to the persistent demands with "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn-Liszt.

Dr. Norman Bridge made the announcement that the Symphony Orchestra Association has under consideration a list of compositions by local composers, from which choice will be made for performance at the last popular concert of the season, to take place on May 16, and which will be for the purpose of pensions for orchestral players who are and have been members of the Symphony organization.

RUSSIANS CHARM IN VARIED PROGRAMME.

A programme of Russian music was presented at Trinity Auditorium Thursday evening by three Slav musicians, two of whom were heard for the first time here in public concert. Ilya Bronson is well known to us as the first 'cellist of the Philharmonic Orchestra; Mme. Ariadna Roumanova is a young pianist and composer, graduate of the Conservatory of Petrograd, and Miss Clara Pasvolsky is a singer who comes to the Coast from recent concerts in New York, and whose performances are much enhanced by the national Russian costume which she wears while interpreting the songs of her country. Mrs. Hennion Robinson, popular and efficient accompanist, assisted the singer.

Bronson is a virtuoso of experience, and consequently he lent an air of concert finish to the performance, while the two women provided a naive atmosphere and a charming element of refreshment.

Bronson and Mme. Roumanova played the Rubinstein Sonata in D Major, among the most intimately Russian of that composer's works of somewhat international quality. Bropson was encored after his group of four shorter pieces, which included, Cui, Glazounow, Tschaikowsky and Dadivoff, and he responded with the Melody in F of Rubinstein. His playing is expressive of the Russian emotional nature, but always well restrained and dignified to a point which precludes an overdose of the "heart interest."

Mme. Roumanova gave a Paraphrase from "Eugene Onegin," arranged by Pabst, and which is rather too ornamental and bombastic. The pianist is more enjoyable in her tenderer moods, which are very touching and effective. She has a light and fanciful style, and is better in works which do not demand a tremendous force of climaxes. Her own fantasie of Russian folk themes for 'cello, which was played and arranged by her with the assistance of Bronson, was very attractive.

Miss Pasvolsky is thoroughly in accord with her songs, and her interpretations are unique and true to their Russian origin. Her voice is a light contralto. She uses it with considerable portamento, but it has a strong dramatic quality. She sang a Tschaikowsky group, a Dargomynsky and two very lovely songs of Moussorgsky, for which she was heartily applauded by a moderately large audience which greeted the Russians.

FLASHES.

PEGGY SAYS FAREWELL.

WILL MAKE FILM IN ENGLAND AND THE ORIENT.

By Grace Kingsley.

Peggy Hyland, star of Samuelson Productions, will leave tomorrow for New York, and England, whence later on she will make a trip to the Orient. She will be accompanied by her maid. Included in the plans for Miss Hyland's tour is the production of at least two pictures while in the Far East.

Following Miss Hyland's departure within a fortnight or so, Mr. Samuelson, who owns the largest picture studio in England, and Peggy's director, Fred Granville, with certain members of her company, the cameraman and others, will leave to join the star in London. Here, at the London studios, the interiors of the Hyland stories will be made, viz., "Desert Dreams," by Kathlyn Rhodes, and another entitled "Cairo Queen." For the exteriors the company will go to Egypt. Here it is expected that some gorgeous effects will be obtained.

The star has just completed making the film version of Augusta Evans Wilson's "At the Mercy of Tiberius," under direction of Fred Granville, and those who have been privileged to peep at the film declare it is quite up to the excellent Samuelson standard. The First National Exhibitors circuit is negotiating for the picture, they having already bought the first Samuelson picture made here, in which Madge Titheridge and other well-known English players are starred.

Mr. Samuelson expects to return here in the fall, when he will erect a studio, but Miss Hyland's company will probably be gone nearly a year.

When she returns she will build a residence on a lot which she owns in Hollywood.

Miss Hyland's home is in England, and while there she will visit her mother, who will accompany her on her trip to the Orient.

Hart's Latest.

A pre-view of William S. Hart's latest picture, "The Toll-Gate," given at Grauman's last Thursday night, revealed it to be, in the opinion of the critics present, the best picture which Mr. Hart has ever done. It is fresh in treatment, and in the feature Mr. Hart shows, by the adroitness of presentation of the various phases of his story, the result of his long experience. The plot tells of a bandit, who reforms, and while this does not sound new, the vividness of the story, its original twists and its utter humanness, make it one of the most absorbing of the year.

Anna Q. Nilsson as leading woman, and tiny "Dick," the baby, also do some telling work.

Washburn's Ordeal.

Like a scene from a photodrama was that enacted at the home of Bryant Washburn, last night, when the actor underwent the operation known as blood transfusion whereby his own blood was injected into the veins and arteries of his infant son. The little one has been ill a long time, and it was finally decided that the transfusion was necessary. Mr. Washburn will probably be laid up for a couple of days.

Terriss Engages Star.

Marguerite de la Motte has been engaged by Tom Terriss, Vitagraph director, for the first of his Tom Terriss Productions.

Hart Buys Home.

William S. Hart has purchased a home in Hacienda Park, Hollywood, and on his return from location in the course of a couple of days he expects to move into it, with his sister, Mary Hart. The house is attractively built in old English style.

TOMORROW NIGHT—"A DOLLAR DOWN," BY JOHN R. BLACKWOOD.

Stanford's Husky Warriors to Try Their Mettle Against Trojan Sinew This Afternoon.

ALL EYES ON BOVARD FIELD.

Stanford to Swoop Down on the Trojans Today.

Dopesters Look Upon Visitors as a Sure Thing.

Ah, Ha! But There may be Some Surprise Party.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

The heavy mist which has been oozing for the past few days resulted in the postponement of two major league track meets scheduled for today.

The annual southern conference tilt, to have been held on Alumni Field at Claremont, has been put over until April 10, because a goodly portion of the Sagehen's track washed into the San Gabriel River bed.

The City League meet, trial heats in which were to have been run yesterday on the Occidental Field, will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday on the Patterson oval.

ON BOVARD FIELD.

The only thing left in the way of amusement for the followers of track and field is the U.S.C.-Stanford dual affair on Bovard Field this afternoon, starting at 2:30. This is plenty, provided another wet spell doesn't gum up the Trojan running paths. Trainer Dean Cromwell of U.S.C., said last night the meet will positively be held if it is clear this morning.

While U.S.C. is not expected to offer Stanford serious competition in the matter of winning the meet the Hopefiers believe the Trojans have first place in the 100, 220, 440 and 880-yard races and discus and shot cinched.

UP TO PADDOCK.

The Cardinal and Gold rooters can't see anything but victory for Charley Paddock in the century and furling in spite of the touting which Coach Maloney has given Morris Kirksey, the Stanford superman. The race in the hundred alone should be worth going miles to see. Nine and four-fifths seconds in this dash would not be at all surprising.

No one can see how Kirksey has a ghost of a chance in the 220. His mark of 21 4-5s. doesn't shape up with that 23s. made by Paddock on the sharp curves of Bovard Field last Saturday, and Charley slowed up after he caught the Bear speedsters on the first turn.

LITTLE KINGPIN.

The quarter will find Schofield of Stanford stacked up against George Schiller, that little kingpin who ran the fastest 440 ever negotiated on the U.S.C. field in 49 4-5s. The Cardinal man's best mark is 51s.

Carlsmith is the Stanford bet in the half mile. He is credited with 1m. 2s., but he was beaten easily by Watts of California, last year and the latter ate Wilson of U.S.C.'s cinders last week.

Westwick and Karkeil are the Cardinal milers. The former has made it in 4m. 24s. and the latter in 4m. 42s. Noel George will have to travel to keep up with these birds.

MONEY'S WORTH.

The paid spectators should get their money's worth in the high jumping and pole vaulting events. Breen of Stanford made 12ft. 1in. against Pomona and Redlands last week and has the possibilities of a world champion in his lanky frame. In the leaping event without the pole, Green and Templeton are both good for over six feet. The bar probably won't mount this high unless the sons of the Stanford Red elect to stage a little exhibition for there is no Trojan athlete with the power to get above 5ft. 9in.

Green and Gillespie, the Cardinal discus flickers, may give the bulky Mr. Evans of U.S.C. a heated battle for first in this event.

Bob Weaver, president of the Southern Pacific branch of the A.A.U., who returned recently from the East, will be back on his old job of getting the straining runners from their marks.

PALO ALTO, March 26.—The Stanford varsity track team of sixteen men left here tonight for Los Angeles, where it will compete tomorrow in a dual meet with the University of Southern California.

PIRRONE'S SCHEDULE OF WEEK-END GAMES.

FARREN AND KETCHEL IN UPSTICKS BOUT.

PUT UP SCRAPPY FIGHT AT DOYLE'S—COLIMA HANGS IT ON MIKE DOLL.

Frankie Farren of San Francisco was no set-up for Young Ketchel in the main event at Vernon last night. The Bay City scrapper is shifty on his feet and handles his mitts in clever fashion. His right is his best asset, and he landed this with telling effect on numerous occasions. The first round was even, Farren had the second, Ketchel the third and the fourth was a slam-bang affair with honors even. The draw verdict was the only just decision.

Bert Colima whanged the stuffings out of Mike Doll in the semi-windup and earned the decision. He dropped Mike to the canvas toward the close of the second round, but the latter jumped to his feet as the bell rang. In the third round Doll tried hard to land with his famous haymakers, but received a jolt on the head every time he chanced it. He was a gory mess at the close of the session. The fourth was a repetition.

The bouncing Joe Brown was too strong for Ray Leach, who proved a bear at infighting, and the latter was worn down by his rival's clashing rights and lefts to the head. Brown earned the decision.

In the preliminary Harry Beecher was awarded the decision over Phil Moss. Charles Roselli and George Marks fought to a draw. Ralph Pena won all the way from Sammy Miller.

ALL READY FOR BIG RACE.

Manager A. M. Young of the Los Angeles Speedway felt better yesterday afternoon than he has for a long time. Following the precipitation of H2O which took place shortly after lunch, Mr. Young and a number of other distinguished experts on liquids journeyed out to see what effect the showers had had on the parking space and the roads leading into the big bowl from Pico and Wilshire boulevards.

They found that the road and the gravel surface parking space were in very good shape, which means that the three fifty-mile races for the sprint championship and the $15,000 purse will be held Sunday afternoon unless there is a regular cloudburst in the meantime.

WRIGLEY CUP IS A PUZZLE.

Angels may Cop it Through Inability to Play.

Vernon to Get Another Chance with Cubs Today.

Tigers Size up Much Better than Killeferites.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

No chance was given the Angels yesterday to demonstrate their rate of improvement. They had expected to divulge the real inside dope on themselves in a game with the Cubs, but the erratic climate kept the affair from coming off. This particular game will be held over until next spring, but this doesn't clear up the complications centering about the Wrigley cup. This contest was to have counted in the competition for the trophy, and none of the legs on the trophy can be postponed until next year.

HELPS CHANCES.

However, failure to play is believed to have enhanced the chances of the Angels for the cup, as their standing is now no worse than before. Indications are, however, that the tangle may become more complicated. The cup was to have been awarded on the basis of a five-game series each with the Angels, Tigers and Seals. Now it will be impossible for the Angels to play that many games, as they have only one more contest scheduled.

In the event of a tie, the trophy was to be awarded on the basis of total runs scored against the Cubs. This, however, wouldn't contain the element of equity unless each of the three teams met the Cubs in an equal number of games.

KILLEFER HAS IDEA.

Killefer, it is reported, inclines to the theory that the cup should be awarded on the basis of infield hits made off Alexander. To date the Angels and Tigers have each made an infield hit off Alex, but that of the Angels was the hardest.

After surveying the grounds, and taking soundings, officials of the Los Angeles club decided to call off yesterday's combat. This was a wise decision. To have played yesterday would have been the height of folly, when there is so much wholesome summer ahead. Now that the Chamber of Commerce is back of baseball it is confidently believed that the climate will improve right along, although the C. of C. didn't make much of a showing its first day as a moral force behind the great national pastime.

VERNON TODAY.

Should the weather permit, Vernon and Chicago will meet this afternoon in their last game of the spring series. This will be followed by the final clash between the Angels and Cubs on Sunday afternoon. That night the Cub regulars will leave for Hanford, where the team is scheduled to meet Seattle on Monday, the residue of the Chicago expedition leaving for that point Monday morning.

While the behavior of the Cubs at times has bordered on the brutal, it has been a period of enlightenment for the local bugs. Mitchell's men have brought out the weak points of the Angels and Tigers, which is a good idea, as otherwise a lot of us might be backward about admitting the horrible truth.

TIGERS BETTER.

Incidentally, the Cubs have publicly demonstrated that the Tigers look about a ton better than the Angels at this writing. Although his team is not yet in a finished condition, Essick has a club which could go through the season as now constituted and cause a world of trouble for all rivals. How truly great were the Tigers last season is realized only when it is recalled that after losing Maisel, Heck, Dawson, Houck and Finneran, Essick still has a well-balanced ball team—one which right now shapes up as good, if not superior, to any other in the league.

This superiority brought forth by the Cubs served to jar Los Angeles officials into a realization of the team's shortcomings and will result in ultimate good to the Angels. Killefer's team right now, outside the pitching staff and possibly behind the bat, lacks a lot that a regular ball club needs.

SHEELY'S VICTORS OVER THE BYLERS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BOYES HOT SPRINGS, March 26.—Sheely's Swells beat Byler's Braves in the home club practice game this afternoon, the session going six innings. Stroud worked for the winners, while Bromley did the hurling for the losers. Jenkins caught Stroud, while Byler backstopped for his home team.

Elmer Rieger reported and was in uniform. There will be another practice game Saturday, with a contest in Santa Rosa on Sunday.

RED BALDWIN IS TO MANAGE HANFORDS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HANFORD, March 26.—Red Baldwin, Seal catcher, signed a contract to play with and manage the Hanford team of the San Joaquin Valley League today. He is here to take over the team Monday. Howard Gregory, former Oakland pitcher and later of Witchita, Kan., arrived Monday to be first string pitcher for Hanford.

PENNSY LEADS IN MAT BOUTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 26.—Pennsylvania State, present title-holder, took the lead in the annual intercollegiate wrestling tournament here tonight, qualifying five men for the championship rounds tomorrow. Yale came through with three, while the University of Pennsylvania, Lehigh and Cornell had two each.

ALL SPORTS REVIVE IN MERRY ENGLAND.

PRESENT SEASON OF OUTDOOR ENTERTAINMENT IS TO BE GREATEST IN HISTORY.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, March 26.—The present week witnessed the beginning of a sporting season which promises to be one of the most enthusiastic in English history. After a five year recess for most branches of competition, the people are returning to their old customs, anxious to make up for lost time.

One of the greatest crowds ever gathered at an English race track witnessed the grand national steeplechase today. Many thousands, including the whole sporting population of Ireland, went to Liverpool for the event. King George was accorded a warm reception when he appeared at the race course. He will go to Manchester for the foot ball game tomorrow.

After a suspension since 1914, the varsity race and track events between Oxford and Cambridge take place tomorrow afternoon. The rowing, which is to be from Putney Bridge to Mortlak, does not start until 5:20 p.m., when the tidal conditions will be most favorable. A great part of London's population will spend the afternoon on or beside the Thames.

Oxford appears to be the favorite in the rowing classic, while Cambridge is favored in the track events, about which there is much interest, it being considered that some idea of the material available for the coming Olympic games in Belgium may be had from the results.

SUDS ARE TO CARRY BIG PITCHING STAFF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HANFORD, March 26.—The release of Nels Larsen, Montana pitcher, without condition, and the departure late last night of Elmer Reiger for Boyes Springs to enter the camp of the Salt Lake team in spring training, were features of news from the Seattle training camp today. The shifts mark the first step in organization of the pitching force for the coming season and Manager Clyde Wares said today that he would probably retain seven pitchers to open the season, farming, releasing or selling the remainder of his present staff.

The seven will probably be Gardner, Schorr, Demaree, Geary, Sweeney, Siebold and Brenton. It was made certain today that "Dutch" Leonard, of the Detroit Tigers, who is visiting his home in Fresno, will hurl for the Fresno team, which plays Seattle here Sunday. This pleases Manager Wares and now he hopes that his batters will get an opportunity to go against the mighty Grover Alexander when they meet the Chicago Cubs here on next Monday.

JAY GOULD IS STILL THERE WITH RACKET.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—Jay Gould, the open champion, paired with Joseph W. Wear, representing the Racquet Club, defeated D. L. Hutchinson and S. L. Andrews, also of the Racquet Club, in the first semi-final match of the national doubles tennis championship here today, 6-2, 6-1 and 6-2.

Hutchinson and Andrews played well, but the contest would have been closer had not Hutchinson served double faults at critical moments.

Joshua Crane and C. T. Russell of Boston won the other semi-final match from F. Cutting and S. Cutting, 6-3, 4-6, 6-5 and 6-3. The final will be played tomorrow.

DEL MONTE TOURNEY OPENS TOMORROW.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DEL MONTE, March 26.—The annual Del Monte polo tournament will open Sunday with a handicap senior match between Las Positas, a combined British and eastern team, and Del Monte. It was announced today. The opening, originally scheduled for Saturday, was postponed a day to permit the field to dry out.

The winner will meet Coronado the following week in the finals. The East versus West match, feature of the tournament, will be played April 11.

HERMAN OFFERED BIG BUNCH FOR A SCRAP.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER (Colo.) March 26.—Jack Kanner, local promoter, today telegraphed Pete Herman, bantam champion, offering him $10,000 to fight twenty rounds with Joe Burman of Chicago, in Denver, on Decoration Day, for the world's championship. Burman agrees to make 118 pounds ringside.

KRUVOSKY KNOCKED OUT IN THIRD ROUND.

TACOMA (Wash.) March 26.—Bill Reed, Tacoma heavyweight, last night knocked out "Bev" Kruvosky of San Francisco in the third round of a scheduled six-round bout. Kruvosky floored Reed for an eight-count in the second round, but the local man came back in the third round, and a right cross finally put the Californian out.

CLASSY CANINES DRAW CROWDS.

Attendance is Big at the L. A. Kennel Show.

S. M. Spaulding's Entry Creates a Sensation.

Champion Police Dog Attracts Much Attention.

Frequent showers failed to dampen the ardor of the dog fanciers yesterday and all day long there was a steady stream of fans entering the bench show of the Los Angeles Kennel Club at the corner of First and Spring streets. Shadow Hill Roboro Lady President, an imported fox terrier, owned by S. M. Spaulding, created just as much of a furore here as it has in Great Britain and the East.

The Spaulding terrier holds the championship in England and captured first prize in the eastern classics. The terrier was awarded first prize here yesterday by J. J. Holgate of London, who is judging the local show.

Ch. Iago Von Der List, champion police dog of the United States, is attracting considerable attention because of his beauty. George F. Yerby has entered the dog for the open prizes. Mrs. Harry M. Baker carried off the cup offered for the best Pomeranian in the show, Gold Dragon of Gay Bee won the prize. Menlo Punch, owned by Miss C. S. Kempff, captured the trophy offered the best dog of opposite sex.

Judging of the 425 dogs will be completed today, it is expected. Supt. Jack Bradshaw announced last night that the seven handsome trophies for the best dogs in the show will be awarded at 9 o'clock this evening.

OAK REGULARS PUT IT ON YANS AGAIN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

OAKLAND, March 26.—For the third straight time the Oakland Yannigans were defeated by the Regulars, and this time the Regs displayed some real hitting strength landing on the shots of Ray Kremer for a 5-to-1 win. Ten hits were made off Kremer in the six innings that he pitched.

For the first time since suffering an injury to his arm, last summer, Harry Krause went into the box for the Yans and put a stop to the scoring, although he was nicked for two hits in the remaining innings.

Krause displayed to Manager Howard that he is in pretty good shape and should be able to go the route with the rest of them. Howard was not sure of Krause until he saw him out loose today.

The Regs banged out ten hits in all, three of them going to Jack Knight and two apiece to Lane, Zeider and Miller. One of Miller's went for a triple.

CATCHER AGNEW IS ON THE INJURED LIST.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

STOCKTON, March 26.—Two Seal stars are on the hospital list today. Sam Agnew was operated on at a local hospital and a small piece of flint which was imbedded deep in his left hand between the first and second knuckles was cut out. It is doubtful if he will be able to catch in the series with the Chicago Cubs. Tom Seaton was pitching to the batters this morning when Joe Dooley hit a line drive back at him and the ball struck him on the right ankle. He limped off the field and is under the care of Doc Carroll. He will be all right in a few days, and will pitch at least one of the games against the Cubs.

In the practice game today the Yannigans and Regulars played a 3-3 tie. Joe Connolly and Jim O'Connell did some nice hitting. Casey Smith pitched the whole game for the Yannigans and he is ready to go. He will pitch Tuesday against the Chicago Cubs.

COMPTON HITS BALL HARD FOR YIPPERS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—St. Mary's College baseball team arrives here early tomorrow morning for a two-game series with the Yippers. The collegians will bring a pitching staff of four to work against the Rodgers aggregation.

The Solon regulars defeated the Yannigans here today by the score of 7 to 2. "Gunner" Larkin occupied the mound for the regulars while Jack Killeen sent over the slants for the second squad. Pete Compton continues to hammer the ball in a business-like manner. He secured three hits today.

Les Sheehan, the latest addition to the team, played at the difficult corner today. Whether or not he will solve the third base position is yet a question. Stumpf and Butler, the other competitors for that station were with the Yannigans today.

BALL PLAYERS NOTICE

Baseball practice for Los Angeles Post No. 8 of the American Legion will be held at Exposition Park Sunday at 9:30. All members wishing to get on the teams will have to show up at this time.

CARPENTIER IS CLEVER BOXER.

French Champion Makes Hit in Gotham Exhibition.

Spars Two Rounds with Maj. A. J. Drexel Biddle.

Challenger for Title Regular Beau Brummel.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Georges Carpentier, French heavyweight boxer, gave his first exhibition in America at the dinner of the International Sporting Club early today when he boxed two exhibition rounds of two minutes each with Maj. A. J. Drexel Biddle of Philadelphia.

Carpentier aroused the 1000 guests to a high point of enthusiasm by his speed, clever ducking and feinting. No heavy blows were struck. The men boxed in their shirt sleeves. Tex Rickard was the referee.

Previous to the exhibition the French fighter was given a rousing ovation lasting more than a minute. His bride, who was seated in one of the balconies, was presented with a huge bouquet of flowers. Carpentier made a brief speech expressing appreciation of his reception. He said he hoped to meet Jack Dempsey, and that "the best man would win."

The guests included some of the most prominent men interested in athletics in this country.

Callers on M. and Mme. Georges Carpentier became convinced today that the French champion is a prize fighter de luxe. Their flower-filled, sumptuously furnished six rooms constitute the bridal suite in one of the city's newest and best hotels. From France they brought a valet, a maid, a secretary, a manager and a trainer and thirty-five trunks.

In addition to natural Apollo-like gifts, Carpentier is enabled to be a Beau Brummel by the following wardrobe, according to the New York Evening World:

One hundred silk shirts, twenty overcoats, three fur coats and one fur robe. Seventy-five suits, Seventy-five pairs of shoes. Two hundred neckties. The wardrobe has been found insufficient for American purposes and Carpentier is rapidly increasing it by visits to Fifth-avenue shops.

The line of challengers of Georges Carpentier, the French champion, started to form today. Charlie Weinert, once one of the most promising of the light heavies, got to the Biltmore early and hurled the first one. The offer was communicated to M. Descamps, the hypnotic manager of Carpentier. M. Deschamps was not impressed by it. However, this will not deter the filing of further applications by the American heavies.

Will Rouhe is waiting for Carpentier to get his bearings before challenging him on behalf of Gene Tunney, the ex-marine, who made such a good showing with the bayonet and the gloves when he was with the A.E.F.

"If anybody gets the chance it should be a soldier," declared William tonight. "Carpentier, having been a soldier himself, ought to prefer to box with soldiers."

That the name of Jack Dempsey at the current writing is not one to arouse any particular enthusiasm was shown at the supper of the International Sporting Club, where Georges Carpentier was the guest of honor. The poilu boxer was given a most demonstrative welcome. Later pictures were shown of Dempsey and Willard. The ex-champion's picture was cheered, but when a little clique planted at the table started for Dempsey, they did it all alone.

MACK'S DUCKS TO PLAY STAHL-DEANS.

The semi-pro Stahl and Dean baseball club will play Walter McCredie's Ducks at Ontario tomorrow afternoon. Manager Pirrone has secured Red Oldham to help out Bill Piercy on the mound, and he expects these birds to stand the Coast Leaguers on their domes.

As a preliminary to the aforementioned game the Ontario nine will hitch with Berger's Cubs from Anaheim. The line-up of Stahl and Dean in the main event follows: Finley, catcher; Oldham and Piercy, pitchers; Ferraris, first base; Brugge, second base; Palmer, shortstop; Nafziger, third base; Rose, left field; Pirrone, center field; Van Osdall, right field.

HAS WHITE SOX AN INFIELD?

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, March 26.—Three veteran members of the Chicago White Sox, last year's American League pennant winners, may be dropped from baseball this season if they fail to report, according to a statement issued today by Charles A. Comiskey, president of the club.

The three are George ("Buck") Weaver, third baseman; Charles Risberg, shortstop, and "Chick" Gandil, first baseman.

Mr. Comiskey, who returned recently from the Pacific Coast, declared he had not seen any of the trio while there and had no reason to see them. Weaver and Risberg are under contract to play with his club this season. Gandil has refused to sign his contract.

STAMPEDE DOUBLE BILL TODAY.

If there was anything needed to bring the rivalry among the contestants in the big Stampede to a breaking point it was the postponement yesterday, caused by the heavy night and morning rains. The day of enforced idleness threatened to bring several physical clashes among the various cowboy outfits as they gathered about and discussed their relative positions in the championship standing.

The rain also brought keen disappointment to the motorcycle stars, who were to have qualified in the afternoon for the fifty-mile national championship race, the biggest motorcycle event of the entire year, which will be run in connection with the Stampede programme at Ascot Speedway, tomorrow afternoon. The qualifications will be held this afternoon and the respective time made by the riders will determine their starting positions.

There is a race in itself promised in the qualifications for the speed stars each are anxious to win the coveted honor of pacing the field for the flying start. The pick of America's best riders have entered and the machines are the fastest ever built, so it seems certain that there will be a carnival of record-tumbling when these wizards of the handlebars get into action this afternoon.

While the postponement worked badly for the thousands who wished to attend yesterday, the spectators this afternoon will reap a benefit for there will be a combination of the programmes scheduled for the day and today. With the dust at rest, the wild horses tamed, and with added viciousness, if they ever needed it. They already are bad enough, the cowboys declare.

JOHNSON TO BOX IN MEXICAN BULL RING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MEXICALI (Lower California), March 26.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, will give a boxing exhibition in the bull-ring here Easter Sunday, April 4, according to statements credited to sport promoters here today. Johnson recently telegraphed from Manzanillo, Jalisco, to Fred Dato, brother-in-law to Gov. Esteban Cantu of Lower California, asking that a match be arranged here for him, it was said by Dato he would try to have Fred Fulton meet Johnson here.

WANT TO BE IN COW DISTRICT.

Willing Property Owners Petition Council in Name of "Bossy."

There is one section of Los Angeles that has no objections to being in the "cow district."

Property owners in the area bounded by Meridian street, Avenue 56, Stratford road and Holden street yesterday asked the City Council to so classify this territory, that cows may be kept therein.

The petition went to the Public Health and Sanitation Committee.

SEEK HALF MILLION FOR JEWISH RELIEF.

SECRETED DRIVE WILL OPEN IN RESIDENCE DISTRICT FIRST OF THE WEEK.

Everything is ready at the American Jewish Relief headquarters for the opening tomorrow of the drive for $500,000.

Prominent workers, both Jews and Gentiles, have everything prepared for the personal campaign which starts Monday. This week has been devoted to the industries, and Campaign Director W. L. Newton urges that every business office have its subscriptions in at headquarters today if possible, so that the workers may be released for the residence districts campaign next week.

Money is already pouring in. In one mail yesterday, following sending of several thousands of letters to business houses, more than $10,000 was received. Each mail is adding to this.

Tomorrow many of the Christian churches will make another appeal from their pulpits for the support of the Jewish relief drive. Today will be observed as Jewish relief Sabbath among the orthodox Jews of the city, and special services will be held.

The Federation of Women's Clubs, in indorsing the relief drive, urges members of the various women's clubs to volunteer their services during all the time they can give next week.

Of the $500,000 quota for Southern California, the share of this city is $275,000. Each subscriber will receive a share certificate, showing the amount subscribed.

Citizens are urged by Chairman Haldeman not to wait until solicited, but to send in their subscriptions at once.

SAYS 'TIS A REBIRTH.

Former Clergyman Delivers Last Lecture Here on Christian Science.

Rev. Andrew J. Graham, C.S.B., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, who has been giving a series of lectures in this city, delivered his last lecture last evening at the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, to an audience which filled the house at an early hour. Rev. Mr. Graham was a clergyman in the Episcopal church for thirty-four years, serving as rector of parishes in Minneapolis, Washington, D. C., Indianapolis and Rochester, N. Y., before he began the study of Christian Science. He said, in part:

"Christian Science not only teaches, but demonstrates divine aid, thereby adhering strictly to the declaration of scripture: 'I will shew thee my faith by my works.' Many thousands of written testimonials of healing and regeneration, covering the last fifty years, are preserved and accessible; current testimonials of redemption from sickness and sin appear regularly in the Christian Science Journal, Christian Science Sentinel and the Christian Science Heralds in French and German; each Wednesday evening in all Christian Science meetings are heard the living voices of grateful men and women testifying to the power of Christian Science to heal and to save; throughout the world, beyond broad waters and behind lofty mountains, in great cities and quiet hamlets, by the domestic fireside and in trench and hospital, men and women, confident and calm, joyous and active, are found declaring that through Christian Science they have come to know, and in some measure have been able increasingly to demonstrate that God is a sure remedy for every ill, here and now. When one finds the correct answer to a problem in mathematics he is certain the rule by which he works is true.

"So, when through the application of the principle of Christian Science one sees the destruction of disease and mental perversity, he knows that the rule of healing as taught by Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, is true. The test set up by Jesus the Christ is this: 'By their fruits ye shall know them.'

"On page 313 of 'Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures,' Mrs. Eddy writes:

"'Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause.' Again, on page 476 of the same book, she writes: 'Jesus beheld in science the perfect man, who appeared to Him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals. In this perfect man the Savior saw God's own likeness, and this correct view of man healed the sick.' The vision of Jesus Christ, therefore, was not to Him a deferred fact; it was seen and known as present.

THE VISION EXTENDED.

"The workable knowledge of the omnipotence and omnipresence of God was not confined to the consciousness of Jesus the Christ. He left witnesses of himself, empowered to extend and to manifest the works of healing and regeneration which He had done. For a long time after Jesus had vanished from sight, the divine command, 'Heal the sick, . . . raise the dead,' was obeyed and fulfilled. 'Like trailing clouds of glory,' the faith and works of the primitive Christians were as a light shining in heathen darkness.

"The ardent faith of the Christians which had thriven under merciless persecutions was caught in the insidious snare of formalism. Its light began to wane, its vision vanished, and it sank approximately to the world's level, where it seemed to sleep for a thousand years, while every phase of sin and tyranny was practiced in its name. These centuries constitute what may properly be called the dark ages. A theoretical system of salvation had thrust itself between God and the individual man. 'And it was night.'

THE RE-DAWN.

"Then, in 1366 A.D., John Wycliffe, called the 'morning star' of the Reformation, was at the zenith of his influence. An article in the Encyclopedia Britannica, which gathers up the thought of many scholars, says: 'He (John Wycliffe) may at least claim to have discovered the secret of the immediate dependence of the individual Christian upon God, a relation which needs no mediation of any priest, and to which the very sacraments of the church, however desirable, are not essentially necessary. This spirit of the reformation began to do away with serfdom and feudalism, and to emphasize the right of the individual.' It broke somewhat the bondage in which the human mind had been held, and thought thus released became active in many directions.

"Christian Scientists are not unmindful of, but recognize, the value of this Reformation movement in human history, which prepared mankind for the reception again of the unmutilated gospel. They acknowledged the Reformation stood for activity in the right direction, but was not radical enough to remove all the misconceptions about God with which the dark ages had beclouded thought.

"This work remained to be accomplished by a movement more spiritual in its perception, more comprehensive in its understanding of the gospel.

"In the year 1866 Mary Baker Eddy, whom medical skill had failed to relieve of a serious physical trouble, was instantaneously healed through reading the Scriptures. Christian Scientists know that with her healing began the modern fulfillment of Jesus's promise: 'When He, the spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth.' Instead of taking her physical healing and losing herself in the throng of the unthankful, her gratitude to God and compassion for suffering humanity led her to investigate and to meditate. On page 109 of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, Mrs. Eddy writes: 'For three years after my discovery, I sought the solution of this problem of mind-healing, searched the scriptures and read little else, kept aloof from society, and devoted time and energies to discovering a positive rule.' This rule she discovered, stated, elucidated, and demonstrated, over and over again, in healing the sick, thus reinstating the most practical feature of primitive Christianity.

ON OWN EXPERIENCE.

"A Christian Scientist does not give his testimony to exploit himself, but to express gratitude for the great things divine love has done for him. The psalmist expresses this desire in the words: 'I have not concealed thy loving kindness . . . from the great congregation.' I have alluded to my own healing out of the deepest gratitude to the discoverer and founder of Christian Science. I had hated her without a cause, I had ascribed to her base motives, and I had conceded to her no acknowledgment of good. I opened the book, Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures, and read on page 1: 'The prayer that reforms the sinner and heals the sick is an absolute faith that all things are possible to God—a spiritual understanding of Him, an unselfed love.' My heart was moved. I said to myself: Only one who has lived near to God could write thus. With that honest recognition of justice to Mrs. Eddy, the healing came. About six months afterwards I began a careful study of her life. From various sources I found an illuminating mass of unquestionable testimony to her worth. In studying the records of the courts to which Mrs. Eddy appealed in order to protect her writings and maintain the truth of Christian Science unadulterated, there was revealed corroborative evidence of her unselfed love for humanity. This candid investigation clarified my thought and deepened my conviction already formed that Mrs. Eddy was the most remarkable woman since the birth of Christianity.

WHAT IT IS.

"What is Christian Science healing? It is the overcoming of disease by the same method which Jesus employed, that is, by understanding and utilizing the infinite power of God who, according to the psalmist, healeth all our infirmities. The results in Christian Science healing differ from those brought about by other methods in that they are moral as well as physical, and are far more complete, satisfactory and enduring. Jesus never employed nor recommended the use of matter in any form to cure disease. It is not easy to see how a physician can be a follower of Jesus and yet in his profession adopt a remedy exactly the opposite of that which Jesus, by his acts, authorized. This is no insidious arraignment of the medical profession. This is not an assertion that medical doctors cannot be Christians. It does not impugn their sincerity and noble purpose. It simply asserts what they themselves sometimes vehemently declare, that they do not follow Jesus's method of healing. Christian Scientists abide by the fact written in the Bible that 'the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.' In one of her books (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 96,) Mrs. Eddy says of Christian Science healing: 'It is not one mind acting upon another mind; it is not the transference of human images of thought to other minds; . . . it is not of the flesh. . . . It is not one mortal thought transmitted to another's thought from the human mind that holds within itself all evil.' 'It is Christ come to destroy the power of the flesh; it is truth over error.' This definition of Christian Science healing is a partial exposition of Jesus's words: 'Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.' If one desires a fuller explanation he must study Christian Science, and learn how evil is explained and overcome metaphysically."

CAMP FOR SCHOOL CADETS.

High school cadets, numbering nearly 500, from suburban high schools, will attend a camp of instruction beginning Monday and lasting six days under the auspices of the State Adjutant-General's office. Major E. E. Kirk of the United States Army reserve will be in command of the camp.

Redondo Union High School will send 100 cadets under command of H. R. Wilson, South Pasadena High School, 110 cadets, Bailey W. Howard, commanding; Pasadena High School, 120 cadets, Gilbert O. Main, commander; Monrovia High School, thirty cadets, Arthur K. Wilson, commanding, and Inglewood High School sixty cadets under command of A. H. Badenoch. Sert. Ludwig Anderson of the Adjutant-General's office will be camp quartermaster.

The boys will live under actual field conditions during time of war, and will be given hikes, target practice and all training enjoyed by regular soldiers in camp.

The training camp is made possible because of the Easter recess of the high schools. It will be concluded annually by the Adjutant-General's office in order to keep up the standard of the remaining high school cadets corps.

High schools in this section not participating no longer maintain the old high school cadets organization, but military training in these schools is under the supervision of the Federal government and the schools or soldiers are part of the Regular Army establishment. It is considered probable that similar camps will be established by the Federal government.

UNION LEAGUE CLUB PLANS COSTLY HOME.

OPTION ON CORNER AT SECOND AND HILL STREETS; TO EXPEND $300,000.

Announcement was made yesterday by Miles Gregory, manager of the Union League Club, of the intention of that organization to acquire the property at the southeast corner of Second and Hill streets for the site of the new club home. The proposed building will be large enough to accommodate the club, and also include stores and offices. An option on the property, Mr. Gregory said, has been arranged until April 10, and in the meantime a special committee of seven club members will raise the fund necessary to close the option. Part of the money has been raised, and the club directors expect the rest to be subscribed within the next few days.

Formal action on the proposed building plan was taken at a special meeting, attended by nearly 200 members of the organization. Their decision to build a home was unanimous. While no exact estimate of cost has been made, and no building plans prepared, it is thought that the structure as proposed will require an expenditure of at least $300,000.

Mr. Gregory explained that in connection with the construction of the Second-street tunnel the grade of Hill street will be lowered four inches, the street paved between Third and First streets, and provisions made for the parking of 1800 automobiles.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Credit Men Hear Talk on Unity; Pettingell on Stocks.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The Los Angeles Wholesale Credit Men's Association with 827 members is out for 1000 by June 1. Considering geographical location and other physical limitations in the wholesale trade the record is remarkable, and puts this city well towards the head of the list in the United States. Frank W. Black, treasurer of the California Supply Company is president of the association.

Every month the organization meets for dinner and to hear worthwhile visitors discuss topics germain to the profession. This month David M. Roth, the famous memory expert gave the members a remarkable exhibition of the possibilities of his system. His topic was announced as "How to Remember Your Slow Pay Customers," but he said no one needed a memory expert to help them in performing that test so he contented himself with mixing a mess of miscellaneous words, trade marks, numerals, and names, giving each a number and calling them rapidly in proper juxtaposition in and out of regular order.

Hon. W. F. Faulkner, of London, special representative of Lord Northcliffe, made a deep impression in an address on Anglo-American unity. Mr. Faulkner paid his respects to William Randolph Hearst in no uncertain terms. As an example of Hearst accuracy he cited an article by Hannen Swaffer and credited to the London Herald in which Swaffer is enthusiastically quoted by Hearst as saying: "Millions of Americans either hate or despise England and millions of Britishers likewise loathe the United States and most of the things it stands for." Hearst found this article, said the speaker, as refreshing as a thirsty man with a corkscrew would find a bottle of beer.

Swaffer, according to Mr. Faulkner, was never editor of the London Times, as stated in the Hearst eulogy and the London Herald in which his tirade is said to have been printed was declared to be the only paper in England which would have printed it. "No journalist," said Mr. Faulkner, "With the faintest idea of his own responsibility would write a word that would cause unpleasantness between the two countries," whose soldiers fought side by side to win the word from despotism and to which the world must look for future stability.

Mr. Faulkner is here, not only to bring the British viewpoint home to Americans, but to endeavor to secure a change for the better in the character of the moving-picture films which flash daily before millions of Britons, and which, he declares is one of the greatest sources of education in the world today. These films do not always convey the spirit of tolerance and mutual understanding which they should convey. There is much matter the Britons do not understand; there is occasional propaganda subtly injected and which irritates and often offends. Divorce and sex plays are not received with the tolerant indifference they meet with on this side. In a word, a $100,000,000 yearly industry is threatened unless the tastes and feelings of 20,000,000 English picture fans are given more consideration.

The Britisher concluded by saying that he thought the destinies of the world depended upon the English-speaking peoples; that together they must police the world and make it safe, and that so long as they did this there would never be another war. Adverse, unconstructive criticism is the cheapest and most dangerous medicine to feed millions of unthinking Americans or illiterate foreigners. Great Britain and the United States will never see many things from the same angle, but they should learn to appreciate the other fellows viewpoint, for, he said, "united we will stand, but divided and torn by dissension the world will fall into chaos."

Heyman-Weil Company.

Stephens & Company is offering a 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock issue of the Heyman-Weil Company of San Francisco, said to be the largest and oldest jobbers and importers of kitchenware and household utensils and manufacturers of brooms, brushes and dusters in the State of California. The stock appears, from a statement made by Stephens & Co., to be strongly safeguarded, including a sinking fund amounting to 20 per cent. of its total annual earnings, to be applied to the retirement of the stock at not to exceed 105. Net earnings for the past three years have averaged more than four times dividend requirements.

Hutchinson Sugar.

Henry St. Goar, of San Francisco, who has been in Los Angeles, for several days, and who is first vice-president of the Hutchinson Sugar Plantation Company, stock in which is quite heavily held in this city says that the company enjoyed a year of unexampled prosperity. Mr. St. Goar referred to the surplus account now $414,320 and said cash profits for the year were $269,689. Reports submitted showed that the 1919 crop was taken from 2024.42 acres and produced an average of 3.96 tons of sugar per acre. The assets of the company are placed at $9,118,287.

Frank Hervey Pettingell, president of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, last evening addressed the class studying investments in the educational department of the Y.M.C.A., but his subject "Stocks and Stock Exchanges," had a much wider appeal, for almost everyone is interested in one or the other.

The speaker defined a stock company, and laid a foundation for an interesting discussion of stocks and the trading therein; the creation of an investing public and the methods employed in the buying and selling of securities, with especial reference to the desirability of having such securities listed on a stock exchange.

Common and preferred stocks were explained, and the speaker launched into a history of stock exchanges. He said that there is no subterfuge about the title, which means exactly what the name implies — a market place for the buying and selling of stocks. It is a comparatively recent production of modern civilization, but now universally recognized as an indispensable adjunct to the financial machinery of the world. There is a tradition that the first gathering of brokers and traders took place in Flanders in the early part of the sixteenth century; another tradition has it that the first stock exchange was organized in Amsterdam, Holland; but it is known that prior to July 8, 1773, when the London Stock Exchange was formed, a curb market had existed in Change Alley, London, for nearly a century. At the present time there are twenty-seven regularly-organized stock exchanges in the United States and eleven in other parts of the Western Hemisphere. In Great Britain there are ten, with twenty-one additional in other European cities; Asia and Africa have thirty-one; thus 100 stock exchanges now exist throughout the world.

It would not be surprising that in time the usefulness of a stock exchange will be so generally recognized in this country that stock exchanges will be established under Federal supervision, located in districts where business activities justify—the location being selected by a plan similar to that regulating the location of the Federal reserve banks — and that every corporation having a certain number of shareholders will be required by law to have its issues listed on the stock exchange serving the territory in which its business is situated, and until some such plan is devised and put in operation, the average stockholder will not enjoy the protection he is entitled to in the buying and selling of securities, except through the medium of a stock exchange.

Mr. Pettingell emphasized the advantages of listed stocks over unlisted and pointed out wherein greater security was afforded all concerned. He explained many of the terms and expressions which baffle the uninitiated and laid stress upon the code of honor which regulates all transactions. The Los Angeles exchange, he said, was organized in 1899, the outgrowth of the original Los Angeles Oil Exchange.

There are now 137 issues of stocks and bonds listed, having an authorized capital of $926,000,000, with an unissued capital of approximately $710,000,000. The number of shares of stocks and bonds handled in 1919 amounted to about $23,000,000, valued at slightly in excess of $43,000,000, which probably represents less than one-half of the business actually handled by the members, as many, for one reason or another, fail to record their informal, or off-board, sales.

Los Angeles Stocks.

In the morning the market was quiet, but later in the day there was a decided upturn which found its chief expression through the oil stocks which moved upward from the low levels reached on Thursday. National Pacific led this movement, because of news that in adjusting claims holding over through the time the leasing bill was before Congress, the Miocene Oil Company, would pay the National Pacific $170,000. The stock was exceedingly active, moving up in the morning to 15¼ cents, opening at 15 7-8 cents in the afternoon, and reaching a new high record of 16 cents at the close. General Petroleum was quiet in the morning with sales at $144 but in the afternoon a sudden spurt carried it to $147.50. Associated went to $117.50 and Amalgamated to $100. Union sold as high as $188.50. All of the oils moved up to a strong close at prices materially higher than the average of the preceding day. Mines were quiet with prices fairly firm and volume of transactions scattered. Liberty Bonds were comparatively active and fractionally higher.

Bonds Sell Fast.

That the bond market has come back, and that good issues are meeting with rapid absorption by the investing public is shown by the number of big bond issues which have been offered during the past two weeks. Almost without exception these issues have been closed out in record time. Since March, 16 there has been one issue of $35,000,000, one of $25,000,000, one of $15,000,000, two of $12,000,000, two of $5,000,000, one of $3,500,000, one of $2,500,000, and one of $2,000,000, as well as several smaller issues ranging from $350,000 to $900,000. During this period bond issues which have been offered locally total almost

PRODUCE MARKET FIRM; POTATOES ARE HIGHER

BURBANKS AND RUSSETS MOVE UP TO $7.75 PER HUNDRED, A 50-CENT ADVANCE.

Receipts of fruits and vegetables from the country and by rail were very light on the local produce market yesterday, cut all offerings met with a ready demand, with the result that the general tendency of the market was upward. Strong advances were made by some of the leading lines, few of the offerings showing any signs of weakness. A big jump in the price of potatoes was again the outstanding feature of the market, Burbanks and Idaho Russets were bringing as high as $7.75 per hundredweight, an increase of 50 cents per hundred over the quotations of Thursday's market. A few of the dealers, however, were still selling to retailers at $7.25 per hundred, the level of the preceding day's trading. Sharp advances were also made in the carlot market for potatoes, river potatoes and Idaho Russets bringing as high as $7.25 in carload lots. Oregon Burbanks were the cheapest offerings in the carlot market, selling to wholesalers at $6.75 per hundred, but the quality of the offerings was for the most part inferior. Dealers are now predicting that the potato market will advance to $9 per hundred to the retailer, since the arrivals show no indication of becoming any heavier. Receipts yesterday amounted to 4 carloads from Idaho, 1 from Oregon, and 1 from California, as compared with average normal arrivals of 25 to 30 carloads per day.

Cabbage and celery were very scarce yesterday, and the active demand was met as a consequence. The market was stronger for both of these commodities. Cabbage of ordinary quality ruled from at $2.75 to $3.00 per crate, but fancy stock was bringing as high as $5 per crate, an advance of 50 cents per crate. Celery was in good demand at $1.75 to $2 per dozen bunches, as compared with Thursday's range of $1.50 to $1.65. Lettuce was slightly lower, although for the most part the arrivals were of good quality. By the dozen heads, however, the range was from 25 to 50 cents, an advance of 5 cents. Turnips, beets, and asparagus were all firm and practically unchanged.

Artichokes were down to 75 cents per dozen on the low side of the range, but the decline was due to the fact that many of the offerings were of small size. Large sizes held steady at $1.25 per dozen. Carrots were in liberal supply, and met with a slow demand, with the result that the market weakened slightly for this commodity a cent per pound lower, and with local bunches lower than the prices of the preceding day. Sweet potatoes also declined 10 cents per lug box. A slightly weaker tone developed in the fruit market, where citrus fruits, with tangerines mostly a cent or pound lower, and with local grapefruit down 25 cents per box. If the rain continues, however, a reaction is expected in the market for this commodity, for present stocks are dwindling rapidly, and arrivals will necessarily be smaller.

CORN PRICES UP ON COVERING MOVEMENT.

LITTLE ATTENTION PAID TO MANIPULATION RUMORS; OATS CLOSE STRONG.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, March 26.—A bulge in the grain markets in the closing half-hour came on top of a sharp break about midday on reports of a failure of a Winnipeg house and on a break in oats in that market. The late advance was due to buying by a few strong operators which started buying by those of the pit element who had sold early. Closing trades were at net gains of 1⅝@2 cents with March leading. Oats gained ⅛@1¼ cents and barley 1¼ cents for the day.

With a lack of outside support, local bears were able to force a decline of nearly 2 cents after an opening bulge but they were unable to maintain their advantage, due to over-selling. Toward the last a wave of short covering carried values up 1@2¾ cents from the inside figure with the close about the top.

The trade is paying little attention to the hysterical stories regarding manipulation of the market and at the high point May was within 3 cents of the best figure this year. The independent strength in oats attracted considerable attention. Opening trades were at the low point and the close at the top.

BIG EXPORT DEMAND BOOSTS MAY COTTON.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 10 points to a decline of 9 points, most positions showing rains. The offerings carried prices below Thursday's close later and the undertone became unsettled.

Reports that exporters were buying spots in the South were accompanied by an increased demand for May and prices advanced sharply during the morning. May sold up 33 points net higher but new-crop months were held back by favorable weather forecasts and better crop advices. October sold 8 points net higher. The export demand was said to come from the continent, sales being reported for shipment to Havre and Germany.

On large exports for the day and the sharp advance in sterling May sold after 2 o'clock 40 points net higher and October about 6 points up.

THE WOOL MARKET: PRICES IN BOSTON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, March 26.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"There has been little in the way of private trading the past week, the government auctions being the only center of interest. Medium to low wools are still dragging and weak here. Little new is heard from the west, no contracting whatever being reported.

The goods market is in an uncertain position, some factors reporting a little better interest, while others are still in the doldrums."

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Stocks were tossed to and fro, apparently at the whim of professional traders, during the greater part of today's active session, but rose almost buoyantly in the final hour.

Announcement of the gold inflow, which is expected to attain formidable dimensions was accompanied by a steady advance of sterling exchange, demand bills on London rising to $3.95 before the close of the market.

The broad rally was accelerated by a decline of call money to 6 per cent. The session was marked by several distinct advances and reactions due to heavy selling for profits in several of the more speculative shares. General Motors, for example, opened at 400, a gain of 16 points on the larger dividend, fell back to 377, and closed at 391, a net advance of 7 points. Sales amounted to 1,375,000 shares.

Save for several unimportant excerpts Liberty issues strengthened and the international group was also irregularly higher. Nominal gains were made by railway and industrial bonds. Also local tractions and other utilities. Total sales (par value) aggregated $12,200,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Bradstreet's Weekly Review of Trade.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, March 26.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Distinct improvement in general business is reflected in the week's dispatches. Trade among wholesalers and jobbers is moving in even better volume than a week ago and, while the conservative feeling on the part of buyers noted in the advices for recent weeks is still present, it is perhaps less emphasized than hitherto. The most marked improvement, however, is noted in the retail trade, which has reacted strongly to the stimulus of Easter shopping and the first really springlike weather of the season. The betterment is shown particularly in millinery, dry goods, notions and footwear, but in other directions also more activity has become apparent. Manufacturers in general continue operations at full capacity, though, owing to the inadequacy of transportation facilities and some shortage of labor, their output is still behind demand and deliveries are hampered.

Weekly bank clearings, $8,670,404,000.

HOOVER CLUB'S WORK HUMMING

Many Organization Meetings in Nearby Communities.

Hundred Speakers Assigned to Precincts in City.

Business Men Flocking in to Offer Their Support.

The Hoover Republican Club is at present concentrating on the organization of the districts, outside of, but tributary to Los Angeles, stated W. R. Dickinson, secretary of the club, yesterday. The work of organizing the neighboring counties has been undertaken by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, while within the city the work has been assigned to Walter Leach and Mrs. Herbert A. Cable.

This afternoon, Mrs. Burdette and Ralph C. Ely will address a meeting at San Bernardino, and tonight the work of organizing Hoover supporters of Redlands will be undertaken by the same speakers. Meetings will also be held in Santa Ana and Long Beach, for the purpose of crystallizing the strong Hoover sentiment existing in those towns, and on Tuesday Coachella will be organized. In the city the organization of the precincts is to start immediately, more than 100 speakers having already been assigned to the work.

"Work is pouring into our offices so fast, and supporters of Hoover are offering their services in such great numbers daily, that we are simply swamped," said Secretary Dickinson yesterday. "We are electrified by the number of prominent and influential business men of the city who are coming into our offices to offer their services. In this movement the old-line politicians are passive, and apparently passe; it is the business men and the women who are coming forward with their support. I am really surprised at the backing we are receiving from the business men. It proves to us conclusively that the men with big business interests want Hoover as our administrator during the coming four years. We are not trying to arouse a Hoover sentiment in Southern California, because we do not need to do so; we are simply attempting to crystallize and organize the strong sentiment which already exists."

Plans are now being made by the local club for a big get-together meeting of Hoover leaders from all parts of Southern California, to be held in Los Angeles next week. Col. Ed Fletcher, who is organizing Hoover clubs in San Diego county, has sent word to the local club that, judging from present indications, Hoover will certainly carry San Diego county by a majority of 3000 over Johnson at the coming elections.

NEW'S MOTHER TO LIVE NEAR PRISON.

MRS. BURGER LEAVES THIS MORNING TO MAKE HOME IN OAKLAND.

Mrs. Lillie M. Burger, mother of Harry S. New, Jr., and her daughter, Miss Edna Clancy, will leave this morning for Oakland, where Mrs. Burger will make her home for the summer to be near the prison in which her son is confined, following conviction of slaying Freda J. Lesser, his sweetheart.

Briefs setting forth alleged errors of law in the trial of New and asking the Court of Appeals to order a new trial, it is expected, will be filed before April 5 by Attorney Le Compte Davis, chief counsel for New. Mr. Davis said yesterday that he is at work on the briefs and hopes to have them ready soon. If they are not ready by the 5th an extension of time may be secured by agreement with the Attorney-General, but Mr. Davis's statement indicates that the fight for a new trial will go on.

If the Court of Appeals orders a new trial plans will then be made to use the new evidence adduced by Miss Clancy to the effect that New in prison declared that Freda Lesser killed herself, and gave an entirely new version of the tragedy. This, together with other new evidence gathered by Attorney Davis, indicates that the second trial of New, if ordered, will be hard fought.

HOW TO VOTE FOR HOOVER.

If you want to aid in making Herbert Hoover President of the United States, and have established a residence in California, you must register before April 3. Only those registering before that date will be permitted to vote in the Presidential primaries in May.

Remember that the only pledged Hoover delegates will be on the Republican ballot. To make sure of voting that ticket you must express yourself as a Republican by preference at the time you register. The Attorney-General has given an opinion that those who have not stated themselves as preferring the Republican party are entitled to receive a Republican ticket when they go to vote in the primary. But this decision very probably will be contested in the higher courts.

To make certain of an opportunity to vote for Hoover delegates register by April 3 and state your party preference to be REPUBLICAN. Only those so registered may be certain of an opportunity to help make Hoover President.

TO SAFEGUARD FRAME SCHOOLS.

Fire Chief's Recommendation is Approved; Board Promises Betterments.

Members of the Fire Commission yesterday approved the report of Fire Chief Scott regarding changes he deems necessary in sixty-two two-story frame school buildings, as a matter of increased fire protection.

Representatives of the Board of Education were present and stated the board intends to make appropriations in its next budget for the changes proposed, and that meanwhile it will make such betterments as are possible with the funds available. The Fire Commission recommends that immediate action be taken to provide wire-glass for windows at stairways and fire escapes, and as many other changes be made at once as are possible.

BURGE WILL GO TO GRAND JURY.

that he had received information, independently of mine, that convinces him everything I said was justified."

"Can you state whether your evidence will tend to connect any one or more members of the police department with specific cases?"

By this time Mr. Burge was standing on his feet. In fact, he was walking toward the door. He was all smiles.

"No, I can't say anything else. Perhaps we'd better not say any more till we get some action. Too much has been said already."

"Do you mean that you have said too much, Mr. Burge?"

The commissioner, smiling and very cordial, opened the door and said, "If anything important develops, I shall be very glad to tell you about it." The interview was over.

WHAT MAYOR SAYS.

Mayor Snyder, also smiling and good natured, was more specific.

"I have been patient with Commissioner Burge. I asked him several times to submit to me, not to the Chief of Police, his charges, and promised him that we'd have action, quick action. We can't remove the whole police department, or even a part of the police department until we comply with the law. The law says that charges in writing should be placed with the Police Commission, and a copy given to the person accused. Assuming that there are some honest men in the department, it's not fair to them to place the whole force under suspicion, Mr. Burge should name the men he suspects. No doubt there are men who are not honest, we had an example of it last night. They should be removed. If Mr. Burge knows something about them, he ought to report it at once, and it seems to me that the Police Commission, his own body, and the Mayor, who has appointed him, should have his confidence. He should report to me."

"But Mr. Mayor, Mr. Burge said he did not wish to do that, he said he wanted to take this matter to the grand jury. What are you going to do about it?"

The Mayor smiled patiently.

"Mr. Burge shall have all the time necessary, and all the opportunity, to prove his charges. He'll have my co-operation."

So far as any officials concerned in the matter were advised, no progress was being made in Mr. Burge's investigation. Lieut. Gifford and Detective Sergeant Winn, who were assigned by Chief Home to assist Commissioner Burge in his investigation, were ready for duty, but were not called by Mr. Burge yesterday.

Efforts to reach Commissioner Wilson, for his version of the day's developments, and the details of the importance of the evidence Mr. Burge says he was told Wilson has, were unsuccessful. Mr. Wilson is out of town, was the statement made at his office.

The different habeas corpus petitions filed with the court for the release of the prisoners taken in the raid last Wednesday were denied when they came up for hearing in Judge Willis's court yesterday. The attorneys did not appear because the prisoners were released on bail Thursday.

PUPILS GUARDED AGAINST FIRE.

Schools are Well Protected, Investigation Shows.

Board, Prevention Body and Chamber in Inquiry.

Able to Empty Any Building in Ninety Seconds.

Following thorough investigations, a report assuring parents that the lives of their children in the public schools are carefully guarded from fire dangers, yesterday was submitted to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce by the chamber Committee on Safety and Fire Prevention. Approved copies of the report were sent to the Board of Fire Commissioners and the Board of Education.

The Fire Prevention Association, Board of Education and the Chamber Safety Committee worked in cooperation in making investigations of school buildings in relation to the fire menace and one important portion of the report says:

"Chief R. J. Scott, of the fire department, reports to this committee that there is no need for alarm on the part of parents on behalf of their children."

Tests made in all the schools show that there are none in the city at present requiring more than 90 seconds to be emptied of pupils.

According to the statement of W. E. Record, business manager of the Board of Education, the board is carrying out as far as possible with the funds available, all precautionary measures urged by the fire department. He further stated that nearly all school fires that have occurred in the past few years have been traced to incendiaries and have occurred before or after school hours. Only one fire in the last two years has occurred while children were in the building. In only one instance, a case where a furnace had become overheated, could the fire be traced to school equipment.

The chamber report shows that the city schools include 96 two-story brick buildings, 28 one-story brick buildings, 81 two-story frame buildings, 96 one-story frame buildings of the old fashioned type and 412 portable bungalows.

At present in order to accommodate all students, more than 100 half-day sessions are required, because of the shortage in school buildings.

Another part of the report says:

"While a large portion of the city schools are of frame construction, it must not be inferred that these buildings have been neglected or that they have been permitted to become hazardous. On the contrary, they are under the constant observation of the Board of Education, the Fire Prevention Association and your safety committee.

"These organizations are at all times cognizant of the actual conditions and are alert to prevent possible danger from fire. The parents may rest assured that the safety of their children while in the public schools is being guarded assiduously and every precaution is being taken at all times to insure them against fire menace."

BY BATTLESHIP MEN.

Sailors' Offering, Anent the Drought, Wins Commendations.

"A Table for Two," the syncopated comedy which is being offered at Walker Auditorium by the men of the battleship Idaho, is being well received, large crowds being in attendance at each performance.

There will be performances this afternoon and tonight, and tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night.

The little musical comedy was written and is being staged and acted entirely by seamen of the Idaho. The book and lyrics are by Earle T. Crooker. The musical numbers are staged by Virgil A. Barron. The entire plot has been under the direction of Selden Chapin.

The musical comedy deals with an era of drought, and the place is the Green Tortoise Cafe in Greenwich Village, New York. The songs are decidedly catchy, the dancing good, and the show, as a whole, is decidedly attractive.

MUST

ROTARIANS NOMINATE.

Also Plan Special Train to Oakland Conference Next Week.

At the nomination of officers for the coming year for the Rotary Club, John Blosser and Hugo Burgwald were placed on the ticket for president. The election will be held, April 9, at the luncheon at 741 South Broadway.

Other nominations for the various offices were: Vice-president, Leo Starr; directors, four of whom will be elected, T. O. Babb, Dan J. Brownstein, Robert A. Hessner, Harry C. Fryman, N. R. Webster, Fred Young, Fred E. Peterson, Carl J. Gordon, John C. Rendler, E. A. Talbot; sergeant-at-arms, S. V. McQuinn, W. R. Kilgore, Dr. A. B. Cranstoun, Myer Siegel.

There will be no meeting of the club next week, as members will be in conference in Oakland. Members from California, Arizona, New Mexico and the Hawaiian Islands will meet in the northern city for their annual district convention. A special train will leave Tuesday, carrying the delegates from this city and Southern California.

LAWYER UNDER FIRE.

Bar Association Files Charges Against Bert Campbell.

The Los Angeles Bar Association, through Attorney B. Rey Schauer, yesterday filed an accusation against Bert Campbell, charging him with unethical conduct. It states that Mr. Campbell was retained by Edmund A. Straus to defend him in a suit by Henry T. Hazard, and that after receiving certain sums he "dishonestly and corruptly" demanded further money from Mr. Straus to continue his duties toward his client, that he subsequently failed to act, and that Mr. Straus had to employ another attorney.

The Season's Foremost Coat Event!

Next season, overcoats are going to be higher. That is a pretty well established fact. All merchandise reports show it. We don't like the idea any more than the public, but the increase to come is caused by circumstances over which Hamburger's has no control.

And admitting this to be true, Men, here is an opportunity to save from 25% to 50% on an overcoat, even if you do not use it until next fall. Hamburger's Men's Store—conveniently located on the ground floor at Eighth and Hill streets—brings it to you today.
